The governing body assures only the state. County Superintendent of Schools Charles S. Tapp, Jr. said among the current.

Assemblyman Jerry Eaves Announces Assembly Fellowships

Today, Assemblyman Jerry Eaves (D-Rialto) announced availability of 11 fellowships for the 1986-1987 Assembly Fellowship Program. Fellowships work as Assembly staff in Sacramento for 11 months (August, 1986 through June, 1987) and pay $1,250 per month. Fellowships are required to have a bachelor's degree, Assemblyman Eaves (D-Rialto) noted, any academic major is acceptable. Fellowship holders may also earn graduate credit from California State University, Sacramento, individuals in melon can also apply. In the fall, fellows are initially assigned to individual Assembly member's personal staff positions. In the spring, they are transferred to policy staff positions. This fellowship offers a great deal to be involved in the major components of the legislative process Assemblyman Eaves (D-Rialto) commented. Assemblyman Jerry Eaves (D-Rialto) invites anyone interested to contact his district office at (714) 820-1902 for further details. Application forms and instructions can also be requested from the Assemblyman Rules Committee, State Capitol Building, Room 3016, Sacramento, California 95814. Deadline for applications is February 28, 1986.

1,000 People Attend Gospel Extravaganza for Temple Building Fund

"I'll Fly Away" was how the hundreds who attended the Temple Baptist extravaganza left Saturday night at Greater Faith Baptist Church in San Bernardino.

The occasion was a fundraiser for the Temple Missionary Baptist Church building fund. They are presently in a building program and last Saturday they raised a combined total of $10,000.

Rev. Nathaniel White, Pastor of that congregation in the community, Temple Baptist, was elated about theundraising prowess of the Island Empire community.

What a time, what a time and a filling of the world through song as the entire congregation was touched by the spirit of the Lord. Everyone was touched but there were a few who left it in their legs and dance in the spirit, they just could not sit down even if they wanted to. He touched others as they fell to the power of the Lord.

Each choir sang the music: a little different but each was dynamic and brought the message, from the beginning with the combined choir of the Greater Bethel Missionary Baptist Church was singing at the altars in both the Spiritual and Physical sense on Saturday night. 23 as more than 1,000 persons from through out the community joined together to raise over $10,000 for Temple Missionary Baptist Church’s building fund.

"This has never been anything like this in the Island Empire" said sincerely pleased Rev. N.C. White, the pastor of Temple Baptist.

"This is the first time we have had this many churches combine their choirs and their Spiritual discipleship with St. Paul members and friends. This year’s choir, Mrs. Ruth Johnson invites members and friends to share in this celebration.

Bob Thomas Honored with Distinguished Award

Recently the Black support group of California State University, Los Angeles presented the Distinguished Leadership award to Bob Thomas, vice president of Hiram Walker, Inc.

The luncheon was attended by several hundred people at the Millennium Hotel. More than $15,000 in scholarships were presented to students who are in college and including those who are in graduate studies.

Thomas was a past recipient, Mayor Tom Bradley, former Congressman Vernon Price, Honorable Allen E. Broussard, and Myrtle Evans as the 19th person to receive the prestigious honor.

Also attending the luncheon was Don Brotos former World Series Star for the Baltimore Orioles, Olympic great Edwin Moses, Kenneth Selph-Jones, host of “Studio,” WCOP channel 13 served as Master of Ceremonies.

Presentations were made by Laura Ball, Field Representative Gina Bear and Fred Snowden, vice president of Bank's Robbins Ice Cream.

Thomas, a great choice, in the minds of everyone, was born in Cleveland, Ohio. He lives in Detroit where he serves on the Board of Rehabilitation, serves on the Board of Directors for the National Caucus on Black Aged and is a past delegate of Cleveland, Ohio. He lives in Detroit where he serves on the Board of Rehabilitation, serves on the Board of Directors for the National Caucus on Black Aged and is a past delegate of the White House Conference on Aging.

Thomas is responsible for market development activities throughout the United States of all Hiram Walker products. As Vice President, he spearheads the company’s corporate commitment to be a responsive corporate in the growth and advancement of minority communities. He developed and is responsible for the highly acclaimed Canadian Club “Tribute to Black Designers” fashion productions. The program has generated countless scholarship awards for minority students, helping them in their academic endeavors.

“We are indeed pleased to pay this special tribute to Bob Thomas. His exemplary contributions to our community reflect a deep sense of corporate concern to the educational problems which beset minority students,” commented Dr. James M. Rosser, president of CSLA.

CSLA was founded in 1947. The University offers Bachelor's degrees in 51 fields; master's degrees in 51 fields; and in cooperation with UCLA a special Ph.D. program in special education.

