Davis Named Valley View Teacher of The Year

Bertha E. Davis, an English instructor at Valley View High School, has been named Teacher of the Year at Valley View. Davis, who has taught for 29 years at the school, was selected for the award by the Valley View staff and students.

Davis, who is also the co-chair of the Valley View High School Civic Club, says she is honored to receive the award. "It's a great honor to be recognized for my work at Valley View," she says. "I've always enjoyed teaching and helping my students achieve their goals."
LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Since the beginning of the Peak Performance Project in 1973, the Black Voice News has been very supportive of each article written.

There was a series of articles submitted on July 11, 1991 the staff of the Peak Performance Project targeting African American men on the San Bernardino Valley College campus was printed. They included on August 8, 1991 the proof that the staff of the Peak Performance Project on campus was printed. The following is an article on the data found in the Risk Analysis Survey and the Focus Group sessions which were held on the San Bernardino Valley College campus.

BY GEORGE MAREE

M y name is George Maree and I am a political prisoner who has been incarcerated in a San Bernardino County Prison Camp at Berton, California for over 15 years. It has been 15 years since I have been instilled with a false culture, rigged by his heritage, rejected by his human spirit, and estranged through the judicial system. Each day, in the winters of the cities throughout America, the sun, moon and stars show the seeds of spineless pain hiding behind the protection of weapons and armed with weapons of destruction to rain havoc on a dark race of people. The African American neighborhoods are under the siege of secret police operations that are more than the East Coast secret police or the KGB. Wake up the mass of people and media. Wake up members of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of government. Wake up people of America of their true self in spirit and in truth. Bring your head in action and ask forgiveness for the terrible sins we have committed against this oppressed people, specifically the African American Male.

We must stop and take a serious look at the men who are in authority to make and enforce the law. Many of them have never been prosecuted because they are pursuant under the pressure of the press and media and report the truth about what's happening in America today. The media and press are reporting the facts are unfair, discriminatory, and racist. The behind the protection of law and periodic laws are very based and hegemonic to the needs of the African American community.

The impending clock of disaster is biological, social, and economic. All African American community.

The impending clock of disaster for ticking off of all. Specifically for people of color. All Americans should be concerned about this very real problem.

Please, let it be known that a man will always speak what he knows. The evil men who are in authority to make and enforce the law are nothing but souls of oppression and injustice to please their masters, with a harvest of imminent destruction. Good will always triumph over evil. My message to all the people are words that are good and righteous. I am a meek and humble person and there is a power within me that is good. Good of the great means of our heart, good things will come forth for all of us who are oppressed. The time is here for all of us to set aside our differences and come together in society as one, approaching our problems with a new spirit and love and respect.

Things ain't what they used to be. Yes, now in the time for all of us to pull together. The oppressed people have been standing in darkness for over one hundred years. But not through the teachings of the BCW, but specifically in a new light returning normalcy to the African American community. Yes, now in the time for all of us to pull together. Questions and Answers

What about the Redwood Woods?

Reginald Woods

Question: Dear Dr. Woods, I was reading the Scripture concerning personal appearance and presentment and came across Matthew 5:30. Can you explain what Jesus is saying in this particular verse?

J.M. Paton, CA

Answer: In that passage the subject is John the Baptist. John was explaining to the people the role and ministry of John the Baptist, the forerunner of the Messiah. Because John was so much in the spiritual realm, the comment he thought that he was probably in religious guise. Extravagant dress with clothes of prestige. John is described as a man whose clothes were marked of cloth and he ate and drinks with Matthew 5:30. Matthew 1:1 is not condoning the wearing of nice clothing, rather describes the simplicity of ministry that centered on Jesus and not himself. What does the Bible say about clothes? Matthew 6:25-31 says not to put material things, such as a priority over His eternal spiritual relationship with God and what you might have. Do not be overly concerned with the outward appearance at the neglect of inward godliness.

Do You Need Something?: You can have a great time in life if you will if you just help enough of the people get what they want. Author Unknown.

We Are All Related: "We have respect all life, not just our own," Oren Lyons, and Otsifaa, Chairperson. The earth does not belong to us: we belong to the earth, and we have a sacred duty to protect it and in return flourish for the gifts of life. Peace comes within the souls of men when they realize their comes with the universe." (Black Elk) portion portion of The Press Enterprise.

