Got a free weekend to enrich your mind? The office of Continuing Education has scheduled 45 weekend workshops between now and Christmas. Designed to improve one's mind, update professional skills or suggest new ways to relate to others (or deal with one's own problems), the workshops are fully described in the fall quarter Extension Bulletin now available without charge from the Office of Continuing Education. The intriguing titles range from "Two Big Ears" and "Beyond the Traditional Dating Game: Trancending Gene Berlant" to "An Autumn Adventure: Photograph Angeles Oaks" and "Aging is a Family Affair.

For the individual interested in the business world, the fall weekenders cover such fields as coping with inflation, real estate law, marketing for managers who have no marketing experience and women in management.

Workshops of concern to people in the social and behavioral sciences include two Saturday sessions by Dr. Herb Goldberg, author of "The Hazards of Being Male," and one by William Glasser, who continues his research into the functioning of the brain in his latest book and class, both entitled "The Stations of the Mind." In addition there are weekend courses on dealing with loneliness and alienation, the Chippewa family, sexual well-being, and clinical problems for nurses.

Of general interest are the weekend workshops in art and photography, in writing how to sell 75 percent of your non-fiction freelance writing, and others, in politics ("Electron 1980").

Courses are being offered in 17 communities - ranging from Apple Valley to Yuca Valley, from Corona to Claremont and from Mr. Baldy to Sunnyhills. Complete details on the fall quarter are in the fall quarter Extension Bulletin, available without charge from the Office of Continuing Education.

From President Pfau to All The New Students

I am delighted to have this opportunity to welcome our new students to campus. We all look forward to a very good year and hope that you take full advantage of the many opportunities that are available. You will soon discover that Cal State, San Bernardino has a first-rate faculty. Work with them and you will have a fine educational experience. The Student Services staff is made up of highly trained individuals who stand ready to help you with health care, financial aids, and personal counseling. There are many opportunities to participate in recreational and cultural activities as well as in student government.

If you get into the swing of things, life on a small campus can be very rewarding. However, you must be willing to take the initiative and be willing to work hard. Once you become part of the intellectual, social, and recreational activities, you will have an enriching experience which will ultimately prove to be a major turning point in your life.

John M. Pfau

Placement Center Services Available

The staff of the Career Planning and Placement Center has a number of services available to all students at Cal State, San Bernardino. The Placement Center is located in the Student Services Building, Room 116.

If you wish a part-time job while you attend college, the Placement Center maintains a comprehensive listing of part-time jobs, both on and off campus. Come and register to receive this service.

Should you be in a quandary as to what major is just the right one for you, come inspect the Career Preparation Center. There are also other brochures, pamphlets and directories for your use in the Career Resource Library, that is maintained by the Placement Center staff.

If you need help sorting out your career plans, make an appointment to see Mr. Ed Schrenher, Career Counselor, by calling 887-7551.

Briefs on all the different majors available at CSCSB. There are also other brochures, pamphlets and directories for your use in the Career Resource Library, that is maintained by the Placement Center staff.

As your college career progresses, you will find that the staff of the Career Planning and Placement Center have a number of helpful programs and workshops to assist you. There are resume writing workshops, seminars, on how to interview for a job, and "Career Conversation" programs in different career fields to let you "get the feel" of various career choices. These events will be well publicized on campus.

Come see what the Placement Center can do for you.

Telephone For The Deaf

Beginning September 2, 1980, special telephone service for the deaf and hearing impaired will be available in the Office of the Chancellor. The service, located in the Student Affairs Division, may be reached by dialing 213-590-5555 or ATSS 535-5555.

Mrs. Cindy Cantrell, Secretary in Student Affairs, will operate the TTY system and assist callers in communicating with all divisions and units within the Chancellor's Office. This new service will enable us to serve more effectively the needs of persons with impaired hearing.

WASHINGTON -- In any presidential campaign, the man at the White House has an advantage over his challengers. An incumbent president has the power, the perks and the purse strings. This can be a press conference for an announce-ment that will make him look good; or use Air Force One for a supposedly non-political trip to an important state, or hand out federal grants to crucial election battlegrounds.

Jimmy Carter demonstrated his skill at presidential gamesmanship in his successful primary races against Sen. Ted Kennedy. Any time Kennedy threatened to get the next day's headlines or a spot on the evening newscasts, Carter could call a press conference or hand out handily arranged, camera-grabbing event. Local governments also found themselves wallowing in federal grants and suddenly announced aid programs on the eve of the primaries.

