For the Use of the Hall

PLAY OPENS
NOVEMBER 13

Playwright Oliver Hailey is working with the CSCSB student cast now in the last week of rehearsal of his comedy, "For the Use of the Hall," opening in the Little Theatre Thursday, November 13 at 8:15 p.m.

The writer has held conferences with director Amanda Sue Rudisill and student actors and will be on campus for final rehearsals and opening night.

Described by the director as "a very funny play with a very grim core of reality," the underlying theme of the comedy is to enjoy life the way it is and be grateful that you had "the use of the hall."

Following the Thursday opening, performances continue Friday and Saturday, November 14 and 15; and Tuesday through Saturday, November 18 through 22.

Tickets may be obtained through the Drama Department. Call Ext. 7452.

OLIVER HAILEY DISCUSSES -PLAY

The unique opportunity to hear a playwright tell how he developed his play - partly out of his own experience - and relate some of the processes of playwriting, the development of ideas and how they can be translated into stage techniques, will be offered next Monday.

Oliver Hailey, author of "For the Use of the Hall," Fall Quarter drama production, will discuss his comedy in a public lecture scheduled for Monday, November 10 at 2 p.m. in LC-500.

The public and the College Community are invited to attend the lecture free of charge.

VETERANS' DAY

VETERANS' DAY TO BE DECEMBER 26 HOLIDAY

Officially a State holiday, Veterans' Day, Tuesday, November 11, will be observed by the College on December 26, to provide a longer Christmas holiday. All College offices will be open and classes will be held as usual November 11.

A four-day Thanksgiving holiday will be observed by the College beginning Thursday, November 27, and continuing through Sunday, November 30.
