Tustin Educators Called Closet Racists

Parent and educator reaction to Rodney King speaking to a Black student group during non school hours has been condemned as closet racism by the Congress of Racial Equality.

Celes King III, State Chairman of CORE (not a relative of Rodney King) said the community protest followed a pattern of subtle and not so subtle racist actions taken by a large number of Orange County residents against African Americans, Vietnamese, Hispanics, Gays and others who did not fit the "lily white" suburban image of the county.

"I am sure these people would not have acted the same if one of several well known Orange County white collar criminals had spoken on the campus," said Celes King. "These communities remain mum when acts of terror took place against Asians and Hispanics in the County."

Celes King said the seven percent of the 1,800 students at the high school who were African American might have needed a better understanding of what it would be like to grow up in an African American ghetto.

"Why haven't these same educators and parents spoken out against the attacks on minority students by white hooligans who reside in their community," said King. "I can hardly forget the bitter dispute in recent years over funding for the human relations commission that attempted to curb the attacks against Asian, African Americans, Hispanics, Jews, and Gays in Tustin and other parts of Orange County. We have heard nothing but excuses for this sort of disgusting behaviors."

"X" Marks Big Money

BY WILLIAM REED
BUSINESS EXCHANGE

Spike Lee's "Malcolm X" movie opened in theatres November 18th, and it, and its likeness, are sure to reap big money and controversy. The film will make Spike and Warner Bros. at least $250 million and undoubtedly be one of the biggest money-makers in Hollywood history. Also, the Malcolm movie has caused a rush to cash in on the legacy of the nationalist leader that will have economic, social and religious ripples on millions of people across the country.

Betty Shabazz, widow of the activist that was slain 27 years ago, owns the rights to her late husband's name and likeness. She has authorized the Curtis Management Group of Indianapolis to offer licensees for tie-in products to her husband's legacy and to "protect the rights of the estate" by any means necessary.

Even before the movie's release, the "X" made lots of money. "X" merchandising has yielded $100 million in sales from caps, t-shirts, jackets, trading cards, posters, key chains, wrist-watches, buttons, drinking mugs, refrigerator magnets, pins and air fresheners. Even though their places of origin are labeled Hong Kong and Taiwan, "X" duffle bags, kente cloths and waist bags are all over America's inner-cities. Street vendors from New York to L.A. have been selling "X" caps for $15 to $20. Shabazz and the Curtis Group have chartered 37 licensees and may receive $3 to $5 million in royalties from X-related merchandise, but unlicensed bootleggers have walked away with the bulk of the money.

While non-Blacks, including Dr. Shabazz's management firm, have taken most of the X-related bucks, African-Americans stand to be the ones most affected by the social and religious ripples from the movie. Current Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan believes that the movie may be part of the government's work to destroy him. He has said that the strategy is to turn Black youth against the Nation through the movie. Farrakhan said, "that movie trashes Elijah Muhammad. I warned Spike that this is a very serious movie and that he would have to do it right. "I said to him, brother, listen to everyone then go in a corner and pray. Cause you are going to be the judge of history."

Contemporary use of the "X" had its beginnings in the black ghettos of Detroit in the 1930s when W.D. Farad Muhammad founded then Nation of Islam. Farad Muhammad's protegee, Elijah Muhammad, made the Black Muslims a household name in the 1960s and set an example of the type of economic self-sufficiency that today's Black leaders are still making noise about. Telling Blacks who entered that religious discipline to drop their "slave" last name and assume the letter "X" as an expression of a lack of identity with the American system, Elijah Muhammad led the group to ultimate success in the American system of capitalism. Blacks under 30 don't know the power of Elijah Muhammad, that he drew from Marcus Garvey, and that Malcolm X and Louis Farrakhan drew from him.

It remains to be screened as to whether Spike's judgement will cause him to illustrate that a major reason that Malcolm Little joined the Nation was because he believed in the reasons that they developed collective enterprises such as department stores, bakeries and restaurants. Because of his pride in the Nation, Farrakhan has reason to wonder if this money-making movie will show today's black

REV. JACKSON VISITS FREMONT HIGH

Rev. Jesse Jackson spoke to students at Fremont High School. Mr. John Haydel, the principal of Fremont High, invited Rev. Jackson to Fremont because he feels that our young people must get involved in the political process. In South Los Angeles, the focus of voter sign-up efforts by several groups aligned with the Democratic Party-registration volunteers, say they were swamped. Many people were interested in registering in the immediate aftermath of the LA uprisings, but the pace has slowed since then. Jackson's visit was part of his National Rainbow Coalition's nationwide registration drive, which aims to persuade large numbers of the young, poor, ethnic minorities and women to register and to vote. Mr. Haydel stated that it was his responsibility to expose his students to a broad based education. He stated, "This is what is meant when we speak of the scars, the marks that the underprivileged child carries through life. To be imprisoned in the ghetto is to be forgotten or deliberately cheated of one's birth right at best."