Things About It: If we as a people are to achieve self-mastery, high self-esteem, and live this a better world, we must make a rigorous, conscious, deliberate, determined effort to be the best person we can be. We must focus our energy and teachings on developing minds and attitudes that love and respect all people regardless of race, creed or color. In our homes and schools we must teach our youth to maintain positive thoughts. Thoughts that view the world as a wonderful place to live as we attempt to instill these lessons among the San Bernardino Spirit and Sister world. As we work together to maintain this ideology, it is possible that we will raise the ideals of our fellowman. All of us must develop the type of objectivity, initiative, character, awareness and integrity that will encourage everyone to be the best person they can be.

Hammer Time—it's not: Home run king 'Hammering' Hank Aaron is not sitting by his desk waiting for his telephone calling for someone to offer him the vacant job of Major League Baseball (MLB) commissioner.

"I'm not interested in it anymore. I don't know what would interest me. I just love the game, but I think baseball didn't take me, Hank Aaron, written off yet.

When Aaron was interested in the management of Bowie Kuhn in 1984, the baseball owners instead chose 1984 Los Angeles Olympic gold medalist Peter Ueberroth. It must be noted; Ueberroth had no prior involvement with Major League Baseball as a player or from any other perspective.

"I've got different challenges now and what I'm doing now, I don't see any reason to jump in," Aaron said.

The Hammer has an office at the CNN Center in Atlanta. He's vice president of business development for Turner Broadcasting System/ Airport Channel.

San Bernardino has no Spirit: Despite a profitable 5 year marriage, that included extensive California League attendance records (twice having totals of over 180,000 fans), the San Bernardino Spirit baseball team has formally announced the franchise move to Rancho Cucamonga.

The Rancho Cucamonga Quakes (new team name) will start playing in new, 4,200 seat ballpark located off Interstate 15 and South of Fontana.

So what can we say to the Joyce of San Bernardino?: That the way the cake crumbles is — this is capitalism.

We Must: 1. Elect a pro- education President. 2. Elect a vote-void legislation. 3. Elect friends of Education to the State Senate and House of Representative. 4. Pass Prop 150, the 900 million school bond issue; defeat Prop. 165, Governor Pete Wilson's state budget-grab; enact Prop. 167, the tax reform initiative. Why not cast a vote for Charley Ward? He is running for the Moreno Valley City Council. Get out and vote Novem ber 3rd and lift America.

The Laws Of Happyness: 1. Law of Integrity-Happiness is a by-product of choosing to live your life consistent with your highest values and aspirations. 2. Law of emotion. We are 100% emocional in everything we think, feel and decide. Since we control our thoughts, we all can use emotion for our minds only. 3. Law of happiness. The quality of your life is determined by how you feel at any given moment. Happiness stops and starts from events, but how you interpret those events. 4. Law of abstinence. Your mind is like a garden-use only cultivate flowers, weeds will flourish. To keep your mind positive, substitute positive thoughts for negative thoughts. 5. Law of expression. Whatever you express with conviction triggers thoughts, ideas and actions consistent with those words. Therefore pick your words care- fully. 6. Law of reversibility. Feeling usually determines action. But action can deter- mine feelings. You can make yourself cheerful by smiling, laughing and singing out loud.

Law of visualization. Imagination tend to awake the emotions that go with them. Picture your- self when you are happy and at peace and the feelings will follow. 8. Law of practice. If you practice feeling cheerful and optimistic, you will form the habit of being cheerful and optimis- tic.

Pratis Takes Singing Seriously

Pratis Boyd is the recipient of this year’s "People’s Choice Award" for Youth Vocalism. Pratis takes his singing ability very seriously and is extremely devoted to developing his talents.

The 1992 MVCDC Scholarship winners are Ishmal Banley, Kimberly Cervantes, and Charles Payne, Jr. Each scholarship awarded was in the amount of two hundred scholarships to members of the Community Service School District (VVUSD) who reside in the Community Service School District (VVUSD) and fifty dollars ($250) for the 1992-93 school year to the children of Perris Valley toys and candy.

In Almost Every City in Los Angeles unrest long before the nationwide civil disturbances of 1965 and 1992. Los Angeles gang "Crips" is now travelling our story as valid enough to put together a Crips', "Crips" the predicted the recent Los Angeles unrest long before the city erupted into flames. The multi-talented writer and lecturer, whose book has just been adapted into the newer Warner Brothers film "Crip", is the author of "Crips: A Story of a Father Trying to Keep His Son safe from the Dangers of Neighborhood Drug Lords".

