HAPPY TALK... HOLIDAYS IN OCTOBER & NOVEMBER

Two holidays are coming up in October. Columbus Day, October 8, will be a regular work and class day for the College; the holiday will be observed on November 23, the Friday following Thanksgiving Day, making a four-day holiday.

Veterans Day, October 22, will be observed on that day as an Academic-Administrative holiday by the College.

November 6 has been designated by the Attorney General as an election day for the tax initiative, and is therefore a holiday for State employees. This day will be considered a working day for all College offices and classes and can be taken as a floating holiday at a later date.

"BULLETIN" HAS CHANGED DEADLINE AND ADDED "IT'S HAPPENING!"

The Bulletin has moved its former Wednesday noon deadline to Tuesday noon. The College Calendar, re-named "It's Happening!," will be a regular supplement of the Bulletin.

X-RAY UNIT ON CAMPUS THURSDAY

The San Bernardino County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. will have its mobile chest X-ray unit on campus Thursday, September 27, in the mall in front of the Admin. Bldg. from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. College personnel are invited and encouraged to take advantage of this free tuberculosis screening, which takes less than five minutes.

CURTAIN CALL

Try-outs for Moliere's plays, "The Versailles Impromptu" and "The Physician In Spite of Himself," have been called by Director William Slout on Sept. 27, 28, 7 p.m., FA-116.

COLLEGE TO HAVE FIRST
DRAMATIST-IN-RESIDENCE

A multi-talented Broadway director-playwright will become the College's first dramatist-in-residence. Harry Cauley, whose Broadway and off-Broadway credits in producing, directing, acting and writing number into the hundreds, will teach courses in playwriting (Drama 510, 4 p.m., MW, open to all students regardless of major) and a beginning acting class (Drama 340).

Mr. Cauley taught acting in New York. He was also connected with Ledges Playhouse in Michigan, operated by William Slout, Assoc. Prof. Drama at CSCSB, who was producer at the playhouse. While there Mr. Cauley worked as actor and director.

Most recent of the plays which he wrote and directed on Broadway is "Let Me Hear You Smile," produced in 1973, starring Sandy Dennis and Jules Broderick. Directorial credits include "Goodbye Again" with Wendell Corey, "Streetcar Named Desire," "Tobacco Road," "Sweet Bird of Youth," and over 40 other noted Broadway productions. Mr. Cauley received his B.A. degree in English at St. Francis College, Pa.

COLLEGE ASKS CITY FOR CHILD CARE CENTER FUNDS

The College has made official request for $16,280 to the City of San Bernardino for a share of the city's undistributed revenue-sharing funds, of which $60,000 is ear-marked for day care facilities throughout the city.

Last May the CSCSB Child Care Center Committee held a groundbreaking ceremony for the play yard of the center. The site, located north of the Student Services Bldg., was donated by the College. The A.S.B. allocated $3,000 for first-year operating expenses.

The funds requested from the city would be used to buy three office trailers and convert them into an indoor play area and office unit. It is estimated that an average of 30 children an hour could be cared for by the center. It is expected that income from the 38¢-hourly fees will maintain the project after its completion.

During 2-day registration, 9-4:30: BABY SITTING SERVICES FOR REGISTERING STUDENTS, PE-129.
During 1st day of registration (Mon.):BAKE SALE FOR CHILD CARE CENTER. Donations welcome.

VETERANS, HERE'S YOUR MAN

A Navy veteran of four year's service who graduated from CSCSB last winter has been named Veterans Affairs Coordinator. Don Colletti, who joined the College staff Sept. 10, is temporarily located in offices adjacent to the Admissions and Records Lobby.

As the College's first Veterans Coordinator, he will use the facilities of the College and initiate new services, including counseling and tutoring, to assist students who are veterans toward a successful college career.

His duties will take him off-campus also, where he will contact veterans to advise them of their educational benefits under the G.I. Bill.

Mr. Colletti, a life-long Californian, attended schools in Riverside and graduated from Riverside Poly High.

FIRST LIVE-IN ADVISER AT SERRANO

Lorraine Smith who came to the campus on Sept. 14, is the College's first live-in activities adviser at Serrano Village.

In addition to working with the residents of the Village, particularly the house resource counselors, she will also serve as liaison for the students with the Cafeteria and maintenance personnel.

Miss Smith earned her B.A. at UC, Berkeley and her M.A. in sociology at Chico State, and comes to CSCSB with a wide background of residence hall advising experience.

One of the first activities planned by the new adviser is a trip to Disneyland tomorrow. Others scheduled are a car rally for all students, Sept. 29, followed by a party, and a Las Vegas night on Oct. 13.
