JUNE 4 ELECTION DAY TO BE USED FOR JULY 5 HOLIDAY

Primary Election Day, June 4, is a regular State holiday. It will not be observed by the College on that day, however.

Instead it has been established by the Academic Calendar as an in-lieu-of day to be taken as a holiday on July 5, making a four-day holiday over the Fourth of July weekend.

Science at CSCSB, effective September 1, 1974, President John M. Pfau announced.

Dr. Wright's experience in the teaching field began in 1963 at Cal State U, Fresno and includes assignments at Central University of Ecuador; University of Pittsburgh; University of Cuyo, Mendoza, Argentina, where he was a Senior Fulbright-Hays Lecturer. He returned to Fresno State U in 1972 as Professor of Political Science.

As an administrator Dr. Wright served as director for numerous projects of the HEW, Latin American Studies Program at Fresno U, University of Pittsburgh Summer Institute in Guatemala, several programs at Central University of Ecuador and Peace Corps Training Project at Montana State U.

The author of a number of books, the latest, Latin American Political Development, to be published later this year, on Latin American politics, education and administration, Dr. Wright has also written many professional papers in the same field.

Dr. Wright received both his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Montana State U and his Ph.D. in Political Science from Johns Hopkins University. He succeeds Ward McAfee, Dean of the School of Social Sciences for the past three years, who will return to full-time teaching next fall.

SECOND EXTERNAL DEGREE PROGRAM NOW IN BARSTOW

The College's second external degree program in education has been approved by Chancellor Glen S. Dumke. CSCSB is now able to offer an M.A. in elementary education to teachers in the Barstow-Victorville area from summer through the Fall Quarter of 1975. In Barstow 46 teachers are presently registered for the first class.

With four participants from the College's Coachella Valley external degree program, which began in the Summer of 1973, eligible to receive M.A. degrees in Education at the June 15 commencement, the external degree projects are already bearing fruit. Several teachers will finish course work this summer.

Chancellor Dumke congratulated the College upon the work being done in "bringing educational opportunities to people in the remote areas of your service region."
