A Century with the Munoz Family

By Jessica Wyland

Imagine a party with over 600 guests who have more in common than a love of good food, games and fun - they are all related. Five generations of the Munoz family of Redlands celebrated such an event last Saturday at the Eagles Lodge in San Bernardino.

The Munoz Family Reunion began just after noon with a memorial Mass, followed by games and activities such as a bounce house, clowns, face-painting and karaoke for around 200 kids, plenty of food and then dancing to a live band until midnight. Although Espinoza bought 80 dozen tortillas for the event, he remarked that the job of the reunion committee was such an emotional thing.

“All the time spent organizing was time well spent,” Espinoza said of the committee that set to work over 10 months ago to bring their family together.

The job of the reunion committee does not end with the reunion. Lydia Orante, who maintains files on over 700 relatives, has set up a Munoz Continued on pages 4 & 5

Route 66 Program at Nunez Park

set for Saturday, Sept. 18

Along with the Route 66 celebrations starting on September 16 in downtown San Bernardino, the 7th Annual Salute To The Route 66 celebrations will be held on Saturday, September 18, 1999 at Nunez Park, West San Bernardino, (between 4th and 5th streets) from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM.

Joe Rodriguez, chair of the Route 66 Committee, stated that a full array of entertainment has been planned for the one day celebrations targeted toward the families of the area. “Our committee has worked very diligently in bringing top-notch attractions to our annual activity. Admission is free, there is a display of low rider-hop, classic cars, hot rods, vintage and foreign cars. We are bringing professional entertainers, including mariachis, ballet folkloricos and country-western music and TERRA. Food vendors will be selling delicious food and there will be a KIDS TOWN.”

The famous Route 66 actually came down from the Cajon Pass into Mount Vernon Avenue and west on Fifth Street into the Los Angeles area. As a result, Mount Vernon was a very busy thoroughfare with numerous businesses, restaurants and motels. The demise of the area was the result of the construction of the 215 freeway.

The one-day Route 66 is being sponsored by HOPP-O’s, Juan Pollo, Tri-color-590/1410, Kiwanis Club of Greater San Bernardino, San Bernardino’s TERN Program and the Gents Organization.

Family seeks help in locating disabled youth

The County of Los Angeles Sheriff Department-City of Industry Division, Prince of Peace Church and the Godoy family are seeking the whereabouts of Blanca Godoy, 15 year old disabled person who has disappeared.

Blanca Godoy was alleged to be last seen with Walter Lopez Valdez, 28-year-old male, who has no family ties in the United States. Both are Spanish-speaking and there is a strong believe that they may be more readily located within the Hispanic community and that she is being held against her will.

The Godoy family and law enforcement agency are requesting help from the public in locating Blanca Godoy.

Persons having information regarding the whereabouts of Blanca Godoy may call: Hermano Alvaro at (626) 448-4910, Los Angeles County Sheriff at (626) 330-3322, refer to case number 09911780440402; or Margarita Suarez at (909) 868-8636.

Blanca Godoy, 15-year old disabled youth, has disappeared and the family is seeking help from the public.
The voters of the 42nd Congressional District will go to the polls on September 21st to elect a congressman, since the late Congressman George Brown died early this year.

There are a number of candidates from different parties including five Democratic candidates, and the voting citizens are observing two major players that potentially have greater opportunity to capture the seat.

The other strong candidate is Republican Ella Pirozzo who will undoubtedly win the total Republican vote with a 33% registration.

Marta Macias Brown, George Brown's widow and Senator Joe Baca are the strongest contenders for the congressional seat, where there is a 52% Democratic voter registration.

Marta Macias Brown joined Congressman Brown's staff in 1980, serving in various congressional assistant positions and performing a myriad of responsibilities within that office.

In that capacity and later as the wife of the congressman, her administrative responsibilities increased, including accompanying her husband on global trips associated with his legislative responsibilities. She has also served in numerous state and local advisory boards and prior to her congressional tenure, was actively involved in the region.

Senator Joe Baca has a long and distinguished career as a community activist. As community liaison at GTE, he was actively involved throughout the region, promoting economic development, education and in other key social areas. He was also the founder of the Youth Education and Motivation Program (YEMP), a highly successful program to motivated middle school students into college-level career paths.

Baca was elected to the San Bernardino College Board of Trustees in 1979 and was an active member, serving in various committees to improve the community college system. In 1992, Baca was elected to the State Assembly and distinguished himself as a leader and was elected Speaker Pro Tempore—the first Latino to serve in that capacity since California became part of the Union in 1850! He developed strong legislative leadership skills and political sophistication. His record as the state's Federal Government Liaison and also served on the powerful Rules and Appropriation Committee.

