The BULLETIN

January 4, 1974

WINTER QUARTER
BEGINS
JAN. 7

Winter Quarter registration concludes today with the last priority group registering at 4-4:30 and all not registered at scheduled time for first or second day registering from 4:30-6:30 p.m., under a new priority system which was put into effect last Fall.

Classes begin Monday, January 7, for the Winter Term, which is also the date for late registration. January 11 is the last day to add classes. A late fee of $5 will be charged after that date.

The Accounting Office and Bookstore will remain open until 7 p.m. for the convenience of students during next week, January 7 through 11.

New subjects which became part of the curriculum this quarter are physical geology, an area in which the College has not previously offered courses, expanded offerings in criminal justice and a minor in recreation.

TWO MINORS AND TWO OPTIONS IN ART MAJOR NOW AVAILABLE

The College has received approval to offer two options under the Bachelor of Arts in Art. One plan will include 12 courses with a general emphasis and the other will include 15 courses, with a more professional emphasis. Additionally, the College has been authorized to offer its first specialized art minors, Art History and Studio Art.

The new programs are effective this quarter.

ENERGY CRISIS CAUSES REDUCTION IN LIBRARY HOURS

New, curtailed hours have been announced for the Library, effective next Monday, January 7. Monday through Thursday the Library will open at 8:30 a.m. (instead of 8:00 a.m.) and remain open until 10 p.m. On Fridays the hours will be 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. (formerly 8:00 a.m. to 5 p.m.) The most innovative change will occur on Saturdays, when the Library will be closed (formerly open noon to 4 p.m.). Sunday hours will be 1 to 5 p.m. instead of the usual 1:30 to 10 p.m. schedule.

The reduction in hours will result in energy savings.

EXHIBIT OF JIM HARREL,
STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER, AMONG FOUR IN LIBRARY DISPLAYS

The January exhibits of the Library feature Photographs by Jim Harrel, Staff Photographer with the CSCSB A-V Department and first photographer of the College to have his work on display here.

The Harrel collection, in color and black and white, was processed and printed by the artist, who has used a variety of different techniques, ranging from a simple monotone print to complex multi-colored posterization. The photos are on the First Floor.

Other exhibits are "Transofrance," depicting rapid transit in France, also First Floor; Posters of Gas Light Theater, Third Floor; and Salvador Dali prints, Fourth Floor.

PRINTS BY 24 SO. CALIF.
PRINTMAKERS AT GALLERY

The opening exhibition of the Art Gallery for the 1974 series features Prints by 24 Southern California Printmakers. The exhibition shows the full range of print media from artists of international rank and the most promising young artists working in the area.

A special attraction of opening day, January 8, will be a gallery talk by Leonard Edmonson, distinguished artist and author of recent books on the etching process, at 4 p.m.

A reception will mark the opening of the new season of The Gallery at 8 p.m. The campus community and the public are invited.
