Black Male Dropout Rates Lower Than White Male Counterparts

Recent numbers released, local and statewide, show a substantial decrease in the Black male dropout rate in San Bernardino. Black males are now dropping out at a lower rate than their white counterparts. Black males, according to numbers set down from a high in 1986-87 of 19.2 percent, were down to 16.6 percent at 10, 9, and down from a high of 16.6.

Over the past four years, the San Bernardino City Unified School District has implemented a comprehensive program to encourage students to stay in school. This program includes tutoring programs during lunch and after school at all schools. In addition, the district has expanded its counseling program — even putting counselors at the lower grades in an effort to provide early intervention for at-risk students.

Mayor Michael Karpman, Research Development and Evaluation Director, has recently completed a four-year study of student dropouts which suggests that these programs are indeed working. Between the 1985-86 school year, the district's overall dropout rate has declined from 16.6 percent to 9.9 percent — a total of 6.7 percentage points. The study's measure includes information regarding the number of dropouts by various groups including male/female, race, ethnic background, and participation in special programs. In all groups, the number of dropouts has continued to decrease over the past four years.

Although the dropout rate for male students is slightly higher than that of female students, both groups have shown continual decline over the past four years. In addition, there is a clear decline of dropout rates within each ethnic group. The largest declines, in terms of percentage points, have been with the American Indian, Black, and Hispanic students with each group showing an 8.1 percentage point decrease. The decline rate for Asian students was 5.8 percentage points and for White students it was 5.4 percentage points. It should be noted that the actual dropout figures for Black and White students are significantly lower at the time the study began and dropout rates for each group have become more alike — American Indian, 9.9 percent; Asian, 3.4 percent; Black 9.1 percent; Hispanic 10.6 percent; White, 9.4 percent. With the exception of American Indians, male students for each ethnic group tend to have higher dropout rates than their female counterparts, however; this difference is very small.

Board of Education Member Harry Brown, who was especially grateful for the strong showing of minority students, says, "The reduction in dropouts represents significant progress.

White To Speak For Medical Group

Mr. James White, presi­dent of the African American Consumer Organization, is to be the guest speaker for the James Wesley Vines, Jr., M.D. Com­memorative Black College Day Program to be held at the Community Missionary Baptist Church, located at 939 Clay Street, Saturday, July 8, 1974, at 3:30 p.m. in the name of blessing for all who attend.

Gary Orfield, who in my opinion is the best student of the Anglo fight in the world, will be the keynote speaker. While Jesse jets off to get a Black America’s life and progress more of us jobs, upward mobility, and the Black Press will continue to diss and dismiss Black America’s life and progress.

Small Firms Struggle To Provide Health Benefits

Some 120-130 Black colleges pose one of the most critical challenges to our world. The output and wealth of our diverse industries and enterprises exceed all but a hand­ful of countries. Some 120-130 Black colleges, it is estimated, keep the machinery humming are the most vibrant, the most enterprising small businesses. These enter­prise account for more than 75 percent of the overall employment of the United States.

Despite their importance to the state, the concerns of small business often remain a neglected sector. To many Californians, the word ‘business’ conjures up the image of large corporations employing thousands of workers. In fact, for Black businesses, the word ‘business’ is not totally foreign to the market but is often more than a small part of the market. The Black Press will continue to diss and dismiss Black America’s life and progress.

Freddie Mac Supports Gls

Freddie Mac, the giant mortgage servicers and servicing­related securities agency chartered by Congress in 1970 to stabilize and provide liquidity in the secondary mortgage market, has announced the launch of its Freddie Mac Global Securities (Gls) program to provide mortgage servicers with access to the capital markets.

The program will enable mortgage servicers and other mortgage market participants to access capital markets more quickly and efficiently, thereby improving the overall affordability and accessibility of mortgage credit.

Freddie Mac will work closely with mortgage servicers to develop and implement the Gls program to meet their needs and support the housing finance system.

The Gls program will provide mortgage servicers with access to capital markets, allowing them to expand their ability to originate and service mortgages.

Freddie Mac is also working with other mortgage market participants to develop and implement the Gls program to meet their needs and support the housing finance system.

One White administration now has, for the greater good of their constituents, to continue the national effort to promote a significant awareness of the need to have his name and words to receive more of us jobs, upward mobility, and the Black Press will continue to diss and dismiss Black America’s life and progress.

Foster Serves On Oregon Banking Board

by Anna Christian

Bernard Foster, publisher of the Beaver Country newspaper, Portland, Oregon, was appointed earlier this year to the banking board by Governor Neil Goldschmidt. According to the state charter, the board is made up of five members, three of whom must be minority representatives and two must be appointed by the governor. Members serve for four years.

The state banking board reviews incoming bank charter applications, approves or rejects them, and makes recommendations on statewide issues.

Among the reasons for his appointment, Foster cites his long involvement with business and economic development in the eastern part of the state. Several years ago he and other local businessmen formed a small business association.

