Malcolm X Banned From Canyon Crest

The Mayor and City Council voted 7-0 to accept a proposal for the opening of Lee's Malcolm X show, which will be shown at Riverside's elite Canyon Crest Theatre. An attendant at the theatre told the governor it was because it was a Black film and associated with violence.

T he Riverside County Private Industry Council (PIC) and Riverside Community College (RCC) held a joint open forum on the Wider Opportunities Training Center (WOTC) to the Inland Empire. The WOTC is a joint venture between PIC, Kathy Former, Acting Director and RCC, Dr. Brenda Davis, Dean of Grants and Community Education and the IBM Corporation. The center, which is a residential facility, will provide students with places to prepare for their future in the workplace. The special project proposal provides students with over 100 hours of hands-on training with the latest IBM and IBM-compatible computers. Students are required to be in the program for one week to three weeks, and they also receive extensive instruction in life skills and employability skills training, thus increasing their chances of success in the workplace.

Barnum, who rode with Lee, said: "The movie is an epic, up there with Gandhi. This is the most challenging role for me."

Mrs. Shazazz was pleased with the premiere, she remarked, it is something Malcolm would be proud of.

Mr. Bausse and Spike Lee attended the premier. The movie, which opened on Tuesday evening in Los Angeles, was a Black film and associated with violence.

Morocco is in the midst of a high-income community in the region, which is being populated. Canyon Crest is instead being on the non-commercial Genevieve's decoration of Snoopy's, which is expected.

Continuing our editorial position on equity as printed in last week’s issue, we want to focus on the S.B. County Superintendent of Schools.

The County Board of Education has a wonderful opportunity to send a minority to head up the largest county in the nation’s school system. We know there are some seeking the position who are more than qualified. If this county board, still in the clutches of racial bias and reputation, has so justly squandered it they will start by appointing one of the minorities being considered.

We are equally sure that the Sun newspaper would support such an appointment for they advocate of equal opportunity and more importantly, balance of power.

Letter To The Editor

DEAR EDITOR (BLACK VOICE NEWS)

I am writing this letter in hopes of reminding people out there in this new world that there is still a need.

I was employed by Kelly Temporary Services to work for Security Management Services, Inc., located in Riverside. I worked with them from September 1991 through September 1992. When I first arrived at the firm I was put in the process of merging with Bank of America, and I was told that because of the merger that they could only hire temporary personnel until the merger was finalized.

I really liked working for this company, and I thought that my involvement in this merger process was quite beneficial. After waiting and waiting for information on the merger and continuing as if I were the same person made permanent after the merger was finalized, we had a meeting with the “Big Man,” who informed us that everyone who was there was put in the same status.

This meeting was held approximately mid-August. After which I still waited and waited for the paperwork from headquarters to be approved. Also, my manager, who I admired, and thought he could do no wrong, went behind my back, after I had expressed the fact that I wanted to know the status of me becoming permanent, he made the statement that he was interested in my position and that it should be approved to my manager that I wanted to know what was going on because it was continually talked about with all “Temps” in the office. The temps in the office were found out but would not address me with virtually no “experience,” and who ALWAYS had to come to me to talk about their families because they did not have someone to talk to, even if the manager knew that the worker I was dealing with was the same person.

So, please remember you are your only best friend. Please, don’t that the third Monday in September because it was continually talked about with all “Temps” in the office.

Country Courts Fair Housing Law

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit recently ruled against the NAACP in two cases where the organization had brought against an insurance company in Madison, Wisconsin.

The lower court had said earlier that the property and liability insurance company's product was not covered by the Fair Housing Act. It must now be reviewed by higher courts.

The case is an extremely important decision since it plainly states that the insurance firms to deny African-American insurance on their homes, or to charge them higher premiums, or to practice any type of discrimination."

The Black Arts Association also needs to be persistent and willing to work hard.

Concerning finances Bertha suggests, "Keep records of everything you take in and pay out. By keeping accurate records, you will know where your money is going, and if you are going in the wrong direction you will see it."

even as simple as eating food, or starting a speech. It shows the universality and the oneness of Allah who emanates from shared by all Muslims around the world, and the vast majority of Muslims agree on this.