Meanwhile, the latest polls have Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan in a dead heat. But Reagan may be gaining the momentum. Our sources have seen the latest public opinion samples. The next published polls will show Reagan about four percentage points ahead of the president.

Reagan is showing strength in a number of big states. That was shown in 1976. Reagan is even under-cuttering Carter in the South. But even worse news for the Carter campaign is coming from New York.

It will be difficult for the president to win re-election without the help of New York. This State. This makes the Liberal Party's endorsement a crucial factor. Carter has none, but to Carter, it is independent John Anderson. This might give Anderson enough replacement votes to help New York to win the votes of disgruntled Kennedy Democrats.

The Liberal Party has never failed to endorse a Democratic candidate for president. But incredibly, the party leaders got the brushoff from the Carter camp. Carter's aides treated the Liberal leaders with an arrogance that bordered on contempt. The Liberals pleaded with Carter to listen to their advice and not undercut him with a hastily arranged, camera-grabbing event. Local governments also found themselves wallowing in federal grants and suddenly announced aid programs on the eve of the primaries.

Newman Club was purely a social club. Others thought that it was "Newman Club? Fitch (Newman Club Chaplain), that it was a service organization. A question arose — what is the Newman Club?

Riddell, and Wayne THies met and discussed the matter. Teri Calloway, Ray Styptycki, Teri Farris, Jeannie Chrysler; Dr. J. Cordcll Robtnson, economics; Dr. K. Michael Clarke, classics; Dr. Marvin Frost, geography; Dr. Arlo Harris, Spanish; Dr. Dennis Pederson, sociology; Dr. Joseph Janczyk, economics; Dr. Rebecca Senour, history; Dr. Robert Senour, sociology; Dr. Dennis Pederson, sociology; Dr. Ruth Wilson, psychology; Ms. Mary McGregor, nursing; Dr. Thomas Pierce, economics.

By bus. $7.00 per person. "ESCAPE '80" is sponsored by the Associated Students, Activities Resource Center, and the Department of Physical Education and Recreation. If you have any questions regarding "ESCAPE '80" feel free to contact Richard Bennecke, Student Union or Joe Long, Department of Physical Education and Recreation. All registrations for "ESCAPE '80" outings will be taken in the Student Union at the reception center.

The Newman Club is a group of people, affiliated with the Catholic Church, meeting together socially to share similar life values in an atmosphere of acceptance. The Newman Club is not a service organization, but a social group. Newman Club members Teri Calloway, Ray Styptycki, Teri Farris, Jeannie Chrysler; Dr. J. Cordcll Robtnson, economics; Dr. K. Michael Clarke, classics; Dr. Marvin Frost, geography; Dr. Arlo Harris, Spanish; Dr. Dennis Pederson, sociology; Dr. Joseph Janczyk, economics; Dr. Rebecca Senour, history; Dr. Robert Senour, sociology; Dr. Dennis Pederson, sociology; Dr. Ruth Wilson, psychology; Ms. Mary McGregor, nursing; Dr. Thomas Pierce, economics.

We feel that our club is different from any other club on campus. If you feel the need to be with people, you can talk to and enjoy taking part in many social activities, you have found the right club. If you want to share with other people your religious beliefs in a non-denominational atmosphere, then the Newman Club welcomes you. If you just want something else to do instead of homework, then you might as well join the Newman Club — at least stop by and say hi!

Some of the activities that we have planned this quarter are as follows:

- CHRISTMAS DANCE — live band!!
- BAY HIK TO DEVIL'S PUNCHBOWL, SAT. OCT. 11
  - Registration Sept. 22—Oct. 15.
  - $4.00 per person at the door. Travel by mini bus. Films, demonstrations, etc.

What Is The Newman Club?

At first, it was thought that the Newman Club was purely a social club. Others thought that it was solely religious, and still others felt that it was a service organization. The type of confusion created a serious identity problem and the question arose — what is the Newman Club?

To set out and explore possible answers to the question: Dr. Steve Fitch (Newman Club Chaplain), Dr. Paul Espetico (Adviser), and club members Teri Calloway, Ray Styptycki, Teri Farris, Jeannie Chrysler, and Wayne THies met and came up with an answer.

Budweiser presents...

the TASTEBUDS

"FORECAST"

Hey, wait a minute boys, here's the latest taste forecast.

What is it?

Bad news... creamed liver!

Oh no!

Yuck!

Hey, there's some good news here, too...

Yeah??

A Budweiser?

No...

No?

Bummer...

Two Budweisers!!

Fill 'er up!

Why do you think they call 'em Tastebuds, anyway?

Watch the Tastebuds (in actual commercials) on "Saturday Night Live!"
