

California State University, San Bernardino

CSUSB ScholarWorks

Friday Bulletin

Arthur E. Nelson University Archives

12-1-1972

December 1 1972

Friday Bulletin

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin>

Recommended Citation

Friday Bulletin, "December 1 1972" (1972). Friday Bulletin. 268.
<https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/268>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Arthur E. Nelson University Archives at CSUSB ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Friday Bulletin by an authorized administrator of CSUSB ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@csusb.edu.

RECEIVED

California State College

San Bernardino
DEC 1 - 1972

LIBRARY

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE,
SAN BERNARDINO

The BULLETIN

December 1, 1972

1973-74 FACULTY
LEAVES ANNOUNCED

Four faculty members have been granted leaves for the 1973-74 academic year, President John M. Pfau has announced.

Alfred Egge (Biology) will be on Sabbatical leave during the Fall, 1973, Quarter to complete some research dealing with neuro-endocrine mechanisms controlling thyroid secretions in selected species of birds. This research will be in collaboration with Dr. Robert Chiasson from the University of Arizona. Dr. Egge will divide his time between the Arizona and CSCSB campuses.

John Hafstrom (Mathematics) will spend the Winter and Spring quarters of 1974 writing a calculus text while on Sabbatical leave.

E. Clark Mayo (English) has been granted a Sabbatical for the 1973-74 academic year, during which he will write a book on fantasy. In addition to the study of the relationship of fantasy to the human imagination, he will analyze the writings of Kurt Vonnegut, John Barth and J.R.R. Tolkien.

Robert Smith (History) will be on leave to complete research on the iron mining industry of Wisconsin and upper Michigan and finish writing his second book on iron mining of the Northern United States.

* * *

STUDENT ADVISEMENT FOR WINTER TERM TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

With two weeks remaining in the Fall Quarter, which ends officially December 15, academic advisement for students for the Winter Term is scheduled for next week, December 4 through 8.

Registration packets may be obtained during advisement at the Office of Admissions and Records. Students should check with their school or department offices to be assigned an advisor and pick up folders.

* * *

LUNCH, SNACK AREA UNDER CONSTRUCTION IN SS BLDG.

Remodeling of the atrium in the Student Services Building is under construction and should be completed within two months, according to Joseph Thomas, Vice President for Administration.

The converted atrium will serve as a lunch and snack area for
(Continued on Page 2)

LUNCH AREA UNDER CONSTRUCTION (Cont'd) faculty, staff and students.
A unique ceiling will be formed by four skylights to provide natural lighting and protection from wind and rain. The present vending machines in the Student Services Building will be moved to the patio area.

Physical Plant personnel are doing the work of remodeling. Next on the schedule for conversion of the SS Building will be Rooms 147, 149 and 151, which will be the future home of the Personnel Office.

* * *

COLLEGE CAFETERIA TO HAVE NEW MANAGER Saga Food Service has appointed a new Cafeteria manager to the CSCSB campus. Ron Bowers, former manager of a college cafeteria in Missouri, will succeed Dean Stack who has been assigned to the business and industrial division of the Saga company.

Mr. Stack, CSCSB Cafeteria Manager for two years, will remain on campus for a few weeks, after which Mr. Bowers will take over complete operation of the College Cafeteria.

* * *

MUSIC OF CHRISTMAS SEASON, SUNDAY EVE CONCERT PRESENTATION Christmas season music will be presented Sunday evening, Dec. 3, by the Concert Choir and Choral Society of the College.

Directed by Loren Filbeck, Asst. Prof. of Music, the concert will begin at 8:15 p.m. in PS-10. It will feature sacred works by Mendelssohn, Handl, Bruckner and Zimmermann. Baroque cantatas by Buxtehude and Bach will be sung by the Choral Society, comprised of townspeople and College faculty and staff. Soloists include Joseph Chouinard, bass; Carol Wellington, soprano; Gail Bakker, soprano; Charles Sweeney, tenor; and Kyla DeRemer, soprano. A setting of the Gloria by Vivaldi, sung by Choir and Society will feature Marta Aldrich, Juanita Phillipsen, Vicki Muto, Charles Sweeney, Marilyn Jackson and Debbie Keenan, soloists.

Accompanists include Virginia Beaver and Glenn Litton, violin; Michele Brosseau, cello; Carole Dockstader and Debbie Selby, flute; Dennis Dockstader, harpsichord; Juan Barfield, viola; Lucy Litton, contrabass; and Rick Ohlendorf, oboe.

The Christmas concert will be the CSCSB directing debut for Prof. Filbeck. The concert is free of charge and open to the public.

* * *

CHAMBER SINGERS SCHEDULED FOR COMMUNITY & CAMPUS EVENTS The Chamber Singers of the College are making a number of appearances before community groups and campus events during the holiday season, including the Retired Teachers

(Continued on Page 3) 2

CHAMBER SINGERS - (Cont'd) Assn., Kiwanis Club and Art Gallery Show.