Baca was elected to the State Senate after Senator Ayala's retirement. He currently serves on nine committees, including the powerful Rules Committee. Senate colleagues consider Baca a hard and diligent worker.

The issues are generally identical for each of the congressional candidates with minor variances: school safety, education, after school programs, medicare and social security, crime, youth violence. The exception is tax relief by the Republican candidate.

The 42nd Congressional District with its Democratic majority of 52% against the Republican Party's 33% is politically ideal when a single Democratic candidate is running. However, this is not the case in this race. And ironically, the two strong contenders are Hispanic! So, the highly potent and very active Hispanic voter must choose between two Hispanic candidates.

The Inland Empire Hispanic News has selected Senator Joe Baca as the most outstanding candidate to receive the support of the voters in the 42nd Congressional District.

Baca's long history of community involvement gives him a solid knowledge of grassroots issues. His three terms on the community college board is a positive indicator of a strong commitment to the education of our youth, coupled with his support of educational incentives to minorities.

His record in Sacramento, first as an assemblyperson and most recently as a senator, has enhanced his legislative skills, and has served his district(s) extremely well, successfully pushing through programs and funding benefiting our area.

His political acumen is highly effective, considering the fact that he has the strong support of the majority of local unions, Congressional Hispanic Caucus and congressmen, State Hispanic Caucus, local elected officials and community leaders.

Joe Baca has the essential attributes to represent the citizens of the 42nd Congressional District.

He deserves your vote.
Latin Jazz Festival

When Latin jazz legends Tito Puente, Lalo Schifrin, Eddie Palmieri and Chucho Valdes are inducted into the Latin Jazz Hall of Fame September 18 and 19, they bring with them a collective body of work spanning 170 years that includes 14 Grammies, 17 Grammy nominations, 100 movie musical scores, 2 lifetime achievement awards, 6 Oscar nominations, more than 150 recordings, and 2 stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

The four giants of Latin jazz appear on the same bill for the first time at the third annual Con Ritmo y Saber Latin Jazz Festival presented by the Latin Jazz Institute and Festival Los Angeles. The two day festival will be held September 18 and 19 at the Watercourt in California Plaza in downtown Los Angeles.

Univision Announces Education Initiative

Los Angeles, CA - Univision, the nation's leading Spanish-language television network, announced an extensive, multi-year campaign to ensure that Latino students excel educationally. U.S. Department of Education Secretary Richard Riley joined Univision communications inc. President and Chief Operating Officer Henry Cisneros in making the announcement.

The Univision Education Initiative, Tu futuro depende de ti...Educa! (Your Future is in Your Hands...Get an Education!) will deliver the message that quality education for all students is critical to preparing the United States to compete in the world marketplace.

"The latest education statistics reveal unacceptable high dropout rates among Latino students in the U.S. and we must work together to reverse this trend," said Mr. Cisneros. Univision Network will be working with its affiliate stations to provide Latino parents the kind of information they will require to be more savvy users of the education system and better advocates for their children.

The US Department of Education has joined Univision in this effort and will provide educational materials through its toll free number (1-877-433-7827) with bilingual operators available to answer the calls.

"It is critical that all Americans understand the link that a quality education is to a successful future," said U.S. Secretary of Education Richard W. Riley. "I hope this partnership with Univision will provide needed resources for Latino parents and community members especially to learn how they can get involved in their children's education and support positive learning opportunities."

The elements of the Univision Education Initiative include national and local public service announcements, with Univision celebrities including "Sabado Gigante" host Don Francisco and the co-host of the Network's morning program "Despierta America," Giselle Blondet, will be featured in the national Public Service Announcements.

family web site with the help of her daughter featuring family history details and photographs from the reunion. The web address is http://pages.prodigy.net/LydiaO/. According to Irene Gonzales Natoli, "this is a gift from God."

You could not find a member of the Munoz family who isn't proud of their large family and rich heritage that began in Yucaipa almost a century ago. Since then, the family has grown in size and expanded to touch communities throughout the United States.

Many of the Munoz descendants are members of the Inland Empire Hispanic Hall of Fame, including Ray Espinosa, for his excellence in music, Art Nunez, for his talent, and a sports official, Sammy and Cristina Garcia, for their service to the community, and Harry Munoz, Sr., for his athletic skill.

Several of the Munoz descendants are educators, with two principals and one vice principal, one with a Ph.D., in Chemistry. Among the family, there are many in the medical field, mostly RNs. There are executives in the computer industry and finance and several in the grocery industry.

