The U.S. Has Higher Rate of Imprisonment of Blacks Than South Africa

The study, "Americans Behind Bars: A Comparison of International Rates of Opportunity and Crime, 1990," organized by the U.S. government, reveals that of every 100,000 people, the United States imprisons 476 people, whereas South Africa imprisons 333 people. A doubling of the U.S. prison and jail populations in the past decade has brought the country into the leading position. The report contends that U.S. criminal justice policies have unnecessarily contributed to the world's second-imprisonment rates.

The Sentencing Project report calls for Congress to establish a national commission on crime and punishment programs, with special efforts focused on black males.

Riverside, California — Free health screening will be available to members of the San Bernardino and Riverside communities when the Anheuser-Busch Community Health Mobile visits here during Black History Month in February.

The multi-purpose health screening vehicle will offer sickle cell, anemia, diabetes, and a variety of health tests from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on February 2 at Encanto Park, San Bernardino and on February 15 at Riverside Community College (Football Field) — Staffing the tests will be representatives of the Inland Empire Black Nurses Association, Sickle Cell Organization of the Inland Counties, and California Paramedical and Technical College.

Sponsored by Anheuser-Busch, Inc. and its flagship brand, Budweiser beer, the Health Mobile was introduced in 1983 as a public service geared primarily for the black community.

"Adequate health care continues to be one of the most important issues facing members of the minority community," said Henry H. Brown, vice president of marketing development for Anheuser-Busch. "The Health Mobile provides a valuable service by raising health awareness and providing services that might not otherwise be available to many families." The unit travels across the country, visiting an average of 50 cities per year and providing free screenings to over 10,000 people annually. Based on the screenings, about 5,000 people have been referred to doctors for medical attention. The visit of the Health Mobile to San Bernardino and Riverside is sponsored by the Riverside Wholesale Operation, the local Anheuser-Busch beer distributor.

MACHO MEN

Dear Dr. Levier: My significant other thinks she is too manly when a man gives extra attention to the care of his skin. What advice can you give?

Dear C.L.: The man of the 90's should be just as concerned about his appearance as his female counterpart. Cosmetics are the only thing a man can buy to hide the effects of aging, and the best way to prevent future problems is to prevent them from occurring in the first place.

If your skin is dry, you may need a moisturizer. Use moisture lotions on the body, especially on hands, feet, buttocks, ankles and elbows. Women find themselves very unappealing.

If you have problem skin, don't feel intimidated by image seeking advice from your skin care specialist or cosmetic consultant.

Even if you work with your hands, don't neglect getting manicures, pedicures, facials and body massages to keep your skin glowing and healthy.

Because shaving products often dry out the skin, use after shaving creams to soothe and condition the skin.

Take time to trim unattractive hair protruding from your nose.

Use the crowning touch here in one of the many new fragrances for men.

Remember the most expensive and enchanting fragrance is the skin care potion won't take the place of a healthy body, and overall personal hygiene. If you feel that you have a skin problem, consult a dermatologist.

Evans Bible and Book Store is flourishing and bringing a spiritual uplift and knowledge to the San Bernardino area.

Evans said in a recent telephone interview that she has been blessed with all kinds of bibles for every religious sect. There is a new audio Bible that is being released today. "We can't keep them in stock," Evans said.

"Business has really picked up," Evans said. "I even have people who come in and say, 'I've been in the store for four years, but today is the first time I've bought a book.'"

Evans added that her Bible store, which she opened 10 years ago, has seen a significant increase in business due to the influx of new customers.

"I've been able to stay in business because of the support of the community," Evans said. "We have a lot of repeat customers who come in every week to pick up their bibles and supplies."
Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church Expands and Moves To Highland

Pastor CO John Haywood, Sr. and all of the members at Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church is proud to announce God’s plan for expansion and greater service of the church.

We are establishing our church in the city of Highland, California. Our Pastor, Reverend Clifford John Haywood Senior is also a minister of Highland, Mayor Commissioned By The Lord Jesus Christ, and Directed By The Holy Spirit To Move The Church To Highland. Being an observant, contemplative, and visionary man of God, He has noticed the small number of Black Ethnic Americans as the population of Highland and surrounding area communities.

What a glorious challenge! This wonderful opportunity for pastoral expansion and greater service plus the Lord has secured for us. The Lord is calling for fifty Strong Christian Individuals. To Serve As Lay Deacons for The Church.

Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church will then be reorganized to accommodate the expansion and greater service plus the Lord has secured for us. The Lord is calling for fifty Strong Christian Individuals. To Serve As Lay Deacons for The Church.

Mr. Shirley Mixon, chairperson of building funds along with her “Coca-Cola”, and “dirty magazines” were wrong. Also, there are no scriptures in the Bible to tell you to do your own thing. We also don’t speak. However, there are certain books that give us our living just as the scriptures that give us a variety of solutions. Too often the world speaks of being poor and not liking the truth. The Bible does not directly deal with the issue of “dirty magazines”, but who could this glorify God? 1 Corinthians 10:23, “Whaterver you do, do it all for the glory of God.” 1 John 2:15-21 gives a “list of works of the flesh” and what you do in your own life can cause you to be judged by your own standards or the realms of the invisible, formation and uncles who write the new “fashion industry”. Forgive King David who sinned with Bathsheba in the house of Solomon. He was wrong, “but he humbled himself in his heart” (Matthew 5:32).

Don’t attempt to get your husband to change by your own will, but to change in your own spirit. And this website, or the state of your birth, or the state of your property which will be a State Rally Building Church. The New Joy was an event in the city of Highland.
