"MUSIC FOR ROSMERSHOLM"
COMPOSED BY DR. SAYLOR

A composition by Richard Saylor written especially for the forthcoming play, "Rosmersholm," will follow the action of the play from overture to finale.

"Music for Rosmersholm" was created in the College's electronic studio by Dr. Saylor through a process of recording, editing and use of the electronic synthesizer. "The music supports the continuity of the play. I consider it a modern symphony," said William Slout, director.

The 1886 Henrik Ibsen drama, Winter production from the Modern Repertoire series, will be presented by the Players of the Pear Garden on February 9, 10, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18. Tickets go on sale January 29.
