San Bernardino Earns Two Cash Rebates From Edison

The City of San Bernardino Water Department has found new ways to improve the efficiency of its operations while at the same time saving the city's general fund and saving electricity.

The city earned two rebates—one for $6,800 and another for $1,173—from Southern California Edison Company, according to San Bernardino Valley Water Department Manager Donald Vincent.

Accepting the Edison rebate check on behalf of the San Bernadino Water Department were Howard Swenson, general manager, and Margaret Chandler, president of the San Bernadino Valley Water Commission.

The larger of the two rebates was awarded following the water department's installation of new equipment to improve the efficiency of the city's geothermal facilities.

The city's drivers heat a fleet of vehicles, but the department's efforts to reduce electricity consumption by improving water system performance have not been lost on the Edison company.

"It is always rewarding when an energy-conscious client shows its appreciation by going green," said Chandler.

Melba Dunlap Named Supervisors Chairwoman

Melba Dunlap was named Chairwoman of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors Tuesday, beginning the Board's annual reorganization, according to District Supervisor Walter B. Abraham, who announced her appointment at the Board's annual reorganization meeting.

"It is my pleasure to announce Melba Dunlap's appointment to chair the Board," Abraham said. "She has served our county well, and I am confident she will continue to do so."

Bishop Brooks To Wed Los Angeles Businesswoman

The Right Reverend H. Hartford Bookins, Jr., Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church announced plans to wed Maxine Callom, a Los Angeles businesswoman. Bishop Brooks made the announcement at a gala New Year’s Eve party held at his Baldwin House on Wednesday evening for 600 well-scholars which included Mayor Tom Bradley, Senator David Watson, former California governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, Los Angeles city councilmen David Cunningham and Gilbert Lindsay, and many others who consider him “the Bishop.”

Max Callom is an entrepreneur, a partner in the firm of Tobin & Coleman, holds memberships in both the Los Angeles and San Pedro branches of the NAACP, the Black Public Relations Society of Southern Cal

Even though Christmas has passed, nurses must be given our Board of Christian Education for their outstanding and meaningful Christmas program. All departments of the church, from kindergarten to the adults were represented. The ministers and members wore the shoes however with the representation of the animals that were displayed on the stage. It seemed as though they were born. Each animal grunted and complained about the fact that they had to give up their mane and eyes. The children seemed to be so well alive and spiritually dead and were so well as to be told by the nurses. It was a special service. Special sermons were given to the parents, their children, the teachers and the department heads.

Pastor Tollette’s message on last Sunday was taken from John 3:16 and his subject was, “Is there Life After Death?” He stated that we are usually concerned with Life after Death, but that even though we are physically well we are spiritually dead and can’t physically be dead. The entire book of Romans deals with the matter of sin and the world and all have sinned. We need to be reminded, as the songs states, “There is no life in the Old Man, stands by the message of the need of Jesus. Xtreme performances were christened in the greatest of all miracles being taken of those who are physically well and spiritually dead and needing us. He makes us into new creations that can rise from death to life.”

MLK School Plans Week Celebration

Pat Roper To Speak

"It’s Up To You!" As a community service, the Golden Avenue Church of Religious Science will hold an all day seminar "Helping Others To Succeed" Thursday January 18, starting at 8:30 a.m.

Program speakers are Sally Bowman, serial reporter and former employment manager specializing in career planning and office placements; Betty Ann Loomis, certified makeup and wardrobe consultant; and Elizabeth Clarke, well-known speaker on women’s issues and self-esteem and Barbara Whelen, Riverside County Women’s only Woman Supervisor. She presently serves on committees with Redlands Community Hospital, St. Bernardine Associated Governments and United Way.

The featured speaker is Pat Roper, motivational speaker, author, radio and TV personality. The ministry received from a South African seminar tour where she was the only woman admitted for lecture purposes.

The seminar will be held at

Los Angeles to Celebrate Martin Luther King Jr., Birthday, January 15

The city of Los Angeles will celebrate the birthday of the late Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. at City Hall Wednesday January 15, beginning at noon. On Wednesday January 15, before 9 a.m.

A broad coalition of people representing the breadth and depth of Rev. King’s dream for peace, will assemble in the City Council Chambers for a celebration of his life and works. The coalition has put together one of many planned to observe what we believe to be the first National Day of Prayer on January 25th. Said Mayor Tom Bradley.

