MARCH FONG EU
To Speak On Campus

As the highest-ranking government official ever to speak at CSCSB, March Fong Eu, the Secretary of State for the state of California, will be on campus Wednesday, April 15, from noon until 1:00 in the Recital Hall of the Creative Arts Building.

Eu will speak on the impact she has had on the state government both as the Secretary of State as well as her tenure as a member of the Assembly. It was through her seat in the legislature that she gained statewide recognition for her fight against pay toilets in public buildings.

Eu’s speech, sponsored by the A.S. and the Political Science Council, is open to the public. Eu plans to limit her speech to the early portion of the hour so that she may respond to questions from the audience.

Annual Open House Festivities Planned For Cal State Campus

by Terry Seal

The Cal State Open House, scheduled for Sunday, April 16th, is a day-long celebration that is expected to become an annual event. A continuation from last year’s 35th anniversary celebration, it is due to feature club booths, sports events, art displays, departmental demonstrations, balloons and clowns. It is being advertised as a chance to come together as well.

"After 15 years we would like to acquaint the community with our services," says Jeanne Hogenson, Director of Activities. "We would like to reach out to the community, invite them to the campus. We feel that this is an excellent chance for the staff, the students, and the faculty to get together as well."

The day is set to begin with a 5K and a 10K walk beginning at 8:30 a.m., with registration for the races running from 7:30 a.m. to 8:15 a.m. Everything else starts at 11:00 with departmental displays opening at 1:00 p.m. Club booths will sell drinks and refreshments. Highlights of the day will feature a children’s art fair, a soccer game featuring the Cal State soccer club versus Norton Air Force Base, a softball game featuring last year’s team against KCRC, and a Chili bakeoff open to the faculty, staff, and students. The art gallery will feature a wooden art show, principally displayed by faculty member Leo Doyle. There will be a book sale, a barbecue, an alumni luncheon, and balloons and clowns to set the atmosphere.

Says Hogenson, "I think it will be a really exciting day. Last year was colorful and fun. People were happy and relaxed. It should be an enjoyable day all around."

Invitations will be mailed out to every Cal State student, with a limited supply of invitations left over in the Activity office for those who want to invite their family and friends. There is currently an opening for tour guides. Students who want to apply are advised by Hogenson to call the Activity office, extension 7407.

A.S. Elections Set For April 22 & 23

Elections for the Associated Students officers and representatives for the 1981-82 school year will be held April 22 and 23, according to Elections Chair Cheryl Chamberlain.

Students interested in running for office may pick up and return their petitions at the Student Union desk up until April 10.

During 1980-81, the A.S. Board of Directors and executive officers administered a budget set at $72,811. A.S. budget covers administration of the A.S. offices, participation in the California State Students Association, (a lobbying group with the Legislature and Chancellor’s Office), campus activities (movies, dances, concerts, and lectures), and helps support special areas such as Black History Week, Cinco de Mayo, committees for clubs, intramural sports activities, The PawPrint, Inland Empire Library Cooperative, Evening Services Office, Health Fair, Child Care Center, ESCAPE events and Services Committee.

A candidates meeting is set for April 13 at 3:00 p.m. in the Senate Chamber, Student Union building. The official campaigning will begin on April 14. Chamberlain warned that all candidates or their representative must be present at the April 13 meeting.

Officers to be elected are the A.S. President, Vice President, Treasurer, and seven members of the Board of Directors. Under current A.S. budgeting the President receives a stipend of $500 per quarter while the VP and Treasurer receive $350.

Representing the various schools on campus are the representatives who make up the Board of Directors and vote on fiscal and policy matters throughout the year.

Students with majors in the following areas may run as BOD representative from their school:

- Natural Science, Education, Social Science, Administration, Humanities. Two other posts are available to Students who would represent the Special, Dual and Interdisciplinary majors and the undeclared majors.

The A.S. President, in addition to normal presidential duties of speaking for the students and representing them on various boards, plans to limit her speech to the early portion of the hour so that she may respond to questions from the audience.

Rodin’s “The Kiss” provided the perfect backdrop for the on campus filming of “Buddy Buddy,” a new movie starring Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon. Story and additional photos on pages 4 & 5.
Editorial

In light of the recent assassination attempt on President Reagan — which conjured up images of John F. Kennedy's tragic death, as well as memories of subsequent attacks on other notable public figures — one is inevitably led to the question: "How long will this go on?" Will we as Americans do something about the distressing state of affairs that has led to the deaths of Robert Kennedy, Martin Luther King, John Lennon, Washington doctor Michael Halberstam, and thousands of others? Will we look back and accept it as a sad and sorry accompaniment to our long-held insistence on private gun possession? The PawPrint is seeking response from students who wish to take a stand on the issue of gun control. Is it a vital necessity or a threat to our personal freedom? Student replies will be published in a future issue of the PawPrint.