For the past 30 years, Pratis Boyd, author of "Crips", has been helping Santa give the children of Perris Valley toys and candy. This year, Santa's helpers again make your contributions payable to The St. John Baptist Church, says of the Youth Choir. At Poly High School he coordinates the Student Ministry and serves as a member of the Student Ministry of Southern Hills Community Church. At his school he is a member of the Student Government Club, which meets to discuss politics; also they work as volunteers on the annual Community Center in Riverside. The Saturday Academy is a success asset to the community.

Also a poet and songwriter, Pratis says that art is the medium that will bring about much-needed change in the gang problem.

"Now that some people see our story as valid enough to put together a movie, we are going to see a social change -- just as West Side Story changed New York gangs in the 1950s," says Baker. "If we can change the youth's life, and the resulting deaths each year, and the success of the kids, it's all because of the kids of gang-bangers," says Baker, "It's all about vitamins (affection and love)."

An experienced lecturer and expert on the "Crips," the largest street gang in the United States, Baker has lectured at campuses including University of California, Los Angeles, Pasadena City College, and California State University of Southern California and California State University Los Angeles and California State University Los Angeles.

Superintendent Dr. Conway James, Pastor of St. John Baptist Church, says of Pratis, "We are proud of him, for the accomplishments he has made for the Lord. The St. John Family, praises the Lord for Pratis, for his faithfulness to service, he has been truly faithful and he loves to sing.

However, Pratis is not only dedicated to his singing aspirations, he is tremendously supportive of his community. At his church, he has completed a course entitled "How to Train Teachers to Teach", and hopes to teach a Bible Study of Southern Hills Community School.

For teaching him responsibility, Baker, an English Instructor at Georgia Washington Preparatory High School in Los Angeles authored "Crip", a story of a father trying to keep his son safe from the dangers of neighborhood drug lords, after more than 500 interviews with gang members.

A perennial recipient of Saturday Academy’s generous support of our efforts.

Subscribe to Saturday Academy. A scholarship is available to a scholar and their family to attend the Saturday Academy. The latest grant received to assist Saturday Academy from the California Council for the Humanities and IBM for the generous support of our efforts.

Bakeer also states that eradicating the problem will take financial assistance. "If we want to get rid of gangs, we have to get serious about restructuring our society. In most cases, it's a matter of appropriately allocating our resources."

Written over a four year period, "Crips" has been used as a reference material in the literature of departments of University of California, Los Angeles; California State University, Northridge, Southwestern College and various high schools throughout the city of Los Angeles.

Mercury Villager Arrives At Orange Show

SAN BERNARDINO

The all-new, aerodynamic, front-wheel-drive 1993 Mercury Villager—the first minivan ever for Lincoln-Mercury—has arrived at Orange Show Lincoln Mercury.

"The Villager combines the styling appointments, prestige, ride and quality of a Mercury with the versatility of a minivan," said Mark Arena, President. "It is the only minivan designed to meet all federal motor vehicle standards and has offered standard anti-lock brakes.

"We think the ride and handling of the Villager are more comfortable and car-like than any minivan on the road today," Arena added. "In speed automatic overdrive transaxle. This powertrain, along with the optional towing package, gives Villager a towing capacity of 3,500 lbs.

"The Villager comes with a 3.0-liter V6 engine with an overhead camshaft and sequential electronic fuel injection. The engine, which delivers 151 horsepower and 174 ft.-lbs. of torque, is coupled with an electronically controlled four-speed automatic transmission.

On the inside, Villager contains a high level of standard equipment including an electronic four-channel Anti-lock Brake System, power rack-and-pinion steering, power brakes, a brake-shift interlock system, tinted glass, interval windshield wipers, a rear-window wiper/washer, remote fuel door release, child proof lock on the side sliding door, cloth reclining bucket seats with in-board armrests, an extensive use of corrosion-resistant steel. It is powered by a 3.0-liter V6 engine with an overhead camshaft and sequential electronic fuel injection. The engine, which delivers 151 horsepower and 174 ft.-lbs. of torque, is coupled with an electronically controlled four-speed automatic transmission.

The LS version of Villager also features as standard equipment a rear window defroster, automatic speed control, power windows, power door locks with side door "memory," front air conditioning, dual power exterior rear view mirrors, tilt steering wheel, a special lighting package, two-tone paint, privacy glass and power remote quarter windows.

Villager options include a configuration of four captain's chairs, leather seating, rear air conditioner and radio controls, automatic headlamps, an electronic instrument cluster, a compact disc player, a sunroof and keyless entry. A handling package with a rear stabilizer bar and larger tires also is optional on the LS model.

Orange Show Lincoln Mercury is located at 1600 Camino Real, San Bernardino, CA 92408.
