GOVERNOR'S PROPOSED
STATE COLLEGE BUDGET
FOR 1972-73 RELEASED

The Governor's 1972-73 proposed budget for CSCSB contains $779,000 for capital outlay and $5,614,380 for operating expenses.

The proposals were part of a total $385 million State College Budget allocation request which next will go to the Legislature.

The capital outlay proposals for this campus include funds to convert the former Library Building to administrative and faculty offices, funds for working drawings for a new classroom building, equipment for the new Commons-Cafeteria Building now under construction and additional equipment for the Biological and Physical Sciences Buildings.

This year's operating expense budget for the College was $5,092,946. No funds were allocated for capital outlay.

MONTE CORONA TO BE SITE OF CSCSB DISCUSSION GROUP

An informal conference will be held tomorrow and Sunday, January 22 and 23, by members of the CSCSB administration and faculty. Site of the meeting, the first of its kind in the College's history, will be Monte Corona in Twin Peaks.

Over 80 faculty and administrators will convene in a loosely-structured program which will permit easy movement from one discussion group to another. Some of the subjects to come under scrutiny will be the nature of the College and its direction and commitment as a liberal arts institution. Other subjects will be the language requirement, the general studies program, enrollment problems, relations with other colleges, etc.

The first general session will be opened Saturday morning by Kent Schofield, a member of the steering committee. Other members are Russell DeRemer, John Hatton, Virginia Ingersoll, Fred Kellers, Roger Lintault, Sarojam Mankau, Clark Mayo, Walter Oliver and Carl Wagoner.
