SUMMER GRADUATES TO PARTICIPATE IN NEXT YEAR'S COMMENCEMENT

This year Summer graduates will be eligible to participate in the 1975 ceremony. Heretofore, seniors who were within 10 units of earning their degrees and who planned to complete requirements during the summer were allowed to participate in June Commencement exercises.

This marks the first time that seniors who plan on attending summer session to fulfill requirements for their degrees by August will not participate in the preceding June ceremony.

Summer, 1974 graduates will participate in the June, 1975 exercises. Growing numbers in the graduating classes have necessitated this change in policy.

O.A.S.D.I. EARNINGS LIMITATION INCREASED

As of January 1, 1974, the O.A.S.D.I. (Social Security) earnings limitation was increased from $10,800 to $13,200. This means that Social Security will be deducted from the first $13,200 of employee earnings at the rate of 5.85%.

STATE SUES FOR BACK PAY OF EMPLOYEES

A suit by the California Attorney General's office would open the way for average 4.5% salary increases for over 7,700 employees of the California State University and Colleges. The suit, filed in U.S. District Court in Sacramento at the request of the CSUC and certain other state agencies, challenges "constitutional infirmities" of the federal government's 1970 Stabilization Act and regulations by the Cost of Living Council.

Although the Council last year approved full release of State legislative appropriations for faculty salary increases, it authorized

FUN AND GAMES IN "WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF?"

An evening of fun and games at George and Martha's is offered by the Players of the Pear Garden in their production of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?", opening Thursday night, February 21 in the Little Theatre. The famous play is set in the home of a history professor in an Eastern college during an evening when he and his wife entertain another couple in a battle of wits fought with cruel sarcasm.

Tickets are on sale for all performances in FA-102; $1 for on-campus patrons and $2 for general admission. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

Renaissance month

LECTURE AND BANQUET

On Thursday, Feb. 21 at 4 p.m. a lecture on Renaissance music, "Frottole to Madrigal: The Best Fruit from the Basket," will be given by Arthur Moorefield, Chairman, Music Dept. "Frottole," which means basket of fruit, is a generic name of secular music of the 15th and 16th centuries referring to various kinds of poems set to music, explains Dr. Moorefield.

The Lecturer will also discuss the epic poems "Orlando Furioso," the story of Roland and "La Gerusalemme Liberata."

A Festival on Sunday evening Feb. 24 will climax the Month of Renaissance at CSCSB.

Decor, menu, music and dance will contribute to the illusion that guests have entered the era of Renaissance and are included on the royal guest list at the banquet.

King James I, the host, will head the table, after a heralded entry, and will be accorded the first toast. The Hall, (the Commons) will be abloom with banners and the tables decorated befitting the period. The entire event is under the direction of Loren Filbeck, Asst. Prof., Music. The Chamber Singers, costumed Renaissance style, will sing and dance, with instrumental music by the Chamber Consort. Between selections, the entertainers will serve the company.

The music has been carefully selected to match the menu of roast prime ribs of Beefe Falstaff, Potatoes Stratford, Greens and Cauliflower in Ariel Sauce, the Cooke's Favorite Breade and His Majestie's Creme Caramel.

Following the banquet, there will be a "Musickal Banquet of Sundrie Ditties and Dances, even from Far Landes."

Reservations for the event, at $6.50 per person, should be made through the Music Dept.