Riverside LEPAC Will Address Police Issues

In March of 1983, a study was undertaken by the (then) Community Relations Commission following a request by the City Council Public Safety Committee to address citizen concerns regarding the Riverside Police Department. As a result of this study the City Council approved the formation of a committee within the Community Relations Commission for the purpose of addressing police issues. This entity is now known as the Law Enforcement Policy Advisory Committee (LEPAC).

At this time, of concern to LEPAC and the Human Relations Commission is the lack of information on the part of the community-at-large regarding LEPAC and its mission. The consequence of this "information gap" could lead to increased alienation among those who might perceive that community input to police matters does not exist within the current city structure.

To rectify this situation LEPAC is inviting concerned citizens to attend an informational forum on either December 1 or 3. Both forums are identical in content and are provided in two different evenings to facilitate your attendance. The forum on December 1, will be held at Bobby Bonds Community Center, 2060 University, at 7:30 p.m. The forum on December 3, will be held at California Baptist College, 8432 Magnolia Avenue, at 7:30 p.m.

The forums were designed to give an historical perspective and overview of police policies reviewed by the committee. They will also cover the role and responsibilities of the committee, the community and the Riverside Police Department.

"Your attendance and input will be vital to the successful achievement of LEPAC's role and responsibility as a policy advisory committee," said Mary Figueroa, chair law enforcement policy advisory committee.

An interesting observation in any successful minority community is that the business network that exists is in the best interest of the minority group. There is nothing wrong with marketing to those outside the group, but statistics will support the concept that the return on investment is much better when the market for the product is targeted. There are success stories that have used majority community markets to target their products but, they are usually high-tech or consumable goods. Essentially it has to be a reversal of attitudes that have been reinforced through negative feedback about our either lack of service, lack of quality or price. This has allowed African-American purchasers to Political power is never exercised in a historical vacuum. Every American election from 1948 until 1988 had occurred in the context of the Cold War, and the international conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union. In selecting a leader, many American voters thought of the casualties necessary for leadership against what Reagan termed the "Evil Empire". Expertise in international affairs, some intimate knowledge of America's military arsenal, and even personal experience in the armed forces was considered nearly essential. The Cold War's domestic impact was to push the entire axis of American politics to the right. Reagan's rise to power in 1980 was the triumph of a whole history of growing economic reaction, racism, and class warfare against working people. And George Bush was a logical product of that repressive history: a decorated veteran of World War II, the son of a wealthy Republican Senator, two-term Congressman from Texas, former head of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Vice-President to Reagan. Whenever Bush's personal beliefs conflicted with his drive for power, he eagerly sacrificed his principles. In the 1980 the margin on the drug deal with longevity and growth. How many dealers are on the street 20 years later? One other thing the Small Business Administration is there but don't bet on it, bet on raising venture capital through our churches and as the idea spreads the funding sources will become apparent. The statistics are out on the lack of funding of mortgages for African-American qualified purchasers. Venture capital is bleaker, but don't give up! The U.S. Navy has a school that is called "Learn or Burn" which teaches all sailors to fight fires onboard ship since there is no escape. Sound familiar, either we learn to support our growth out of dependency or we burn.

However, Bush's most crucial electoral mistake was in underestimating Clinton's political strengths, and the capacity of the national Democratic Party to mount a serious campaign. If political clout is calculated by the number of ballots one receives, Clinton had emerged from the Democratic primaries as the strongest candidate in decades. Clinton had received a higher percentage of the national primary vote, 52 percent, than any Democrat seeking the presidency in twenty years. He won 10.5 million primary votes, more than any Democrat or Republican, in the history of presidential primary elections. Any by mid-July, nearly all of the major leaders of the Democratic Party, including Jesse Jackson, had come together to endorse his nomination. For several critical months in the spring and early summer, 1992, Bush's campaign strategists mistakenly assumed that their chief electoral rival was H. Ross Perot, not Clinton; consequently, they aimed their rhetorical fire largely against the Texas billionaire. This was a serious strategic error, and although Bush closed much of the gap between himself and Clinton during the campaign's final weeks, his mistakes in political judgement cost him the presidency. In the end, Americans desperately wanted "change." Most who voted for Clinton weren't endorsing the Democratic nominee. They were voting against George Bush.