At the City Council celebration, actor Beatty Powers will present King’s story in a reading from his book "Dreams from My Father."" I Have a Dream" speech. Over 100 ecclesiastical leaders are expected to attend the multi-faith service.

The company, for example, has created a new product called "Post Horizon" which is based on traditional breakfast cereals, contains high fiber meats, cheese, bread, chicken, rice, and eggs. The new cereal is mountainous, healthy and nutritious. The original brand, with its many textures and flavors, helps people of all ages to enjoy a nutritious breakfast each day.

The new Post Horizon cereal is available in a variety of flavors, including "Post Horizon Trail Mix" with a suggested retail price of $1.99.

Questions & Answers

I’m In Love With A Married Woman

Question: Dear Pastor Woods, I have always been in love with a married woman. I wish I had the courage to tell her how I feel. What should I do?

Answer: If I were you, I would suggest attempting to come to terms with your feelings and accept the fact that love can be a difficult emotion to express. It is important to remember that love should not be an excuse for infidelity or infidelity itself. Instead, love should be a source of strength and growth for both you and your partner.

HELP YOUR WALLET WEATHER THE WINTER

Helping you save money on your bills. We have been working hard to hold the line on your electricity costs this year, and because the time of year when you use electricity is your best guide to keeping costs down, we have developed a very good plan for you to think about again the many ways you can economize in your own home.

A FEW DEGREES COULD DO IT

Just by setting your thermostat at 75 degrees during the day and 70 during the night, you'll use less energy and a good way to save on your utility bills is to close the doors to rooms you don’t use. It’s not a bad idea to keep them closed, especially in the winter when you are trying to keep warm. You can also save on your electricity costs by turning off lights and unplugging appliances when they are not in use. Also consider using a programmable thermostat to control the temperature in your home.

We would love to help you save money on your bills, and by doing so, you can help us save money too! If you have a fireplace, be sure to use it properly and keep your home as warm as possible during the winter months.

Changes that you make today could save you over $100 in credits on your bills each month.

Our Level Pay Plan can help you manage your bills by taking advantage of the fact that the price of electricity varies throughout the year. By using our Level Pay Plan, you can save money on your electricity costs.

Penn State Administrator Named

Rosemary Schmidt Jerkins Schorr, former associate provost at Pennsylvania State University, has been selected executive vice chancellor at UC Riverside. Chancellor Theodore L. huller announced Friday.

Dr. Schorr was selected from a pool of more than 100 candidates for the position. She will assume the position on March 19, 1986, the month after the CSU chancelior is scheduled to retire.

"I am delighted to announce the selection of Dr. Schorr. She is a truly outstanding administrator and scholar," Chancellor Huller said.

She further added that "her background is one of depth and breadth across the administrative and academic range. She is a scientist with a deep and abiding love of the humanities. She is an administrator of proven capacity who has a strong track record at Penn State is most impressive," the chancellor added.

Dr. Schorr was named by the UC board of regents as chancellor of the UC Riverside campus.

Huskins Come Alive To Beat Moreno Valley, 56-40

For three days, North High basketball coach Mike Barre maintained that his team wasn’t performing up to its capabilities, even though the Huskies were moving toward the finals of the Riverside Holiday Basketball Tournament.

The Huskies came alive after a flat first and second quarter. Moreno Valley, 56-49, before a packed house at Vanscour Center. They did it by unleashing an explosive fast-break attack that had been inconsistent during their first three tournament victories.

The victory brought North second in the tournament title game. The Huskies won the 32nd annual Tournament two weeks ago. But the Holiday Tournament title eludes them, reportedly watching, because they came against four of the best of the state.

The Huskies open their 14-game league schedule next Tuesday.

Raiders Muff The Ball And Game 27-20

By Ron Hurst
BVN

The Los Angeles Raiders were defeated by the New England Patriots, 27-20, Friday in an AFC playoff game at the coliseum.

Turnovers have plagued the Raiders all season long. The Raiders lost 3 of 5 fumbles and Marc Wilson threw 3 interceptions. This was the first time a family of fumbles led to an NFL touchdown.

