BLACK POVERTY INCREASES, CONCENTRATES IN URBAN AREAS

New York, N.Y. - A major new study concludes that the nation’s fifty largest cities have a growing concentration of Blacks living in poverty. Among the study’s most disturbing findings was that since the early 1970’s the number of poor Blacks declined by 18 percent while the number of poor Blacks increased by 18 percent. Using Census Bureau data, the report’s author Dr. Richard P. Nathan of Princeton University concludes that the nation’s largest cities are becoming Blacker and Blacker and a greater proportion of those Blacks are living in poverty. Nathan adds, “Urban problems are getting worse precisely the time the nation is doing less about it. Overall, the nation’s poverty rate stands at 11 percent while 22 percent of Blacks and 25 percent of Hispanics are officially classified as living in poverty.”

Rev. Johnson, Founder of AME Church in Riverside

Fondly Remembered

Rev. Levett Johnson
Mark! The Herald Angel...
the Black youth of today are directing the Chorus. We must not be directed. Our father in heaven so that the world will be a better place to raise a family. We must not drop the ball.

For the young man who claims to hate Mr. King. "One day you will wake up, I hope it will not be too late." Human beings must be taught to Love themselves: When the feeling of resentment and rejection develop, we must become aware that to experience joy, the only person we can counsel for change is ourselves. So we must try to change our minds about others. It has been said, "You are not what you think you are, What you think you are." Following is a list of ideas that may help you in your daily life. Resource: "Joy of daily living." 1. Do you want to be loved? Stop hating, starting now. 2. Do you want health? Understand then, that our emotions are accompanied by physical changes. 3. Do you want to be creative? You get creative ideas from a source outside yourself. 4. Do you want a new experience? Then go out and meet people, and like people, all kinds of people. 5. Do you want wealth? Would not mean only money or property. Wealth includes ideas, moral, spiritual values. When you ask for prosperity, know what you ask for. Do you want courage? Then, say, "I can take this, and more." Say NO to illegal drugs and ignorant people. Do you want self-esteem? Then say it is not wrong up to myself as long as I love others. 8. Do you want forgiveness? Then let go of all resentments. Forgive yourself, and forgive everyone else. Do you want joy? Then bring some joy up from within and don't be afraid to spread it around. People are we people who need people. Together we can exist.

Chris Mader of the drama department will be directing the play which will open in March. The production will be a combined effort of the drama, choral, and band departments.