New Drug For Cancer To Be Tested

Suramin, an experimental drug that has shown encouraging preliminary results in thwarting advanced prostate cancer, is now being tested on a wider scale at UCLA's Clark Urology Center and Bowyer Oncology Center. UCLA Medical Center is the only site on the West Coast to offer the experimental treatment.

"If Suramin proves to be effective, it could provide an important new approach to advanced prostate cancer treatment," said Dr. Arie Beldegrun Associate Professor of Surgery/Urology at the UCLA School of Medicine. He and Dr. Peter Rosen, Professor of Medicine at the UCLA School of Medicine, are conducting the study, which will include approximately 30 participants. Patients will receive the Suramin intravenously in eight weekly cycles, and be evaluated periodically with X-rays, CT scans and bone scans.

'AIDS Day' To Be Held In Riverside On December 1st

The fifth annual observance of World AIDS Day is scheduled for December 1, 1992, a day in which people around the world are encouraged to terrifying and often deadly relationship between Black men and police. This work is recommended reading you can share with the entire family.

We know that life for Black men in America continues to be a perilous ordeal. Given the frightening statistics gathered by the Children's Defense Fund: a Black male has a 1 in 24 chance of being imprisoned while in his 20's. A Black male has a 1 in 45 chance of being a cocaine abuser, a 1 in 5 chance of becoming a marijuana abuser and a 2 in 5 chance of becoming an alcohol abuser. A Black male today has a 1 in 17 chance of being a victim of a violent crime during his teen years and only a 1 in 1,465 chance of becoming an NFL player.

In the post-teen years heart disease, stroke, cancer and AIDS accounts for 2/3 of all deaths among Black men. More than any other single group Black men are the most threatened, so vulnerable to destruction that they are often labeled "endangered".

While unemployment among participate in activities that will increase awareness about HIV/AIDS and strengthen AIDS prevention activities. Being Alive (people with HIV/AIDS Action Coalition), Inland AIDS Black men is double the unemployment rate in the population as a whole, and is devastating to the ego, it serves as the impetus to the continuous erosion of the male in his primary role as the family provider. The problem is made more complex as an unprecedented number of Black women have moved into the forefront making major accomplishments in politics, entertainment, science, sports and a variety of other areas.

Thanksgiving is a time for gathering together with family and friends, for giving thanks. It's a good time to make a family commitment. The greatest gift we can give our father, brothers, lovers and sons is to treat them with respect, kindness and reverence. We need to be enthusiastic about their hopes and aspirations. We must encourage them, and show them in all our inter reactions that we believe in them and acknowledge their ability and power. Affirm it for our men, and impart it to our children. Happy Thanksgiving from my family to yours.

Project and Riverside County's Health Service Agency are asking everyone to turn on their headlights to commemorate World AIDS Day. HEADLIGHTS ON !!! This is a simple act that allows people to make a big statement about AIDS and HIV Infection.

Approximately 180 countries around the world have designated this day to draw public attention to the AIDS pandemic. Locally, World AIDS Day 1992 will provide a unique opportunity for groups and organizations to sponsor activities simultaneously that will increase awareness about HIV/AIDS and reinforce AIDS prevention activities. The worldwide effort to meet the challenge of AIDS will be strengthened by stressing how critical it is for individuals and communities to pledge themselves fully to the fight against AIDS. In addition, World AIDS Day will continue to promote support and care for all HIV-infected persons and people with AIDS, their families and friends, and help combat discrimination and isolation.

The ultimate goal is to have as many people as possible within U.S. communities and around the world communicating about AIDS to heighten awareness of AIDS as a global challenge and to create the unity essential to the worldwide effort against AIDS. For more information call (909)784-2437.

QUESTION: Do you have suggestions on purchasing and preparing my holiday bird?

ANSWER: As we approach the holiday season many questions surface regarding the preparation of the holiday turkey. You should plan on one pound per person, or a pound and a half per person if you have hearty eaters or want ample leftovers.

While the quality and taste of frozen and fresh turkey are quite similar, the keeping time is not. A frozen turkey can be purchased months in advance, but a fresh bird should be bought only 1 to 2 days ahead.

You can choose either a pre-basted bird (typical ingredients include vegetable oil, broth, spices) or an unbasted bird to which nothing has been added.

Personal preference usually dictates the choice that you make.

USDA Grade A is the highest quality grade for poultry and the one commonly found in stores.