Raiders' problems began in the opening period when Future Wahl couldn't control a punt and the Pats recovered the ball on the 21. On the six, turnovers committed by the Raiders. The score was seven-to-seven until the bounding ball hit a new England kickoff. Suite robbed the kickoff, recovered and then fumbled the ball to Jim Bowman in the end zone for the winning New England touchdown.

Marc Arliss, 171 yards running was not able to help the Raiders offensively. Quarterback Marc Wilson completed only 11 of 27 passes for 128 yards, one touchdown and 3 interceptions.

In the first quarter, the Raiders were leading 13-7. The Raiders lost 1st and 2nd at midfield. Quarterback Marc Wilson called a time out. Two plays later, Wilson called a time out. Both plays ended with sacks by John Blackmon. It was just another miserable afternoon.

The Raiders had the ball three times in the final quarter, twice in good field position, but got no farther than New England’s 41 yard line.

The Raiders finished the season 2-5, with the AFC West Division Championship, and along with its fame, blue.

Dickerson Sets Running Mark As Rams Shut Out Cowboys 20-0

By Ron Harris

Eric Dickerson rushed for a NFL postseason rushing mark of 248 yards, 6 touchdowns against the Dallas Cowboys.

The L.A. Rams had a defense capable of containing the Cowboys’ double teaming defenses, and getting to the end zone. They also have a secondary with excellent talent, but most of all, the Rams had control of the ball.

Eric Dickerson. The Cowboys couldn’t stop Dickerson, rushed for a playoff-record 248 yards and 6 touchdowns, and could not figure out the Rams defense.

"The Rams made us look bad," said Dallas Pro Bowl corner- back Everson Walls. "We know Dickerson is dangerous. We didn’t have the secondary to stop him.

Red Cross Needs Our Help

Washington, D.C. Congressman Al McCandless said today that "the Red Cross needs our help," which is usually combined with the plea, "They need a lot of money." He said, "Why do you want to help?" I replied, "to save your valuables." Then the turkey said to me, "I haven't seen you here for seven years. I can't read your mind." In order to read a person's mind, the reader must possess a M.D.G. He had A 1M D. "I'm a photographer." I replied, "I'm a key, as long as I'm on a team, I'm the only one to talk." "And you think that's something? I may want to use the swimming pool if I have used the pool before and to my knowledge there was no problem.

At that point all I wanted was some weights to work around. He finally gave me a key to a little glass door. I Mexican ate a very happy disposition. I got out of there as fast as I could. It turned out to be a weight room and had a good selection of equipment. It was a good exercise because of the friction the door had caused. While I was writing for my book back in Great Medicine, I heard another customer of the gym complaining about the attitude of this same fellow, and the other young man is aware of the setting of this article. It is our concern that the public does not have to stand for this kind of attitude at a public place. It did just cause a lot if you don't. Vote for Jack Clarke

If we merely look at qualifications, Jack Clarke would be the choice of the Second Ward seat next Tuesday, January 14, 1986, in Riverside California.

What will happen if we vote? The city of Riverside will then enter into the mainstream of American life. Riverside is one of the finest growing cities in the United States.

Nearly every city, with a sizable Afro-American (Black) population has representation in the city government. The city of Pasadena, California has a Black Mayor. Surely it is time for Riverside to enter city government.

The controversy has been over because of taxation without representation. Aside from that, let's look back at qualifications.

Jack Clarke is more qualified than his opponent. Clarke is an elected official, who was reappointed after his first term, serving the County of Riverside. He oversees the third in command under the Governor of the State of California.

He has lived 25 years in Riverside and served on the Airport Commission, he says he was responsible for $6 million of Federal money coming to the airport.

He has also served under the Governor of the State of California.

He is retired from the California Youth Authority where he has served 25 years in Riverside and served on the Airport Commission, he says he was responsible for $6 million of Federal money coming to the airport.

Under his leadership and the leadership of the Governor of the State of California.

Clarke retired from that position and has served on various law enforcement and other Boards and Commissions.

He is a retired Businessman, he has lived 25 years in Riverside and served on the Airport Commission, he says he was responsible for $6 million of Federal money coming to the airport.

If qualifications are important, putting candidates beside each other, will give voters a clear choice and they can also vote for the man who will make us proud.