God "Islam" = "submission to the will of God.

the Prophet Muhammad and is believed to be the earthly leader of Muslims. The Prophet Muhammad is revered as the San Bernardino — Pans for the back students shared governernor's staff are two keys to success for Dr. John C. Molina, San Bernardino Valley College's new student services manager.

Molina is serving through the academic year in a position opened by the resignation in June of Dr. Wendy Beserra. A search is on for someone to fill the spot on a permanent basis.

Service has always been paramount for Molina. His career has taken him from the dusty classrooms of Cosahella Valley into the halls of government in Washington and Sacramento as well as to the State Bar as a practicing attorney.

Even though he had taught at nearly every grade level, including university, Molina, at the age of 40 he had fulfilled a childhood. He became a criminal law and worker's compensation attorney. However, he soon found he missed teaching, and he gave up the courtroom for the classroom.

At Cal State San Bernardino, his one-year mission is as a team builder. One time he will be in time enough to people working together," he said.

I think we should work as a team and coordinate all student activities together. I sense now that we have individual programs working in isolation — with the counseling office here and the records office over there. My goal is to improve lines of communication," said Molina, who earned his Ph.D. in leadership and human behavior.

Cuts to the college budget will mean new ways of finding money to operate his department, which includes admissions and records, financial aid, the Adult Re-Entry Center, health services, disabled students services, manipulation, counseling, the Transfer Center, student activities officer and EQPS (Educated Opportunity Program and Services).

We have weekly meetings for all the managers, and I ask for each one to share a report. Then I share reports at the president's meeting, so everyone is informed," he said. "My Ph.D. was concentrated on organizational dynamics. It's doing what comes naturally. It's sharing information."

In his dealings with students, he believes in generous amounts of positive strokes. "Teachers are the key to keeping students in school. They should be panned on the back. Let them know: 'You'll make it. It's hard. But life is hard. Your reward will come later. The worst thing you can do is discourage a student,' he said.

As a teacher, he said, "I always assumed (the students) are all capable of success. The key is caring for those students. Students learn more from teachers who care — whether they are in 4th grade or in college."

The New Deal prevails: Riddick "Neal Deal" Bowe rugged any doubts about his determination and showed everyone there was a new, stronger and determined boxer.

The Cleveland Browns drafted Davis No. 1 and envisioned having the two greatest college running backs in the same backfield. He was to join the legendary Jim Brown in the Cleveland offensive attack.

Davis signed the largest rookie contract in National football history—a three-year, $650,000, no-cut contract with a whooping $11,000 signing bonus. He never got the chance to earn the money on the field, losing $15,000 signing his rookie contract.

In this fight there were no losers. Bowe showed he can go the distance and not weaken in the 10th & 11th rounds. Bowe showed he can go the distance and not weaken in the 10th & 11th rounds.
When Moreno Valley Mall offers "You're in for Something Big," it isn't just the numerous variety of department stores or the restaurants and retail shops located in the 1.35 million-square-foot structure they're asking about. It isn't only the mall's Food Court which can seat 650 diners, or the 650-plus parking spaces surrounding the mall and the five conveniently located levels. There is also the upper level and three on the lower level. In fact, one of the biggest reasons to visit the Moreno Valley Mall at TownGate can't be measured in tons or square feet or inches.

Instead, it is measured in the thousands of smiles and sighs of relief from Moreno Valley Mall shoppers as they discover the special services available at the Customer Service Center, and the conveniences and ease of accessibility of the mall's public toilets. "Customer convenience and service was built into the design of this bowl was a large group of happy, singing, well fed people. They also had long expression spoons tied on their arms. They went down the line in an orderly manner and everyone was happy. This was a wonderful experience."

A program I attended Sunday morning in Perris, CA was an example of what the man witnessed in heaven. Over four hundred adults and children were working together promoting peace and harmony. Gospel New Hope Missionary Baptist Church, Pastor Rev. Elbert Holmes Sr. and Set Free members, Pastor Mike Lewis combined with the Perris Police Dept., along with members of the city council produced a heaven on earth as they joined in a big brotherhood in order to be accomplished when we all work together for peace, with the Lord as our leader. The Perris Police Department plans on holding many and there were other games. We had a great feeling among people from all ethnic backgrounds joined to do this. The country a better place for our children, for our grandchildren. Many wonderful people responded for this service I could not list them all. However I met Betty G. who held yard sales in Moreno Valley and she was in search of items such as a large bowl of soup.

