CSSA Rates the Other Area Legislators

By Shirley Pinard

In the 1979-80 Legislature, the California State Student Association (CSSA) compiled a report on the 120 legislators of the area to discuss how they voted on issues of importance to California’s students.

The report rated legislators on six bills: one favoring the student association and five passed by the Assembly, this bill providing for a sole processor of financial aid forms. The A.S. fee can now be raised from its current $20/yr. level by a vote of the students.

Assemblyman William Leonard received an F, while State Senator Ruben S. Ayala received an A, in a report released last week by the CSSA. The report noted California’s 120 legislators as to how they voted on issues of importance to California’s students.

Of the ten bills on which the legislators were rated, Leonard was given a score of 45%, voting on five bills, and being absent for one vote. Ayala, who was rated on nine bills as a senator, supported the student motion eight times and missed one vote.

Another area legislator received a rating as follows: State Senator Robert Presley -80% (voting on all bills); Assemblyman Terry Lachaise -88% of all votes present for five bills; and Assemblyman Walter Ingalls received an 88% of all votes for which he was present. 76% for all possible votes (absent for two votes).

Of these bills were supported by all the other legislators from this area. A bill AB 1279, which removed the $20 per year ceiling on A.S. fees, was passed with support from our five local lawmakers. The A.S. fee can now be raised beyond its current $20/yr. level by a vote of the students.

Leonard, Goggin and Ingalls all voted against AB 2031, a bill which would have expedited student aid from school upon conviction of a felony or certain misdemeanors. The bill was killed in the Assembly.

As legislators, Ayala and Presley voted in favor of ACR 35, dealing with learning assistance centers, and AB 867, a bill providing for a sole processor of financial aid forms.

A copy of the complete CSSA report on the 1979-80 Legislature is available for reference in the office of the A.S. President.

One of the CSSA’s key pieces of legislation this year was AB 224, a bill which would have outlawed discrimination against students in housing. Although strongly backed by the CSSA and passed by the Assembly, this bill failed to pass the Senate on a close vote. The bill was opposed by Leonard and Presley, while it was supported by Ayala and Goggin.

Ingalls did not vote on it.

Leonard also voted against three other student backed bills. These were: AB 3107, a bill which provides a process for students to seek damages if the privacy of their student records are violated; SB 863, a bill providing additional rights to child care centers; AB 771, a bill providing additional rights to renters facing eviction. All three of these bills were supported by all the other legislators from this area.

The bill AB 1279, which removed the $20 per year ceiling on A.S. fees, was passed with support from our five local lawmakers. The A.S. fee can now be raised beyond its current $20/yr. level by a vote of the students.

Women in management is the subject of a one-day seminar to be held Saturday, Nov. 15.

What careers are available to women in the world of management? How do they get there? How do they stay there? How do they cope? How do they cope?

These are some of the questions that will be addressed in the conference which will meet from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Lower Commons.

The seminar is offered through the extension program. It will provide practical advice on: how the woman executive can improve her skills; exercise her rights; make key career moves; manage her time, money and energy; and enjoy her success.

The instructors are Janice Loutzenhiser, attorney and assistant professor of administration at Cal State, and Deborah Mandabach, of Redlands, vice president of the Newport Group, a management consultant firm in Irvin.

Registration, required by Nov. 3, can be completed by calling the Office of Continuing Education, 887-7522. After that date, those interested may contact that office to see if there is space available.

The fee is $39 for 6 continuing education units.

Lachaise On Exhibit

By Shirley Pinard

The art gallery on the Cal State, San Bernardino campus was transformed recently into a lyrical world depicting the many forms of the female, with the works of sculptor Gaston Lachaise.

Lachaise, born in Paris in 1882, moved to the United States at the age of 24 following a woman 'who immediately became the primary inspiration which awakened my vision and the leading influence that has directed my forces.' Most of his works reflect the amply-figured woman who became his wife. They are influenced by his imagination, tempered somewhat by the style of the time, and especially in his later work, depart sharply from the academic norm.

These were: AB 3107, a bill providing additional rights to child care centers; AB 771, a bill providing additional rights to renters facing eviction. All three of these bills were supported by all the other legislators from this area.

The Art Department of CSCSB, under the guidance of Dr. Julius Kaplan, has created and outstanding show and in doing so has achieved several firsts.

Lachaise, in his 53 years, left the world a legacy of drawings and sculptures that is highly regarded by both critics and public. For the first time these drawings and the resulting pieces of sculpture have been integrated into a cohesive unit. The catalogue, written by art history major Deborah Waters, is available at the show ($1.00 for CSCSB students, $2.00 for anyone else) and it includes more of Lachaise’s drawings than have ever before been illustrated in any single publication.

Dear Uncle Wally,

This is the last edition of the South Park Rebel leaving the campus, June, 1969, a time reminiscent of the Gestapo's reign over the German people. In 1933, the Gestapo had 1,000 men, but today, the SDS has 2,000.