Quite a few are in law enforcement and one is a lawyer. Along with artists, small business owners, engineers, journalists, pilots, horticulturists, numerous members serving in the military and even a sign interpreter for the deaf, the family covers a wide span of talent and trade.

How did the family members become so successful so quickly? "Our grandparents worked so hard," remembers Orantia. "We were always encouraged to succeed and to get educated. We never let our heritage or our gender hold us back.

We always kept our family's culture and traditions, but we also learned to achieve as Americans."

The Munoz Family History

In 1901, a year after their wedding, Bernardino "Lino" and Cristina Munoz left Chihuahua, Mexico with their first daughter, Rafaela, for a new life in the United States.

The young family settled in Yucaipa where they worked on a ranch for Guy Dunlap. Through several years and nine more children, the Munoz family grew close to Dunlap who built them a house to replace the tent they called home.

Fifteen years, and four children later, Lino and Cristina moved the clan to Redlands where Lino and his sons harvested oranges, while the women worked in the citrus industry packing houses. The family also worked in the Oak Glen Apple Harvest for Mr. Rivers. The name, "Los Rios Ranchos," Lino affectionately gave to Mr. River's Ranch must have stuck because it is still called this today.

The legacy of the Munoz family, built by Papa Lino and Mama Tina, as they are lovingly called, began in 1901 with the birth of Rafaela. Rafaela was joined a year later by Tomasa. Both women worked in the packinghouses. Rafaela was mother to five children. In true Munoz family tradition, Tomasa, had sixteen children.

In 1903, the Munoz family welcomed Nellie into the world. She moved to Redlands at 15 and although Nellie had only a ninth grade education, she worked like a Registered Nurse. She worked for Dr. Hill during the notorious flu epidemic of 1918 in Redlands.

Nellie spent most of her adult life in San Bernardino. She served for several years as a midwife and was extremely politically active. Playing an integral role in the development of the city, Nellie petitioned and lobbied to pave "L" and "Ninth" Streets and to bring plumbing and electricity into homes in San Bernardino.

The first Munoz son, Joseph, followed Nellie in birth, One year later, Henry, their second son, came along. Joseph and Henry were lifelong caretakers of the Shirk Residence in Redlands known as Kimberly Crest Estates. Joseph had three children of his own, while Henry had just one.

In 1907, Papa Lino and Mama Tina had number six, Manuel, nicknamed "Ned." Ned spent most of his life in San Diego, working in retail. His real passion was for his violin and for his adopted daughter.

Ned was followed by a double whammy - twins! Reynaldo "Bruno" and Reynalda. In the footsteps of their father, the twins worked in the orange groves. Bruno, who had two children, started in the harvest and earned his way up to caretaker and eventually owner of his own grove. Reynalda, the mother of five children and a set of her own twins, worked as an orange packeter.

Cenovia was the ninth Munoz child, born in 1910. She worked along sisters,
In the packinghouse. Eventually, Cenovia mothered two children and went on to manage a toy store - much to the glee of her children and grandchildren.

Four years after Cenovia's birth, another daughter, Louise, was born. Like Cenovia, Louise raised two children and worked in the packinghouses. She moved on to work for 30 years as a production and supply control administrator for Norton Air Force Base.

The youngest daughter, Lucybelle, was born in 1918. Although she worked as an orange packer, she is best remembered by her excellent cooking. Lucybelle was mother to six children.

When Lucybelle was four years old, her younger brother Harold, "Harry," came into the world. Harry was a well-known, star athlete all his life. In high school he lettered in 11 of the 13 varsity sports. After graduation, the Detroit Lions tried to recruit Harry, but he turned their offer away to marry the love of his life, Lucy. Harry and Lucy were married and raised five children while he worked for Norton Air Force Base. The Munoz family awards two annual scholarships in honor of Harry Munoz.

The baby of the Munoz family, Christopher, was born in 1924. Christopher served in WWII and was wounded in the Philippines. Christopher fathered three children. He finished his military career at Norton Air Force Base working in maintenance.

Although the parents and 13 children of the first Munoz family have passed on, their legacy continues. Five more generations of the Munoz heritage ensure that the memory, traditions, and culture of Papa Lino and Mama Tina will always be alive.

THIS IS THE INLAND EMPIRE FUTURE LEADERS - A SHORT HISTORY

Inland Empire Future Leaders: A Short History

By Martha Santana

As Future Leaders we want to know everything; as children we wanted to know where we came from, and as Future Leaders we want to know how a magical program such as the Inland Empire Future Leaders Program was founded. Well, it all happened in 1983, when San Bernardino Educator Susan Vargas attended a statewide conference of the Association of Mexican American Educators. Susan was impressed with a presentation by high school students who had attended an AMAE high school leadership conference.