The luncheonwas attended by several hundred people at the Christ Davis Supper Club, on November 30, 1985, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. This affair is by invitation only.

Clippers Trade Donaldson

Los Angeles—The way has been cleared for Benoit Benjamin, the third player taken in last June’s National Basketball Association draft of college players, to become the starting center for the Los Angeles Clippers. James Donaldson, who started at center in the Clippers’ first 18 games of the season, was traded to the Dallas Mavericks yesterday in exchange for center Kurt Nimphius.

Nimphius, who is playing in his fifth NBA season, has averaged 7.6 points and 4.6 rebounds in 13 games for the Mavericks, four of which he started. Nimphius, 27, averaged 6.3 points and 5.3 rebounds in his first four professional years.

Chandra Hasan
Crowned S. B. Valley College Queen

Chandra Tokeria Hasan was crowned 1985-86 Homecoming Queen of San Bernardino Valley College on Saturday, November 9, 1985, at S.B. Valley College’s homecoming football game.

She was escorted by Sr. Robert Thomas of Perri, CA. Ms. Hasan is the daughter of Mrs. Vivian Coker of Rialto, CA, and Andrew Secome of Richmond, California.

National Police Officers Held Regional Meeting

Moody T. Lee, Master of Ceremonies for the Regional meeting of the National Black Police Officers Association hosted by the Inland Empire Peace Officers, set the tone for the exciting evening as over 600 people crossed in a row at the Hilton Hotel recently. They crowded to hear dignitaries and keynote speaker, John W. Price County Commissioner, Dallas County, Texas. Mayor Evelyn Wilcox said after welcoming the visitors, "To balance the scales of justice through community involvement." That is what the IEPOA prides itself in and for that she applauds the organization. A few brief words were followed by National President Ron Hampton.

The rest of the evening came in the form of song by Doc Patterson and the West Coast Singers with Opening Ceremonies for the Regional meeting, playing the base. The rest was over powering as speaker uniquely took his audience through different levels of emotional feelings.

"We are unique, there are 8 billion people color in Africa, we are in charge but not in control." We are a divided people and we must not be a house divided against itself. There are enough of us to be divided.

"We have been mis-educated," he told, "we think we have it made, we have intelligence, however we don't know anything about our selves and can't sustain our own system.

"Something is wrong, 95% of the crimes look like themselves," said Price. African Black officers must bring a way to law enforcement, traditionally the Police Depart meetings have been repressive, but that can change with you.

In a lengthy keynote address, Commissioner Price touched on Psychology and the role it is playing in police departments everywhere. He said they are sending Black officers to Psychologist, who has studied Black boys who came to love with his mother so much he did what his father did. Dr. John Watson, who devote 20 years he was the oldest man that ever lived! The Psychologist got their training from sick people, how can they understand the Black man."

Price spoke about those who have graduated degrees from the finest universities, but can't run a candy store. We can help our own make money but, you can make it for Kmart and others.

Price said, "we have work to do together, the majority of people on death are people who look like us." "Kids are falling from, who look like us. We are people who look like us." We are founding. We can't bring the capacity to make a difference," said Price.

...Temple Baptist Church has your resources for another church and, added Rev. White, "to top it off this was done at another church."

There were over 600 people participating lifting their voices up to God, including the combined choir of Temple: Hill, Zion, Bertha, Central, Tehachapi, A & B selections by New Hope Cathedral Choir, Loveland Mass Choir, Community Baptist Mass Choir, Roswell Mass Choir, and of Los Angeles there were Palm Lane C.O.G.I.C. and Prince Drive. The Holy Spirit was let lose and felt by everyone present.

However, when Pastor Hubbard's, Redlands Community Baptist Church 62 voice radio angelic choir took to the floor after their first two songs, Rev. Hubbard sent the congregation a message that was hard to ignore. The echo by this time was up on their face, and the Holy Spirit was high from the combined choirs of the ending choir, Palm Lane COGIC.

People attending left saying that was another one of the best the next day to get fed by their respective pastor's word.

OFFICERS Santings, Ted Hansen, Mayor Evelyn Wilcox and officer Armstrong.

John Price, Speaker, Dallas County Commissioner, Frank Gonzales, San Bernardino Police Chief, Mayor Evelyn Wilcox, Sylvia Ford, Host, L.A. County Sheriff's Department, Cliff Harris, President local Peace Officers and Ron Hampton national President.

A LINE UP OF DIGNITARIES were on hand, Ernie Dobtore, Assistant S.B. Chief, Ben Gonzales, Chief S.B., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams, Undersecret, Sheriffs Fred Tulich, Mayor Evelyn Wilcox and Cliff Harris, Sheriff's department and president IEPOA.