Letters to the PawPrint may be submitted to the Student Union Receptionist.

Atlanta Tragedy
Dear Editor

For over 19 months the city of Atlanta, Georgia has been covered with a dark shroud of terror. Somewhere lurking is the darkness of black Atlanta's swirling urbania, a killer, a killer who has cruelly taken the lives of 22 beautiful children.

He has taken from the world 22 potential presidents, doctors, lawyers, or teachers. He has taken that which only God can give. That the 22 children were black is insignificant. Children are children, and their agony, as that of their families, was made neither more nor less painful because of their race.

As Reagan settles in, deciding how he can best rob the poor to feed the rich, and the media contrives to report the grisly body count from Atlanta, everyone seems more concerned with the retirement of Uncle Walter Cronkite and the politics of a coffee republic, than they do the deaths of 22 innocents.

It's easy to ask for the life of one who has caused so much pain, and it's easy to pass him off as a sick person who needs psychiatric care. One's reaction is to ask for the killer's death, but will his death bring back the joyful laughter and gleaming eyes of 22 so young?

Dear Editor

I'll bet that Paula Ferguson gets a lot of flack as a result of her anti-handgun letter in the PawPrint. Gun freaks will be reciting their favorite phrases all over the campus. Their favorite is: "Guns don't kill people, etc." I wish that guns didn't kill people, but unfortunately, as in the case of John Lennon, they do. Then there is, "If guns are outlawed, the only outlaws will have guns." Of course, this phrase quickly became out of style when Willie Nelson made it fashionable to be an outlaw, and our friends are now a little smug about carrying a loaded carbine in the Easy Rider rack of their pick-up truck.

Last, but by no means least, is the ever popular: "I'll bet that Paula Ferguson gets a lot of flack as a result of her anti-handgun letter in the PawPrint. Gun freaks will be reciting their favorite phrases all over the campus. Their favorite is: "Guns don't kill people," Regulations means keeping guns out of the hands of the felon, the juvenile offender, and the incompetent. Isn't that what everyone wants?"

Letters... KKK Denounced

Dear Editor,

Kudos to the Political Science Council in the denouncement of the Klu Klux Klan and its barbaric activities. Its media-staged stoppage of its de facto promotion of the Klan with incessant coverage of its activities in their uneven and often senseless drive for sensationalism.

While the Klan may oppose Communism in our country, there are other groups that can do much a more effective job of opposing. Communism through much more civilized means. Most importantly, they are not sworn to the spread of destructive white-supremacist racism. The Klan along with the Nazis are the most racist groups in America, dedicated to achieving their ends only through violent bloodshed. These two organizations, along with the Communist Party, are the greatest philosophical threats to the country, and cannot and must not be tolerated. Communism and racism have got to go.

Brett Wyatt, founder and president of the inordinantly publicized Peace Reaction Club, in an effort to halt unchecked hazing on college and university campuses, Assemblyman Jim Cramer (D-Upland) has introduced AB 1295, which would increase the penalties to a high misdemeanor for hazing that results in serious injury or death. This bill would also require that all student organizations operating on a college or university campus incorporate into their bylaws the prescribed rules and regulations prohibiting hazing.

Hazing is defined in the Education Code as an action which causes "bodily damage or physical harm," or that "injures, degrades, or disregards any person attending an educational institution."

This bill would increase the penalty to a high misdemeanor for hazing that results in serious injury or death. This bill would also require that all student organizations operating on a college or university campus incorporate into their bylaws the prescribed rules and regulations prohibiting hazing.

Christian Lecturer To Speak

Ann Kiemel, a nationally known author and lecturer, will speak in the SUMP Thursday, April 9 at 7:00 p.m.

Kiemel's seven books, including "Love the Word "Impossible," winner of the Campus Life award for Best Book, Personal Growth (1976-77), are popular literature in the Christian field.

The speech is being sponsored by various Christian clubs on campus, and is scheduled to precede "Decision '81," a week-long series of events promoting the gospel at Cal State April 13-16.

with the campus administration, guiding policy, and making appointments, usually serves as representative to the governing board of CSSA, which recently launched an attack on tuition plans for the CSUC, and fought for students to have access to SAT and other testing program questions.

The Vice President serves as Chair of the Board of Directors and oversees several other A.S. functions: the A.S. office, check cashing privilege at the Bookstore, and serves on the Student Union Board and the Foundation for CASCBA Board.

The Treasurer is responsible for the fiscal soundness of the A.S. operations and must spend several hours each week checking on the fiscal operations of the various A.S. programs, approving bills for payment, bookkeeping and working with the CASCBA Accounting Office. The Treasurer must also plan for use of A.S. money not currently needed for programs.