Afro-Americans, blacks?

Are we Negroes, Afro-Americans or black? We raise the question because recently we have become increasingly concerned with people who call us Negroes.

Which is truly what we are. We are Americans of African decent. The correct spelling is capitalized. Usage of the lower case letter diminishes our importance.

We are not capitalized. In the same sentence this week in the Press we merely look at qualifications, Jack Clarke would be the choice of the Second Ward seat in Riverside, California.

He was on one of the most significant panels of the landmark Total Experience Preservation. The famed night spot will become a joyous occasion. Bill Cosby has always been a special friend not only to the Black community.

He will proudly present;

Bank Teller

TRACY TAYLOR has just received her paycheck for the week. She asked her younger sister Julie if she would like to go shopping with her.

“Yes,” responded Julie with excitement. “Will you buy me something, too?”

“Yes,” Tracy said, “but before we can go shopping I will have to go to the bank to get my check cashed.”

“Please cash this check for me,” Tracy said to the bank teller. “I would like four twenty dollar bills, four ten dollar bills, three five dollar bills and five one dollar bills.”

The bank teller counted out the money and handed it to Tracy.

“Thank you,” Tracy said with a smile.

“Wow! Tracy, I sure would like to work in a bank some day,” Julie said. “What is her job called?”

“Julie, the person who cashed my check is called a bank teller,” Tracy explained.

“Tell me everything a bank teller does,” said Julie.

“I don’t know everything a bank teller does,” said Tracy, “but if you like, after we finish shopping, we can go to the library and find some information on bank tellers.”

“I would like that,” replied Julie. “Tracy you are a nice big sister. You always help me so much.”

The AOIP Family & Community Reading Newspaper

The ADVANCER is the property of the national Assault On Illiteracy Program (AOIP)—an ANWO-inspired program—and is AOIP's official umbrella-style remediation instrument. In addition to The Title Page choices for which it is designed primarily, it is to be used in all AOIP programs and projects. All literacy-enhancement programs of AOIP-performing organizations are considered a part of AOIP.

The ADVANCER is prepared largely by the teachers in the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc., under the direction and guidance of the Professional Education Committee of which Carole Hayes and William Patten are Co-Chairpersons. They are assisted, with helpful cooperation, by the teachers and other professionals in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Those highly-trained and dedicated teachers—along with others in the more than 60 national organizations comprising AOIP—have for concentrated super-effort far more than any other educators with Title-I-type students. By focusing The ADVANCER primarily on such extraordinary needs, the supportive concerns of all other students are em- braced automatically.

PUZZLE ANSWERS

Always try to work the puzzle without looking at the answers. If you can't remember an answer, re-read the story before looking at the answers.

1. LAURENS
2. INSPIRED
3. POUNDED
4. CAROLINA
5. EDUCATION
6. ASSAULT

It is important to know that the primary purposes of this "fun to learn" newspaper, known as The ADVANCER, include the following:

1. To serve as a supplemental—not a basal—reading motivational and comprehension-enhancement tool;

2. To help rebuild the pride or sense of worth so deliberately and systematically stripped from Black families generations ago but which still remain unredressed to such a large degree today that many Black young students and adults have little or no will to learn or achieve;

3. To enable Hispanic students and their parents to better understand that America is their home whether they were born in the continental United States or not...and that they have a rich heritage upon which to build a bright future;

4. To maximize parental and other adult involvement by inserting The ADVANCER within the adult-oriented local cooperating community-building newspaper; And,

5. To assist in gaining a better racial understanding by students (mainly other Whites) in appreciating to a greater degree those aspects of the Black and Hispanic cultures which have been distorted so greatly and which remain unredressed to this day.
The primary objective of The ADVANCER is to serve as an excellent supplemental reading for the large number of young people in public and other formalized schools where reading motivation, comprehension enhancement and ego-strengthening help is needed. The secondary purpose is to fulfill locally in an effective way the approached since many of you, too, have opinions as reading specialists. We welcome your comments and would appreciate greatly your suggestions. Also, we invite-and urgently need—articles for inclusion in The ADVANCER, each article must include a set of questions for use in our Teacher's and Tutor's Guide. Since we may have to combine similar articles and significantly edit others, we feel it's best to maintain a policy of no credits. The objective of all of us is to do what we can to eliminate the enormity of illiteracy wherever it exists.

