Cancer Claims The Life of Betty Harwell

Harwell, 74, last of three children, to Mr. and Mrs. Lennox Williams of San Bernardino was buried Wednesday morning at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. She moved with her family to Riverside, California when she was five years old.

By Gary Webb

A rough-and-tumble patient, a minister, a community activist, a community activist, and a church executive, the life of Dr. Betty Harwell was filled with a sense of purpose.

By Cheryl Brown

Betty Harwell, who worked at the University of California, San Diego, passed away peacefully on February 20, 2016. She was 74 years old.

Riverside City Council Takes No Stand on Proposition 209
By Paul A. Hurst
Black Voice News

"I do not feel that the City council should be a "whistle wind" for the community" the remarks of councilwoman Maureen Jane just prior to a vote for a position on Proposition 209. The council had to take one of four stances on the issue: vote to oppose the Proposition, support it, or, as in the past, take no stand. The latter was the decision ultimately made.

Proposition 209, also known as the California Civil Rights Initiative, will change the way the State deals with women and people of color. Today a woman or minority owned business has a chance at getting some of the lucrative contracts that the State allocates each year. The vehicle that gave these groups a fighting chance was the state's affirmative action laws. The passage of prop. 209 will indeed scuttle that edge.

The Black Press, a newspaper of general circulation on July 8, 1974 Case Number 108890 by the Superior Court of Los Angeles County in the Superior Court of Los Angeles County.

Mr. Mike Minke, the Roxter, and managing director of the Danish-School of Journalism in Demark was a recent participant in the International Visitor Program sponsored by the United States Information Agency (USAID). Minke has been with the school since 1975. Prior to his present position he was an Assistant Professor. He taught media sciences and courses in investigative journalism. His academic training includes an M.A. in Film Studies. Minke was in the USA to observe journalism and photo journalism. He wanted to share ideas with us because in Denmark they have less than 100,000 circulation. "Black Voice News" was highly recommended. He was hosted by the Riverside International University, Mr. Minke; and Rose Oliver, President, Riverside International University, CA 92502.

The Elk National Senior Department was created by the late E. B. Butler, Honorary Holland B. Raymond, November 2000, for the purpose of protecting, maintaining the properties, and securing the records of senior protective order of Elks in the World. The Holland B. Raymond National Shrine, Incorporated, is located on US Route 130 in the town of New Jersey, however, under the condition that the current members hold the location. This Shrine is a home to the seniors who live there permanently, and it includes a 12,000 square foot building, tennis courts, a multipurpose community, basement, and conventions facilities. This Shrine Department is divided up into seven regions, and we are a part of the seventh region. Each year there are various departmen that meet there as a part of the Department. Some of us, locally held national positions, and we are a part of the seventh region. Some events will be held at the Elk's Lodge on November 26.

Frankie Stewart of Canyon, CA is selected as Ms. Senior America for 1997. Frankie competed against forty contestants from across the United States. She will receive a $10,000 cash prize, a one-year lease on a new Volkswagen Beetle, and a trip to Orlando, Florida. Frankie Stewart also received the title of Miss America American of the Year. She will be the first woman to receive this honor. Frankie Stewart, a 60-year-old grandmother of four, "I share my God-given gifts by affirming and encouraging all people and by remembering that love is not to be paid off, but paid in." After being crowned Ms. Senior America Frankie Stewart poses for the camera and shows trophy won in competition.

QUESTION: Dear Pastor Wife,

My spouse and I attend different churches. Sometimes the activities of our churches clash. Also our children vacillate between the two. What helpful suggestions do you have?

ANSWER: I have observed this situation in many churches for many years and have given it a lot of thought, meditation and prayer. Very briefly, I am not for a husband and a wife attending separate churches. Your spiritual life of worship is too important to be split up. The Bible says in Genesis 2:23 and Ephesians 5:31 that the husband and wife are one flesh. There are many pro­blems that arise as a result of a couple going to separate churches.

1. Each church has a differ­ent God-given vision. Therefore your commitment levels can and should be different.

2. It’s awkward to tithe (10%) and offer gifts to separate churches.

3. There will be definite confusion and conflict.

4. Probably most impor­tant, you are robbed of the joy of worshiping experi­ence together.

It would be a sad situation to see your wife attend another church. I just cannot see it. It simply will not work. Nor will my wife too much see her go anywhere else. I challenge anyone to give me any good reason why a husband and wife should worship in different churches. My suggestion to you is to try to get your spouse’s side down and pray and let God feed you to one church. You will be happier.

Knight, Tolbert, Bush and defense get the job done for Falcon's Wade scoots for 114 yards for Valley View.

By LELAND STEIN III

RBIDOUX, Sept. 22 - A homecoming of sorts it was indeed. But, not lost to respect and friendship of one of its former family members, was an7important football game between Riverside Rubidoux and Moreno Valley Valley View.

Rubidoux High has a long lineage of family members and the atmosphere around the football program and community is like family. Surely Valley View's head Coach Leo Brohardt will always be a part of the Falcon family spirit. After all, he was the schools all-time winningest coach until current Coach Wayne Cochran overtook him.

Besides Cochran (accomplished last year), Brohardt in 1981 is the only other man to lead Rubidoux to a final's appearance. But against many of his former coaches and friends, Brohardt found out why Rubidoux is ranked No. 1 Division 4.

Led once again by quarterback Daryl Knight, who ran the option in the face of 150 yards only to carry, plus one touchdown. He also passed for one score and in the first half touchdowns - two in the fourth quarter - to make the score.

Valley View with its mammoth offensive and defensive lines is a quality football team that is expected to compete at a high level this year. Although Rubidoux won and Brouhard in 1981 is the only other man to lead Rubidoux to a final's appearance.