* * *

ART

A plethora of art events will hit the campus next week, a fitting background for the opening of the College's new Gallery, which will be launched by an exhibit of contemporary paintings and sculpture from major Los Angeles galleries. Open house will be Wednesday, Dec. 6, 3-5 p.m.

OPEN HOUSE

All members of the campus community and the public are invited to view the exhibition and the gallery, according to Don Woodford, Gallery Director. The collection will continue to be on exhibit through January 5; hours: 9 a.m. to noon; 1 to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday; 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Saturday; and 1 to 5 p.m., Sunday.

+

STUDENT ART FESTIVAL
FEATURES SALE OF TOYS,
CERAMICS, POTTERY, PAINTINGS

Hand-carved wooden toys, ceramic plates, pottery and paintings will be offered for sale at the Student Art Festival, Thursday, Dec. 7, 10 a.m. in the Fine Arts Bldg. patio until 5 p.m. Also available for sale during the event will be prints, manuscripts and posters from galleries in Los Angeles. Sponsored by the Art Students Society at the College, the festival and pre-Christmas sale will feature crafts and art work made by students both as class projects and for the festival.

During the noon hour an instrumental, woodwind and string ensemble will present a music program conducted by Richard Saylor, Prof. of Music. The day-long festival is open to the public as well as the entire College community.

+

exhibits!

Three senior art exhibits will open on campus next week. Bruce Decker will have a showing of furniture and crafts. Karon Jane Boyd will exhibit her sculpture. Both exhibits will be in the Library Main and Fourth Floors, Monday-Thursday, 8 a.m.-10 p.m.; Friday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. beginning December 4, continuing through December 8.

An exhibit of the paintings of Ron Plants will be held December 4-8 in PS-22, the former Art Gallery. (Call Art Dept. for hours.)

* * *

TWO STAFF MEMBERS
HONORED BY COUNCIL

Lyn Young, Library Assistant, and Mary Dye, Secretary to the President, were honored by the Staff Council at its last meeting November 22. The two former members of the Council received recognition in honor of their services. Mrs. Young was chairman for three years and Mrs. Dye for four. Each was presented with a desk set containing a plaque insert noting their years in office.

At the same meeting three new council members were named as the

(Continued on Page 4) 3

* * *

Coming Events

A BASIC MANAGEMENT SEMINAR, for executives and managers in business and government will attract over 70 participants next Thursday, Dec. 7. Sponsored by the College's Inland Empire Management Center, the program will be conducted by Dr. John R. Van de Water, attorney-consultant of Los Angeles. The seminar begins at 8 in the Lower Level of the Commons and continues until 4:15 p.m. on the Fifth Floor of the Library.

+

PHILOSOPHY FORUM- Dec. 6, 3 p.m., LC-5, "The Way of Lao Tzu in Art," with Elizabeth Rodgers and Sylvia Crocker moderated by Paul Johnson.

+

GOOD JOB SEMINAR - Dec. 6, 3-4:30 p.m., Library Fifth Floor. "How To Get a Good Job," sponsored by the CSCSB Career Planning and Placement Center. All students invited. Free of charge.

+

LECTURE - A well-known French writer, Mrs. Juliette Minces, will speak on "May, 1968 in France: The Myth of the Revolution," on Wed., Dec. 6, 12 noon, Fifth Floor of the Library. Mrs. Minces is the author of a number of books dealing with social problems of the working classes in developing countries and problems of the worker in industrial society. Co-sponsored by the Sociology and French Depts.

+

TONIGHT'S FILM: "Zeppelin," 8 p.m., PS-10, starring Elke Sommer in a WWI spy and suspense movie.

+

FOLK CONCERT TONIGHT: "Carlson and Durio" 9 p.m.-1 a.m., Mother Bear's.

+

TOKAY NIGHT TOUR: Sat., Dec. 2, 7 p.m. Automobile Rally. Meet and register in Tokay House main lounge.

+

FILM, "POISONED KINGDOM,": Tues., Dec. 5, 12 noon, PS-10.

* * *

for your information

Openings still exist for Resident Directors for the International Programs, full and part-time. The deadline is past for applying, but applications will still be considered. Contact Humanities office, LC-239 for further information.

+

Faculty Senate meets Tues., Dec. 5, 2:30 p.m., Fifth Floor, Library.

* * *

DIRECTORY CHANGES Pg. 4/ Biology Sec'y. Ext. 284, BI-215; Pg 5. Biology (under Nat. Sci.) same change.
Robert Smith, Ext. 339.

* * *

IN THE NEWS

Sarojam Mankau (Biology) has an article published in a recent edition of the Canadian Journal of Zoology, "The Effect of Sex and Sex Hormones on the Infection of Rats by Trichinella Spiralis."