General Guidelines

This guide is primarily to arouse and maintain motivation in the student by continuously highlighting those elements in the articles which focus on issues of major concern to them; address their ego-strengthening needs and sense of self and convey productive alternatives to preconceived notions and ways of thinking that have hindered them from realizing their potential. This orientation can help make the necessary mechanical process that follows more meaningful and acceptable to the students—something that they can see as making sense and helpful to them. Accordingly, we suggest that you:

1. Utilize the Who Am I? Guide to Learning if you have total nonreaders.
2. Motivate student interest by introducing topics in The ADVANCER that show why they should be proud.
3. Guide the reading of each article by posing self-interest questions using words from the text. If necessary, take a sentence at a time. As the student progresses, you can take a paragraph at a time.
4. Here are some suggested motivational and comprehension questions:

Motivational and Comprehension Questions:

BANK TELLER—Ask: What has Tracy Taylor just received? What did she ask Julie? Why did Tracy have to go to the bank? How much money did the teller give Tracy? Why did Tracy and Julie go to the library? What are the qualifications for a bank teller? What are the main duties of a bank teller? What is Tracy’s dream? Do you have a dream? How can you make your dream come true?

DID YOU KNOW THAT?—Ask: What do the letters SCLC stand for? What is the primary purpose of SCLC? Who founded this organization? What does this organization try to do?

JAMES T. FLOYD—Ask: Why do you think James T. Floyd is a true role model for all of us? What is a sharecropper? What two (2) jobs did Floyd’s father have? How many pounds of cotton did he pick a day? What did Floyd’s parents tell their children about education? How do you know the Floyd children learned this lesson well? Of what organization is Floyd the International President? What is the motto of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity? What kind of work does Floyd do today? What organization are the Sigma’s working with to help lower the illiteracy level among Blacks? Were you inspired by his story?

OUR GEOGRAPHY LESSON—Ask: How many Black people live in the state of Wyoming? What city is the capital of Wyoming? How many Native Americans live in Wyoming? To which tribes do many of them belong? How many Black elected officials does Wyoming have? What was Fort Washakie Blockhouse used for?

SOLO VERACRUZ ES BELLO—Ask: What do these words mean in English? Where is Veracruz located? Who was Maximal? What is a man from Veracruz called? What is a Mestizo? What is a zocalo? What are most of the souvenirs made of? Why did the Spaniards build Castillo de San Juan de Ulua? Who was once a prisoner in this castle?

BLACK HISTORY LESSON—Ask: Where does the word Pentecostal come from? How many White people joined the Pentecostal churches? Who started the Pentecostal church? Name some places where Pentecostal churches are found. What are churches with “Assembly of God” in their name? What are churches with “Church of God in Christ” in their name? How do Pentecostals heal illnesses? What is “glossolalia”? Name some African practices that Pentecostals use.

THE HUMAN BODY—Ask: What are the main parts of the human body? What part of the body controls feelings? Where is the largest bone in the body? What is the nervous system like?

An Important Complement

To help round out the motivational and ego-strengthening begun here in The ADVANCER, the teacher or tutor also needs to:

1. Call the student’s attention to some role models from their own community, especially from a church setting that can be a source of pride and hope. In this regard, the teacher or tutor also needs to:
2. Highlight for the student the articles and editorials of The ADVANCER that are written by students and teachers working with students in the community. These articles and editorials demonstrate that the students are capable of being successful in their own community.

Parents, relatives and friends who have been blessed with strong egos and a sense of hope still need the exposure to these communication vehicles so they can better relate to the students outside the classroom-type settings. We theorize that the students will be inspired to do an even better job of role modeling and building their own communities. In these ways, our literacy victims will become even more secure, hopeful and proud enough to be motivated to want to learn.
There are 8 Rocky Mountain States: Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.

Wyoming comes from the Delaware Indian word Maughwauwame, meaning "a large prairie place." The name was used for the Wyoming Valley in eastern Pennsylvania where the tribe of Indians once lived. Wyoming became the 44th state on July 10, 1890.

The area of the state of Wyoming is 97,203 square miles. The state ranks 9th in size (Alaska—1st; Rhode Island—50th).