Tom Hayden makes a plea in the San Francisco Chronicle, antithetical to his campaign against Reagan. He is antithetical to the SDS, which is the radical wing of the 1960s student movement. In the 1960s, SDS was the vanguard of radical activism, leading the way in the civil rights movement, anti-war protests, and student strikes. However, in the 1970s, many SDS members shifted their focus to more conservative causes, such as anti-communism.

Tom Hayden, a member of the SDS, has become a liberal politician, running for and holding office as a Democrat. In contrast, Reagan, a conservative politician, has held positions such as Governor of California and Vice President of the United States. Hayden's shift to conservative politics has caused a rift within the SDS, leading to the formation of more radical groups.

I hope you find this perspective useful, and I look forward to hearing your thoughts on this matter.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
ACKLEY AWARDED GRANT FOR 5TH YEAR

Dr. Richard Ackley, professor of Political Science, has been awarded a $300 grant from the National Strategy Information Center. This is the fifth straight year the grant has been renewed. "The grant is not tied to the government and is from a tax-exempt organization," states Ackley.

Enrollment Record

The student population at CSCSB increased almost 10 percent for the fall quarter. Full-time equivalent enrollment is up 306 over the fall quarter a year ago, to 3,422 students.

The head count, the number of students enrolled full and part time, is up 418 students from a year ago to 4,619. Both figures represent an increase of 9.8 percent.

The increase in enrollment over the spring quarter is even more dramatic. The FT is up 451. Students from 2,967.9 to 3,422 and the head count is up 633 students from 4,016. Both are roughly a 13.4 percent increase.

The bulk of the increase came in graduate students with junior transfers from community colleges and first-time freshmen next.

No one knows why there has been such a dramatic increase in the number of students attending college, especially when all predictions were for a declining enrollment. What is clear is that the enrollment boost is a system-wide phenomenon.

Among the theorists there have been advanced in case the increase is due to economics. Between the inflationary squeeze and the reduction of available jobs, people feel they are forced back to school to improve their skills to better enable them to compete in the job market.

The statisticians, incidentally, feel that the upsurge in enrollments in no way invalidates earlier predictions that college enrollments will decline gradually over the next several years, then increase again.

"TRieste" Record Holder to Speak

On Tuesday, November 4, 1980, from 1:20 p.m. in LC 5 Dr. Don Walsh, Director of the Institute for Marine and Coastal Studies at USC will speak on "Law of the Sea and America's Ocean Policy." Dr. Walsh is a Professor of Ocean Engineering, is a former U.S. Navy submarine captain and co-holds the record for the deepest dive in the ocean — 35,800 feet or nearly seven miles — in the bathyscaphe TRIESTE to the floor of the Trench 200 miles from Guam.

The National Science Foundation named a peninsula-like ridge in Antarctica the "Walsh Spur." Dr. Walsh's contributions to U.S. programs in the Antarctic.

President Carter appointed Dr. Walsh to a three-year term as member of the National Advisory Committee on Ocean and Atmosphere (NACOA).

Interested students, faculty, and staff are invited to his presentation.

Johansen To Present Next Noon Concert

Larry Johansen will be the guest performer for the installment of the noon concert series Thursday in the Creative Arts Building recital hall.

Johansen, lecturer in trumpet here and associate professor of music at Cal Poly, Pomona, will perform on trumpet with organ accompaniment.

Faculty, staff and students are invited to attend. This is the series which, last year, was held at noon on Wednesdays.

CCC SURVEY

The Campus Crusade for Christ ran a survey during registration regarding the relative spiritual interest of Cal State students.

Thirty and seventy-one students responded, with 163 male, 206 female, and 402 undecided, to the three questions.

Number one, do you think the quality of your spiritual life is important? 562 yes, 31 no, 78 unsure.

Number two, what is your religious affiliation? 242 Catholic, 265 Protestant, 22 Jewish, 176 other, 61 none.

Number three, I think about God, life after death, and other spiritual things 416 frequently, 337 sometimes, 16 never.
Browns Crush Tokay Bruins

Topseeded scores were the order of the day in the second week of Men's flag football. The Cal-State Browns bombarded the Tokay Bruins 42-0 in the most lopsided contest. Terry Boykins and Ivan Glasco led the Browns offense with two touchdowns each. Anthony Duncan scored the other TD while Ervin Caver, Alex Urquyo, and Tom Ruvolo added two-point conversions.

In the closest game of the day, Just for Fun beat the Tokay Terrors 27-12. Just for Fun let several players get in on the scoring fun as Kim Nelson, Russell Wootton, Frank Liezman, and Eric Freiner scored touchdowns. Leo Vasquez had both scores for the Terrors.