Some of these incidents have occurred in broad daylight, during the normal rush hour. Maybe now, there’ll be a market for second-hand Brits trucks. I hope we haven’t come to that,” he said Monday.

The AAA is compiling reports of motor vehicle. The federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms is setting up a heat line for victims of armed carjackings: 1-800-ATF-GUNS.

And the movement is spreading out to the suburbs. A New Jersey woman was killed after she was abducted from a supermarket parking lot with her 3-year-old daughter in her van. Motorists are being warned away from a Florida highway rife with bullets and burned rocks. A Minnesota motorist was hit by stray fire from hunters.

Two men forced a Maryland woman out of her BMW at an intersection as she took her daughter to preschool. She was dragged to her death after her arm got caught in a seatbelt and two reputed gang members stole $30,000 from her pocketbook.

It’s no longer kids stealing wrecks. The men drove off. Her daughter was thrown out of her BMW at an intersection as she took her daughter to preschool. She was dragged to her death after her arm got caught in a seatbelt and two reputed gang members stole $30,000 from her pocketbook.

“People are accosted at traffic lights, when they’re pumping gas, when they’re bumped and A New Jersey woman was said Rep. Charles E. Schumer, “there is reason to be fearful; there is reason to be scared.”

For a long time, people felt relatively safe in their cars. It was almost an extension of their homes, like a sanctuary,” he said. As we’ve learned with carjackings and snipers, that’s not always the case.”

Hebert stressed such incidents are rare. Arthur Karmen, a sociology professor at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, blamed a “thriving black market for stolen vehicles.”

In cold weather, people often linger in their warm cars. They and drivers waiting for parking spaces are “very vulnerable to carjackings,” Karmen said, though not every case involves theft.

Whatever they’re labeled, the numbers of such incidents are growing. A New Jersey man pleaded innocent to murder and kidnapping charges Monday in the death of Carol Short, who was abducted with her 3-year-old daughter.

The National Guard is patrolling Interstate 95 in Florida, where one person was killed and several injured in some 30 sniper and ambush shootings since February. Three motorists reported gunshots over the weekend.

On Saturday in Los Angeles, two sued gang members stole a car at knifepoint and led authorities on a 30-minute car chase, causing two minor wrecks.

On Oct. 26, a carjack victim was kidnapped, robbed, shot and thrown off a 20-story roof in New York City. He grabbed a woman out of her BMW as she took her daughter to preschool.

The film "Malcolm X" is taken from a novel, "the practice of the Prophet Muhammad."

The term "Black Muslim" first used to describe the followers of the late Elijah Muhammad, the founder of the Nation of Islam, to describe African Muslims.

Since the 1960s, the Nation of Islam, led by its followers disconnected non-teaching and teaching of Islam.

Muslims' Arab identity, is not at all races. In fact, Muslims are a minority within the Arab world. There are Christians Arabs and Jews.

Women's Rights: Many women, law have always had the right to own property, receive an education, and participate in all aspects of public life. The restrictions placed on women concerning dress, adornment, and other issues.

If a particular society opposes women, it is in the interest of the state to maintain the status quo and to prevent the acceptance of the message was his wife to the nation.

The "Five Pillars" of Islam:

1. The Declaration of Faith - A person accepts a Muslim by saying and believing the Shahada: There is no god but God and Muhammad is his messenger.

2. Prayer - A Muslim prays five times a day: at dawn, midday, afternoon, sunset and during the night. The prayer takes about 5-10 minutes and is performed on any clean surface, and the prayers are oriented in the direction of Mecca as a man.

3. Zakah - A tax on assets which is gathered by the central government.

4. Fasting- Muslims abstain from food, drink, and sexual activity from dawn to sunset during the month of Ramadan. The time fasting starts and ends vary based on the end of the month.

5. Pilgrimage - Every Muslim is to make the hajj or pilgrimage to Mecca, at least once in his or her lifetime. Most able-bodied and financially able.