More than 470,000 people live in Wyoming. The state ranks 49th in population (California—1st; Alaska—50th).

Only 3,000 (0.7%) Black people live in the state of Wyoming. The state ranks 44th in the size of Black population (New York—1st; Vermont—50th). Wyoming ranks 42nd in percentage of Black population (Mississippi—1st; Montana and Vermont—50th).

There are more than 24,000 Hispanics in Wyoming. This includes less than 500 Puerto Ricans; 16,000 Mexicans; and less than 500 Cubans.

There are about 7,000 Native Americans (American Indians) in the state of Wyoming. Many of these Native Americans belong to the Sioux, Blackfoot, Shoshone and Arapaho tribes.

Many of the other ethnic groups also live in Wyoming. There are about 400 Chinese, 300 Filipinos, 600 Japanese; 200 Asian (East) Indians, 200 Koreans and 200 Vietnamese.

Cheyenne is the capital of Wyoming. The other major cities are Casper, Laramie, Rock Springs and Sheridan.

There are only 3 Black elected officials in the state of Wyoming. This includes 1 state representative; 1 member of a city council; and 1 member of a local school board.

Fort Washakie Blockhouse was the headquarters of the 9th and 10th Cavalry, two Black regiments. These soldiers also started the building of Fort Duchesne.
This is the story of James T. Floyd. James Floyd is a successful man. He is a true role model for all of us.

James T. Floyd once worked in the cotton fields of Laurens, South Carolina. His father and mother were sharecroppers. A sharecropper is a person who farms land owned by someone else and gets part of the crop in payment for the work done.

When there was a lot of work to do in the fields, everyone in the family pitched in to help. They got up earlier in the morning. They worked late at night. Floyd tells us that his father worked a full day in a factory. He still picked 250 pounds of cotton a day.

Education was very important to the Floyd family. Floyd's parents told their children that "education is something that nobody can take from you."

"Education," Floyd tells us, "was one of the things that our parents pounded in our heads from the time you were old enough to recognize their voices."

The Floyd children learned this lesson well. All of them are college graduates. Floyd earned a Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree in chemistry from Allen University in Columbia, South Carolina. He earned a Master of Science (M.S.) degree in chemistry from Tuskegee Institute in Alabama.

While Floyd was a student at Allen University, he became a member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. That was more than 30 years ago. Today, he is the International President of this great community-building organization.

A motto is a short saying that is used as a rule to live by. Floyd tells us that he was impressed with the motto of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. The motto is "Culture for Service. Service for Humanity." The last part of that motto was the personal motto of Abraham Langston Taylor, the founder of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

James Floyd doesn't pick cotton anymore. Today, he is a chemist and group leader for a large company. He also owns a building firm and a video/photography company.

President Floyd and the Sigmas want to do something about the high rate of illiteracy in the Black community. They are working with the Assault On Illiteracy Program (AOIP) to help lower the illiteracy level among Blacks.

Floyd says, "I guess I'm a living example that education is the key to helping improve your economic status."

Floyd also says, "I like to use myself and my family as examples to other Black kids so they will not be discouraged." He hopes that all of the readers of The ADVANCER will be inspired by his story. He hopes that all of us will say, "If these people can do it with no money, then we should be able to do it."
The title of our story is "Solo Veracruz Es Bello." It means "Only Veracruz Is Beautiful." You will see this slogan (word used to get attention) in shop windows, on posters and in stores all over Veracruz.

Veracruz is one of the oldest towns in Mexico. It is Mexico's most important port. It is located on the Gulf of Mexico.

In 1864, Maximilian landed at Veracruz. He wanted to become the Emperor of Mexico. The French troops sailed from Veracruz when they left Mexico. In 1914, U.S. troops held the town for a short time.

Veracruz is the name of the state and the town. The people of Veracruz are called Veracruzano (man) or Veracruzana (woman). Most of the people of Veracruz are Mestizos (Indian and Spanish parents) or Mulattoes (African and Spanish parents).

Let's begin our tour of Veracruz with the beautiful zocalo (public square or plaza). Look at the five fountains. At night all the fountains light up. This is the main fountain. The lights are pink. The lights in the four smaller fountains are red and green.

