NOVEMBER COMMON ADMISSIONS PERIOD OFFERS EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The November 1-30 filing period assures student applicants equal consideration within categories, priorities and quotas established on the 19 campuses of the California State University and Colleges next fall.

During November prospective students may send their systemwide applications to their first choice college or university. They may also list alternative campuses in order of preference on the same application. Students applying on or after December 1, 1972, will be considered as late applicants. Their requests will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis for available space following the processing of applications received in November.

ENGLISH COTTAGE-BY-THE-SEA, SETTING FOR PLAY

In a setting designed by Sandi Stiglinski of the Drama Department, the cast of "The Birthday Party" will play out their tantalizing and fascinating roles. The unique set has the authentic flavor of a lower class English cottage by-the-sea, achieved by much detail. Unusual use of lighting upon translucent walls shows the structural beams of the house and provides a cage-like effect which traps the characters inside.

New to Little Theatre goes this year will be a special package deal which will include dinner and the price of admission for $4.50. Dinner will be served in the Commons, cafeteria style, from 5:30-6 p.m. for the special scholarship benefit Sunday, Nov. 19.