Back in the Inland Empire, Susan, believing that such a program would benefit local students, enthusiastically sought the support of other local educators including Henry Vázquez, Bill Ellison, and Frank Acosta. Seeking support from a local university, Susan, Henry, Bill, and Frank contacted Dr. Tom M. Rivera, Associate Dean for Under-graduate Studies at California State University, San Bernardino. Rivera’s support and direction provided to be crucial.

Inland Empire Committee looks forward to another year of excellence with more follow up workshops and greater participation in future conferences. With the generous help of its supporters, local students will indeed become Future Leaders.

Dr. Rivera, Susan, Henry, Bill and Frank were joined by other supporters in forming the Inland Empire Committee. They focused the program on students entering high school, thus affording Future Leaders alumni four years to put into practice skills learned at the Conference.

The first Inland Empire conference was held at Camp Wrightwood in 1985. Camp Seely (Valley of Enchantment), Camp Yolijwa (Oak Glen), and Camp Norris (San Bernardino National forest) have also been sites of our Leadership Conference. Several years ago, we moved to a larger camp at the Desert Sun Science Center (Idyllwild); this enabled us to expand the Program to include over 130 students, an increase of more than 50 percent.

Follow-up activities have been held at California State University, San Bernardino.

1998-99 CONSOLIDATED PLAN - ANNUAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW

NOTICE OF HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Bernardino will hold a public hearing on TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1999 AT 10:00 A.M. in the Chambers of the Board of Supervisors, 385 North Arrowhead Avenue, First Floor, San Bernardino, CA. The purpose of the hearing is to review the County’s accomplishments during the past fiscal year under the County’s 1998-99 Consolidated Plan.

BACKGROUND

Each year since 1975, the County of San Bernardino has qualified to receive federal housing and community development grant funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). The funds are to develop visible communities by providing decent housing, suitable living environments and expanded economic opportunities, principally for low- and moderate-income persons. In 1996, the County qualified to receive these funds over a three year period from the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), Emergency Shelter Grant (ESG) and HOME Investment Partnerships Act (HOME) programs. The funds are for eligible projects in the unincorporated communities and fourteen (14) cooperating cities. These cities are Adelanto, Barstow, Big Bear Lake, Chino Hills, Colton, Grand Terrace, Highland, Loma Linda, Montclair, Neenah, Redlands, Twentynine Palms, Yucca Valley, and the Town of Yucca Valley. For the purpose of these grant funds, this area is referred to as the "County Consortium."

To receive the 1998-99 CDBG, ESG, and HOME grant funds, the County prepared a consolidated grant application called the "Consolidated Plan." On April 14, 1998, the County of San Bernardino Board of Supervisors approved a proposed Consolidated Plan. Upon completion of the public review period and after all comments were received and considered, a final Consolidated Plan was prepared. The final Consolidated Plan was submitted to HUD on June 1, 1998 for funding approval. During the final fiscal year, the County has carried out a wide variety of grant limited construction, public service, housing and economic development and homeless assistance activities.

ANNUAL PERFORMANCE REVIEW

At the end of each September, the County submits detailed reports to HUD covering the past year’s activities, accomplishments and expenditures. The County combines the annual HOME, ESG and CDBG reports into a single Consolidated Plan Annual Performance Report pursuant to HUD Consolidated Plan regulations. At the public hearing, the Department of Economic and Community Development (ECD) will present the County’s 1998-99 Annual Performance Review (APR) and receive Citizen’s Comments. The APR will summarize the County’s performance and accomplishments in carrying out programs and projects to meet the various goals and strategies outlined in the Consolidated Plan.

For a period of fifteen (15) days beginning on September 9, 1999 and ending on September 23, 1999, the public is invited to submit written comments on the Annual Performance Review. Comments received after 5:00 p.m. on September 23, 1999 cannot be considered in the preparation of the Annual Performance Report to HUD. Send comments to County ECD at the address shown below. A draft copy of the APR will be available for public review during the public comment period, at the ECD address.

Those individuals wishing to express their views on the Annual Performance Review may be present and be heard at the public hearing or may, prior to the time of the hearing, submit written comments to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, 385 North Arrowhead Avenue, Second Floor, San Bernardino, CA 92415-0130.

If you challenge any decision regarding the above proposal in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else stated at the public hearing described in this notice or in written correspondence delivered to the Board of Supervisors at or prior to the public hearing.

Due to time constraints and the number of persons wishing to give oral testimony, time restrictions may be placed on oral testimony at the public hearing regarding this proposal. You may make your comments in writing to assure that you are able to express yourself adequately.