According to the USDA's Pat Moriarty, age, not gender, is the determining factor for tenderness. All turkeys in the market are young, usually 4-6 months old. A hen generally weighs less than 16 pounds and a tom over 16 pounds. You need to plan on 15-18 minutes per pound for an unstuffed bird, and 18-24 minutes per pound for a stuffed bird at 325 degrees Fahrenheit.

For a copy of Turkey Basics, call Riverside (909) 683-6491, Blythe (619) 922-5171 or Indio (619) 863-8293.

claustrophobic!

Since pale colors recede, the lighter the wall and floor colors, the larger a room will seem. Traditionally, ceilings are painted lighter than the walls to raise it visually. If a low ceiling is more of a problem than the size of the room, a wall covering with a vertical stripe would visually raise the ceiling height. Patterned carpets or wallcoverings with a light background give a feeling of depth and might be just the answer for a small space.

Adding a framed mirror or even mirroring an entire wall can visually double the room size. But note what the mirrors will reflect. If it's an eyestore you'll double that too!

One of the benefits of a small space is that it makes its inhabitants feel cozy and comfortable. Use your space with the preceding guidelines in mind and create the inviting warm look you ing tastes; just interpret your preferences a little smaller!

Select furniture that is scaled to your room size. Small furniture can make a small room seem a great deal larger. In a living room, for example, you may want to choose the cozy look of matching love seats instead of a larger sofa and chairs. Sofas with open legs, such as Chippendale or Queen Anne, take up less visual space-but be careful not to have a room that's "all legs". Balance the open-legged pieces with solid ones, perhaps a small skirted, or an enclosed wood table. Stay away from coffee tables, they tend to fill up a room. Glass topped tables are a good option because the eye continues to travel through the glass surface.

Eliminate clutter. For some reason, many people are compelled to fill every square inch of space. Unfortunately, the end result is unsettling and even

Jacksons' TV Movie Takes ABC To The Top

The Jacksons hit the charts again, this time in a made-for-TV movie about the singing clan that helped ABC to its third straight weekly ratings win.

ABC had a 13.4 percent average rating for the week of Nov. 9-15, according to figures released Tuesday by the A.C. Nielsen Co. CBS was second with a 12.9 average, followed by NBC with an 11.6 average.

Each ratings point represents 931,000 homes.

The networks are battling through November sweeps, one of four periods each year in which local stations set advertising rates. The sweeps run through Nov. 25.

Southern California native, Monica Calhoun who played the adolescent/young adult Ribbi Jackson, is a up and coming young actress. Because of the Jackson TV-Movie Calhoun is stepping out in the national spotlight. But she is no stranger to the bright lights. Calhoun's credits are: "The Friends", "Bagdad Cafe", "She Stood Alone", "Pacific Station," Taking A Stand" (A teen film), "It will stand" (A TV pilot), "Getting Straight", "Superior Court", "The Judge", "Children Of The Night" (First film at age 13), a CBS movie of the week.

She has worked along stars such as Danny Devito, Robert Steinmiller, Debbie Allen and Sherman Hemsley.

Part one of "The Jacksons: An American Dream" finished in third place.

ABC also got a boost from its comedy "Roseanne," which finished second. The episode introduced Morgan Fairchild as the gay love interest for regular guest Sandra Bernhard.

The top spot went to the CBS newsmagazine "60 Minutes," and the CBS comedy "Murphy Brown" was fourth. NBC's "Cheers" was fifth.

Two ABC comedies, "Coach" and "Home Improvement," were six and seventh, respectively.

Rounding out the top 10 were part two of the CBS movie "Sinatra" in eighth, "Murder She Wrote" on CBS in ninth and ABC's "Monday Night Football" in 10th.

ABC was first among network news shows with an 11.8 average rating, followed by CBS with a 10.5 and NBC with a 9.3.

Here are the top 10 prime time broadcasts, their network and rating:

"60 Minutes," CBS, 22.5; "Roseanne," ABC, 21.4; "The Jacksons" (ABC Sunday Night Movie), ABC, 21.1; "Murphy Brown," CBS, 20.4; "Cheers," NBC, 19.7; "Coach," ABC, 18.2; "Home Improvement," ABC, 17.9; "Sinatra" (CBS Tuesday Movie), CBS, 17.2; "Murder She Wrote," CBS, 16.9; "NFL Monday Night Football," ABC, 16.8.

Questions &amp; Answers

Dr. Reginald Woods

IS MY HUSBAND A WIMP?