Our kids were really ready to pull this one out," Cochran said. "I think part of it was my coaches knew Robert Wade..." He then added, "But here he was coming back to our field... it was emotional for all the coaches.

Rubidoux, who lost to Riverside Norris in the California Interscholastic Federation Division 4Final last year, also has a good five-man team on a mission. With Deshawn Sanchez and Myrna Munoz.

The Ivy League boys' title looks to be shaping up as a battle between Rubidoux and Canyon Springs with the Arlington Lions not far behind.

Runners on none of the boys team are: Antero Molino, Ruben Aguirre, Ryan Sterling, and Alex Murcia. Lady Falcons are: Trisia Tressler, Nicole Seymore, Teryn Garcia, Irene Sanchez and Myrna Munoz.

Golf Tiger Woods Signs $40 Million Contract

From wire services

MILWAUKEE, Wis.- Tiger Woods, already at age 20 the most famous African-American golfer ever, doesn't have to worry about where his next meal is coming from. He has signed a multi year contract with Nike worth a report $40 million.

The agreement in principle was reached in the days following Woods, who is fresh off an unprecedented decision to go pro. "I'm told I'm not ready for you. Are you ready for me?" said Michael Jordan.

He has a plan in place that could be implemented once he made his decision, the agreement fell together quickly.

"Tiger has a tremendous opportunity to be a role model and increase participation in the sport. We are anxious to work with Tiger as an ambassador of change for the game of golf," Greene said.

Mo. Valley The New Live Entertainment Center

Black Voice News

I read somewhere that Tupac Shakur had predicted his own violent death. It is said that he said to his mother, who is a member of the Black Panther Party, "People -- especially all the people who hate me -- you can't kill me!" That's why we are here to talk about what sex really means today.

Mo. Valley - Live entertainment is coming to Moreno Valley on a more regular basis and the two hot spots are Ron's Rib Barn and Club Rendezvous. Both establishments are committed to bringing the first class entertainers to Moreno Valley. Recently the Rib Barn featured the Impressions and Club Rendezvous featured Moses Armstrong. On a weekly basis live jazz is available at either location.

In the past if you wanted to hear a top performer it was at Impression's and Club Rendezvous. Both establishments are committed to live jazz available at one establishment.

At Impression's you will find the ribs of Tennessee Bar-B-Que, live performances. Club Rendezvous offers the ribs of Tennessee Bar-B-Que, live entertainment and dancing. Both restaurants and establishments that want to enjoy a nice evening out away from the hip hop crowds.

The newest location Club Rendezvous is having its grand opening October 1st. They will be going all out to show this community that they have a difference between the those that can't fly and those that can. They come to see that it is possible to learn from the mistakes, to build an environment where things can go wrong but the show still goes on. In doing so they discover that they are the producers of their culture, and of their lives.

Pam Lewis, 35-years-old, is the National Producer of the All Stars Talent Show Network -- the largest and most successful anti-violence programs. An accomplished actress and a performer, Ms. Lewis is also the Assistant to the Artistic Director of the Castillo Theatre in the Soto area of New York City.

The All Stars Talent Show Network does not practice censorship. We recognize that there is a difference between the performance of a gangsta rap on a stage and pulling a gun on the streets. We're not in a position to make such a cultural statement. However, we do have a difference between the performance of a very sexy dance routine on a stage and having sex on the mall. We think it is important for young people to make such a cultural statement they choose to make in an environment that supports them so that they do not have to act out their anger, or their sexuality, in ways that are harmful or self-destructive.

In honor of Tupac Shakur, I invite all of you to follow the lead of the tens of thousands of young people who have given their talent and their energy over the last 12 years to build the All Stars. And I urge you to ask all the adults who say they are concerned about violence -- your parents, your teachers, and the elected officials in your community to support programs that support our youth.

jury of his peers. All of the Black potential jurors were let go and the jury pool has only one Hispanic and one Asian member.

On the opening day Negus told Judge Kennedy to make Slaughter stop pacing himself. The second day Slaughter was changing positions in the seat he occupied. Negus stopped and stared at him in disgust and anger.

Slaughter is also concerned about his family and the wife are allowed to remain in the courtroom listening to the testimony of witnesses. "They should be on trial and in jail as well. They all killed my son," he said.

He is referring to what led to the shooting death of James, a very promising basketball player on the Chaffey College team.

According to court testimony, Gilbertson's daughter is a very promising 15-year-old, and has had constant problems in this area of her life. She asked if she could visit the ball player who lived in the same apartment complex that was managed by her mother Lucy. Chris Parrish, her ex-boyfriend who is Black, went to see her. According to Parrish, he was not there, said Gilbertson came from Riverside, CA 92501 4072 Chestnut

DCA Offers Workshops to Help Clients Access Programs

The Riverside County Department of Community Action (DCA) will sponsor two workshops to assist people who are eligible for utility assistance programs offered by DCA from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, October 2nd. The workshops will be held at Tri-State Home Improvement Inc., 2922 Robinson Blvd., in Riverside.

DCA offers programs for individuals and families that can help them pay their monthly utility bills. Individuals who qualify include those who meet income levels set for the federal government and eligible senior citizens and handicapped people. The programs include a one-time assistance with a gas, electric or propane bill, information and assistance in applying for Pacific Bell's Lifeline program, home weatherization and tips on how to lower your household energy consumption.

Applicants must bring the following documents to the workshop: proof of income not more than 45 days old, which could include a paycheck stub, a Notice of Action, or a bank statement. Social Security income direct deposit, and a current utility bill (not more than a month old), from your gas or electric company.

Eligibility is based on family size and federal income guidelines set for each program. Assistance will be given on a first-come, first-serve basis. Space is limited. Interested applicants need to call (909) 341-8898 to reserve a space.