The Raiders rammed to a 24-8 victory over the V.A. Cowboys in blue division action. Mike Maurer was the dominant offensive force for the Raiders, scoring two touchdowns. Steve Landrus and Scott Killman also scored for the Raiders and Greg Thompson added a one-point conversion. Ron Rego scored the only TD for the Cowboys.

In the final game of the day, Tokay Tide cut down the Joshua Trees 34-8. Mike Holthe, Tom Elbert, Rudy Covarrubias, Bill Halverson, and Robert Trujillo all scored for the Tide. Dave Surroga had the only touchdown for Joshua.

In the second week of Co-ed football, Lethal Dose and Shandin Crazyhouse faced off in a nerve-wracking contest. Terry Boykins scored a touchdown to tie the game then a one-point conversion to win the game for Lethal Dose 19-18 in the final minutes.

Shandin Crazyhouse offense was led by Flat hers who scored twice. The other scores for Lethal Dose and Shandin were scored by Robert Walker and Tony Walker; the other scores for Lethal Dose and Shandin were scored by Ivo Pavlovich and Tony Walker.

In brown division action Slidin' Vent cruised to their second straight easy victory, stomping Mojave 56-0. Nancy Ferretti and Ivan Glasco were the dominant offensive stars, both scoring twice. Sonya Jackson and Vic Tillman scored once each to complete the scoring.

In the final game of the day, badgers downsed the Mean Machines 12-7. The badgers scored twice in the first half on two long bombs to Johnson.

The traditional male-female roles in the dating ritual will be examined in a seminar on Nov. 15. Titled "Beyond the Traditional Dating Game: Transcending Gender Barriers," the seminar will be taught by Dr. Herb Goldberg, author of "The Hazards of Being Male." He seeks to encourage rethinking of attitudes toward dating by emphasizing a comprehension of the opposite gender's burdens as well as providing for a more nontraditional role for women especially, but for men as well. Registration for the workshop, presented by the Office of Continuing Education, is required by Nov. 10.

According to Dr. Goldberg, psychology professor at California State University, Los Angeles, traditional courtship rituals have distorted male/female relationships. Rather than promoting closeness and communication, says Dr. Goldberg, these rituals usually have the opposite effect. The goal of his instruction is to place the male/female relationship in a more humanistic context and remove some of the gender-related proscriptions.

Among the goals of exercises which will be employed in the workshop are honest self-presentation in opposite-gender relationships, examination of stereotypes held by both men and women, exploration of positive and negative reactions in confrontations and follow-up on mutual misconceptions. The seminar will meet from 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. and from 7 - 9 p.m. in the Cal State Library. One unit of extension credit will be awarded. Cost is $87.50 if credit is earned and $30 if taken on a noncredit basis. Registration may be secured by telephoning the Office of Continuing Education at 887-7527.

Vietnam Revisited in the Dorms

The PawPrint Editor in Chief Mark Reubenwich will deliver a slide presentation, lecture and discussion on the Vietnam war really like it for the foot soldiers at 9:00 p.m. in Mesa Hall's kitchen in Serrano Village, this Wednesday at 9:00. Reubenwich served in Vietnam from 1967 to 1968 as an infantryman in the Marines. His primary duties included service as a Scout Sniper and squad leader in an experimental air assault unit. He received the Purple Heart, Cross of Gallantry, CIB and Combat Action Badge for his service. Until recently he has been Plantation Manager of a Heavy Mortar Platoon in an Artillery Battalion of the California Army National Guard for which he has received severalatar awards.

The slide presentation is being given for the first time in two years and unusually well received. The presentation centers primarily on the role the Marine as a Sniper.

The Marketing Club

The Marketing Club held its second meeting of the year on Oct 22, to plan events for the upcoming year. Many of which included speakers from various business organizations.

The upcoming guest speaker will be from IBM and he will talk about sales techniques, and job opportunities with IBM.

The club is also planning on participating in two advertising competitions, one for the Company and the other for Phillips Morris Company. Anyone interested in participating in these events should contact Kerri Acheson in AD at 178. Ext. 7543 or 7711.

Judy Irwin, a marketing major and a member of our club, will accompany the upcoming Country Western Night at the PawPrint on Sunday Nov. 2. They will have a free Western dinner, complete with a dance and a variety of music. The Marketing Club will be helping with the advertising for this event and would like to invite all UCCSB students over 21 to attend. Anyone interested in becoming a member of the Marketing Club is urged to attend our next meeting on Nov. 12 at 5:00 p.m. in the Senate Chambers of the Student Union.

For further information, please contact Kerri Acheson or leave a message in our mail box in the Student Union.
Boy, when he first took up tennis, I thought we were going to get into some mixed doubles with some of those sorority chicks.

What a great serve!

Why do you think they call 'em Tastebuds anyway?

Yeah, but waiting for court time is as exciting as watching chicken parts thaw.

Oh no, not more tennis balls!
