The BULLETIN

Two festivals are being held on campus. THE BLACK CULTURAL FESTIVAL enters into its second day following yesterday's opening which featured the appearance of Billy Paul, popular soul recording artist, last evening with the Dance Troupe of Cal-State Northridge.

Over 500 black students have gathered on campus from throughout California to attend the three-day Black Cultural Festival. In full swing today, the BSU-sponsored conference features workshops, cultural happenings and entertainment. Films, "West Africa--Another Viet Nam" and "The Struggle Continues" will be shown today in PS-10, 4 p.m. The festival concludes tomorrow with an 11 o'clock rap session.

The gala FESTIVAL OF THE ARTS, being held Sunday, Feb. 25, under the sponsorship of the Allied Arts Council will combine the resources of San Bernardino's two colleges: a matinee performance of "Major Barbara" at Valley College and a cabaret-dinner at CSCSB.

Paintings of 16 artists, modern and traditional works, will be on display at the Cabaret, located on the fifth floor of the Library.

Guest artist of the evening will be the noted sculptor John

APPROVAL RECEIVED
FOR THIRD BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE

Approval has been received from the Office of the Chancellor to extend the Bachelor of Arts in Biology to the Bachelor of Science degree in Biology, effective with the 1973-74 academic year.

This brings the total of B.S. degrees which will be available next year to three: chemistry, physics and biology.

PAYDAY IS WEDNESDAY,
February 28, 1973.

FESTIVALS - (Contd.) Edward Svenson, who has won numerous awards and has exhibited at leading galleries throughout California.

The entire library will be open for the evening, with tours and art displays available for the cabaret guests. On exhibition are works of French impressionist painters and a collection of citrus labels dating back several decades (First Floor); photographs and the history of Westminster Abbey and St. Paul's Cathedral, plus replicas of tickets used for state occasions in the Abbey (Third Floor); and colorful Mexican art (Fourth Floor).

Also cooperating to give a cabaret mood to the event are the College Chamber Singers, The Chamber Players and woodwind duet, and drama personnel.