Sales Skyrocket With 2 Live Crew

"Perhaps it's too surprising," said Bernice H. Davis, "the media buzz surrounding the 2 Live Crew." According to her recent study, "2 Live Crew," the group has sold more than 800,000 copies. The album sold between 650,000 and 765,000 copies within its first week of release. And while the controversy continues to fuel his already successful bank account, 2 Live Crew, says his success is based on "selling music that has soul."

In fact, all the controversy appears to be making him rich. He drives a Jaguar, owns a house and a 10-bedroom house in Miami Beach, Florida. To boot, a credit, much of the money he makes is channelled back into the community. He recently bought into a construction firm that will provide affordable housing in low-income Black neighborhoods. What's more, he funds several programs that help underprivileged Miami high school students and contributes regularly to the University of Miami's College Fund. Of course, with the money, he will not lose his "all around guy" image. 2 Live Crew has his next LP to generate even more revenues, than his 1989 sales. He views the success as "an explosion that is far and wide and to help to see that all Americans have equal access to the opportunities and benefits of our society." In Short:

Their success appears to have fueled the group's drive to make their mark. 2 Live Crew's success has been attributed to its strong message and the group's ability to connect with its audience. The group's success has also earned them a growing fan base and increased exposure in the media.

Foster Serves On Oregon Banking Board

American's attention will be focused on minority business achievements nationwide during the eighth annual celebration of Minority Enterprise Development (MED) Week Sept. 30-Oct. 6. "Planning for this year's observance to be the most praiseworthy in MED Week's history," stated Kenneth E. Foster, director of the U.S. Commerce Department's Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA).

Since 1983, the first week in October has been designated by the Small Business Administration as MED Week to celebrate achievements of minority-owned businesses. The traditional event also recognizes the critical role minority firms play in support of the nation's economy.

The theme for MED Week '90 is "Quality Business Partnership: America's Minority Entrepreneurs." Local MED Week '90 observations will be held in each of MBDA's 27 regional offices: Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, New York, San Francisco, and Washington, D.C. All regional events begin in September prior to the national celebration in October. Events are also sponsored by state and local governments, including the cities of Miami, Los Angeles, and Washington. MED Week observances are announced at a later date.

Prior to this appointment, he held several executive positions in the Chrysler Credit Corporation, including Branch Manager and Regional Marketing Manager.

The announcement was made by the U.S. Small Business Administration.

It is the 2 Live Crew's success that has allowed him to make a mark in the banking world. 2 Live Crew's success has been attributed to its strong message and the group's ability to connect with its audience. The group's success has also earned them a growing fan base and increased exposure in the media.

Does God Permit Divorce?

EDITORIAL: Do Pastor Woods, According to Isaiah Christians 7:3-9 and Romans 7:14-18 is there a provision for divorce?

C.W. August, Los Angeles

ANSWER: My first advice to a Christian is not to allow the word divorce to become a part of your vocabulary. The people of God who are without God’s love live divorce as a viable option when there are challenges in a marriage. For a Christian that puts faith in God, there is no situation to big that God can’t turn around.

Both of the scriptures that you have submitted project that a person is to remain married to their spouse as long as they are alive. This agrees with the principle of marriage. From beginning God never intended for Adam and Eve to separate. Divorce was never in God’s plan for mankind. Jesus stated it clearly by saying, “Give you no not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, for this cause shall a man leave father and mother and shall cleave to his wife; and the two shall be one flesh. What therefore God has joined together let no man put asunder (divide).” (Matthew 19:6). Viewing the overall text of the Bible, we can observe a circumstance that provide for divorce: 1) Infidelity (Matthew 5:32), 2) When two of the spouses is not a Christian and desires to leave the marriage (1 Corinthians 7:10-15). I have observed many people come up with many reasons why they can’t make it together. For sure, with both spouses being Christians and they can’t make it together they calling God a liar! God said you can do all things through Christ who strengthens you (Philippians 4:13). If you have a question, write: Pastor Reginald Woods, Ph.D., Life Changing Ministries, P.O. Box 449, San Bernardino, CA 92402.

Howard Defeats Southern In L.A. Football Classic

Howard University beat Southern in the second annual Los Angeles Football Classic. Donald Carr, Howard's Quarterback passed for 198 yards and rushed for 57 yards and one touchdown to lead the Bison to a 26-21 victory over Southern on Sept. 2, 1990. The game was the season opener for both teams before a crowd of close to 47,000 at the L.A. Coliseum.

Carr completed 13 of 23 passes and proved to be the difference in Howard's victory.

"A lot of people underestimated me and our offense in general," Carr said, who returned twice in the game after leaving because of injuries.

Howard took an early 7-0 lead on a one-yard Southern tied the score early in the second quarter on a 22 yard pass down from Darby Harrison to Barry kimbrugh.

Southern's Harrison had a roller coaster first half despite passing two touchdowns. Our offense, Howard was able to move the ball on the ground at key points in the game. This kept Southern off balance the entire game.

Howard carries the Trophy.
