ACADEMIC TASK FORCE
TO HEAR STUDENT VIEWS

Next Friday, March 3, the Task Force will conduct an "open-mike" forum to permit students to present their views on the College's general education requirements and other issues pertinent to the curriculum. (11 a.m. on The Green.)

Alfred Egge, chairman of the ad hoc committee, states that he hopes that students who did not have an opportunity to express their thoughts during the last forum on February 16, will be able to do so.

The committee is preparing a progress report on its findings on academic positions which is expected to be distributed some time next week. The report will meet the first deadline set by President Pfau for the Task Force.

PAYDAY WILL BE
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1,
AFTER 3 P.M.

SOME TICKETS WILL BE ON SALE AT DOOR FOR FINAL PERFORMANCES OF "BLITHE SPIRIT"

A few tickets will be available at the door for tonight's and Saturday night's performances of "Blithe Spirit." The cast has played to capacity audiences during the production's run.

This weekend marks the final showings of the popular Noel Coward play produced by the CSCSB Players of the Pear Garden.

LIBRARY PURCHASES PAPERBACK EXHIBIT ON MINORITIES IN U.S.

The Minorities in America paperback exhibit, recently shown in the Library has been purchased from the exhibiting company. Mary Jo Meade, Librarian in Public Services, states that comments made by many persons visiting the exhibit indicated they thought the Library had chosen the titles. "Not so," says Miss Meade. "Selection was made by the exhibitor from paperback publishers who desired representation in the exhibit. A check of the CSCSB card catalog shows the Library already owned some of the titles and many others in the fields of minorities, urban poverty and women's lib." With the acquisition of the exhibit selections, additional paperback titles will be available in the Library collection.
