UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE - (Cont'd) employment on or after March 1, 1971. Benefit payments can not be paid for any period of unemployment prior to July 20, and covers employees whose State employment is terminated because of budget or funding reduction, organizational changes or reduced workload. Claimants must meet the provisions of California Unemployment Insurance Code; i.e., meet regular eligibility requirements for drawing insurance benefits.

Additional details on the insurance benefit will be released by the Chancellor's office in the near future.

Chateaubriand

By RICHARD SWITZER
*California State College
San Bernardino*

"Chateaubriand," a critical-analytical study of the major writings of the noted French author written by Richard Switzer, Chairman of the Division of Humanities, was recently released by Twayne Publishers, Inc. of New York.

The book, Dr. Switzer's fourth on Chateaubriand, examines each of his major works in the light of contemporary criticism and is intended primarily as a text for American and English students of French literature.

Twayne Publishers have released Dr. Switzer's book under its World Authors Series, which surveys the works of great writers of the world.

CSCSB BLOOD BANK ACCOUNT CRITICAL; DONORS SOUGHT Donors are urgently needed to build up the College's Blood Bank account, which is now dangerously low. As of today only 15 pints are available to members of the College community and their families.

All faculty, staff, students and their families are eligible to receive and donate blood through the CSCSB account. Those who volunteer to give blood are asked by Oscar Jackson, Co-chairman of the Reserve Fund, to specify that the blood is to be credited to the College account.