Let's walk a couple of blocks to the waterfront. Look at all the souvenir stands. Most of the souvenirs are made of seashells. There are many beautiful things here. Would you like to stop and buy some souvenirs?

Look over there across the water. That is the Castillo de San Juan de Ulua (Castle of St. John of Ulua). The Spaniards built the castle to protect Veracruz from pirates.

Castillo de San Juan de Ulua was also used as a prison. Benito Juarez was once held in this prison.

BANK TELLER

At the library, Tracy took Julie to the "Career Corner."

"Here is a book on bank tellers," said Tracy. Let's see what it says about the qualifications for a bank teller."

"On Page 3, it says a bank teller must have a high school education, must pass a general test given by the bank and must get three character letters," Julie said.

"Here are the main duties of a bank teller," said Tracy. "Let's see, a bank teller counts the money in his or her drawer at the beginning of the day. A bank teller cashes checks, makes deposits, sells traveler's checks and money orders, and makes sure that her drawer balances at the end of the business day."

"Tracy, do you think it would be a good idea for me to become a bank teller?" Julie asked.

"Of course," replied Tracy. "All you have to do is finish high school. The rest is easy."

"Good," Julie said. "I wonder what I would have to do to be in charge of the whole bank."

Tracy smiled. She thought to herself that maybe one day her younger sister will make her dream come true. She could see Julie as a successful executive of a bank.

"Keep dreaming, Julie," Tracy said to her sister. "Work hard and you will make your dream come true."
MRS. HEN, YOU SPIT OUT SOMETHING THAT IS VERY VALUABLE! THIS IS A DIAMOND!

DIAMONDS ARE NOT VALUABLE TO ME... "CORN IS!"

GRANDPA MACK TELLS THE STORY OF THE FALL OF GREAT ZIMBABWE BY KOFITUS

IT WAS A BEAUTIFUL WINTER DAY AND GRANDPA MACK DECIDED TO TAKE AN AFTERNOON WALK.

THE OLD MAN ESPECIALLY LOVED HIS WALKS DURING THIS TIME OF THE YEAR, BECAUSE THE COOL CRISP AIR WAS SO REFRESHING.

AS HE TURNED THE CORNER, HE SMILED AS HE NOTICED THAT ONE OF THE BOARDED UP HOUSES WAS NO LONGER VACANT.

HE WAS GLAD!... IT WAS ALWAYS EXCITING TO MEET NEW NEIGHBORS.

NEXT WEEK: THE NEIGHBORS
The word Pentecostal comes for the "Day of Pentecost." It is described in the Bible. The Book of Acts says: "And when the day of Pentecost was fully come...they were filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues...."

The Pentecostal churches are the only Black churches that millions of White people joined. The Pentecostal church began in 1906. It was started by Rev. William J. Seymour. Rev. Seymour was the Black pastor of Azusa Street Mission, a Black church in Los Angeles, California.

By 1925, the Pentecostal churches had more than 40 million members all over the world. In the countries of Central and South America, most of the Protestants are Pentecostals. In Africa, most of the native religions are called Pentecostal.

Today, more than 3 million White people belong to Pentecostal churches. The White Pentecostal churches broke away from the Black Pentecostal churches. Many of the White Pentecostal churches have "Assembly of God in Christ" in their name. These Pentecostal churches have more than 3 million members.

Pentecostals believe that every human person can become perfect. They believe that any disease or illness can be healed by the laying on of hands.

During services at a Pentecostal church, the people speak in strange tongues. This is called glossolalia. Some of the African practices that Pentecostals use are drums, tambourines and other musical instruments, dancing and loud chanting.

Pentecostal churches own housing projects in most of our big cities. They also own shopping centers, supermarkets and youth centers.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. had his headquarters in a Pentecostal church in Memphis, Tennessee.

The human body is a marvelous thing. The human body has many parts. The main parts of the body are the head and brain, the mid-section and the arms and legs.

The brain controls the body. It does more things than any machine can do. The brain controls feelings. All the feelings of joy, anger, spite, friendship or humor start in the brain.

The body has many bones. The largest bone is in the leg. The smallest bone is in the ear. Muscles are stretched over the bones. The skin covers it all.

The nervous system is like a complicated telephone system. The nervous system sends messages to and from the brain.
