Gallery OPENING

The College's new Art Gallery opens officially Wednesday, December 6. Located in the Fine Arts Building, The Gallery is "one that rivals any exhibition facility in the area," according to Roger Lintault, Art Department Chairman.

A reception for the entire College Community will be held on opening day from 3 to 5 p.m. "We hope everyone will attend and will be regular visitors to our gallery," said Don Woodford, Gallery Director.

Special features of The Gallery include new lighting with dimmer control, vinyl wall paneling and vinyl-covered mobile display units which can be restructured to accommodate different types of exhibits. Alterations were made by Physical Plant personnel.

The opening exhibit is a collection of contemporary paintings from Los Angeles galleries, representing works of 14 artists.

Regular Gallery hours will be 9 a.m. - 12 and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., weekdays; 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., Saturdays; 1 - 5 p.m., Sundays.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
ON CAMPUS TO PARTICIPATE
IN SIMULATED U.S. SENATE

A simulated United State Senate will convene on campus tomorrow with 130 high school students participating in a field day entitled "Issues '72."

Sponsored by the Inland Empire Council for the Social Studies and Mike Rose, Relations with Schools Officer, the event will feature an afternoon address by Assemblyman John P. Quimby.

Each of 20 high schools will be assigned a state, with their students representing the senator from that district and his legislative assistants. Students will hold party caucuses, committee hearings and write and enact bills.

Trophies will be awarded by the IECSS in the categories of validity of portrayal, accuracy of factual information in the legislation and legislative leadership. Evaluators will be CSCSB students, attending the meetings in the roles of newspaper reporters. The Senate chairman pro tem will be a CSCSB political science student.

Chairman for the day is Jim Kelch, Beaumont teacher and member of the IECSS Council. Final event of the day will be dinner in the Commons, at which time the trophies will be awarded.