Question: Dear Dr. Woods, My husband does not know how to handle money, he does not discipline the kids, he does not take a stand for our household, he runs to his parents home every week, he's not being a man. He acts like a wimp! How can I change him?

Anonymous, Ontario, CA

Answer: The best thing you can do immediately is keep quiet and go before the Lord in prayer concerning your needs. Genesis 2:18 states that a wife's called to be a "helpmate" or assistant to her husband. Your husband does need your help to help him become a better man. He does not need you to be critical of him questioning his manhood. One of the worse things a wife could ever do is give the impression that she believes her husband is weak, insufficient, not a good provider and that she knows and can do more than him. If you pose this belief to your husband you give place to the devil and open a temptation for him to commit adultery by looking for a woman who appreciates him and thinks he is somebody.

1st Peter 3:1-6 instructs wives to be godly examples to their husband, winning him over to God's perfect will through love, submission, and continually supporting him, not instructing him on how to be a man.

Pray for him that he comes to church consistently, that his prayer life increases, that he associates with strong men of God, and that his heart opens to hear from God. God can do to your husband what you cannot!

If you have a question that you would like answered, write: Dr. Reginald L. Woods, Life Changing Ministries, P.O. Box 9778, San Bernardino, CA 92427-9778.

Moreno Valley Police Harass Moreno Blacks

Together We Can

By Charles Ledbetter
MORENO VALLEY NEWS

BY CHARLES LEDBETTER

Harassment in Moreno Valley: A question was asked this weekend by a member of the Black race. It was, are members of the Moreno Valley Police Department making it their program to harass minority motorists of Moreno Valley? It seems as if they are parking near Black businesses and picking on minority motorists, meanwhile some one is doing thousands of dollars worth of damage to our new schools. One hundred thousand dollars was spent last year restoring our schools. Armada Elementary School on John F. Kennedy Blvd, had $11,000 worth of damage, such as windows knocked out.

I made a stop in front of a BBQ establishment Saturday night to deliver some newspapers, "The Black Voice News", I left my emergency lights on and was gone less than two minutes, it was very clear that I did not intend to park there. This officer and deputy were waiting on me as I ran out to get in my car. I was in a hurry because I was going to help a young family. I attempted to explain to them what I was doing, he would not listen to me, and was very nasty in their remarks, such as, "If you can't read, we will teach you to read," when I told him I thought I could stop there for a quick delivery because I see it done all of the time. My blinkers were on. I felt that they were attempting to make me mad, I thought of Rodney King and was my normal self.

I am very supportive of our law enforcement program in Moreno Valley, however I will bow to no one. As a member of the School Board we count on the law to help us with the schools. I believe one day they will catch those people who are writing on our walls and breaking windows.

I have a feeling that he would not have written that ticket for stopping with blinking lights on for two minutes if I had not have had a T-shirt on which displayed a picture of Martin L. King and Malcom X. The caption read "Unity The Final Analysis", and "Together We Stand, Divided, We Fall". This togetherness, to me means all people from all racial backgrounds.

I took the ticket and drove around the block. I observed this officer talking to another Black motorist. I went to my daughters house and rove past this area of Sunnymede Blvd. again, he had stopped another motorist that appeared to be a minority. Do we have a real serious problem in the area of racial harmony? The good people of Moreno Valley will not allow this place to become another L.A., Detroit or any other place where all people can't live in peace. Black people have just as much right to live in Moreno Valley as any other group of people. Together, we Can.

Voices: You're not supposed to be so blind with patriotism that you can't face reality. Wrong is wrong no matter who does it." Malcom X.

Hats Off: To Hughes supermarket on John F. Kennedy Blvd. The employees of this establishment are very polite and professional. We, retired military and residence of Warner Ranch, are blessed to have such a fine supermarket near our neighborhood.

Riverside County Fair Names LeDuc Queen Scheherazade

Twenty-year-old Michelle LeDuc, born and presently residing in Riverside, will reign as Queen Scheherazade at the 47th annual Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival in Indio, Feb. 12-21.

Serving with her will be Chastidy Ruiz, 17, of Indio, and Julee Rios, 18, Mecca.

The trio was selected from 20 contestants at the Fullenwider Auditorium Saturday, Nov. 14. It is located at Desert ExpoCentre, site of the annual Date Festival.

Stage presence, speaking ability and knowledge of dates (the edible kind) and the Date Festival were the major considerations in the selection of the queen and princesses.

performers and also holds down a job at Stuart Anderson's Black Angus Restaurant in Riverside.

CAROUSEL FOR KIDS OF ALL AGES AT MORENO VALLEY MALL AT TOWNGATE

The festive music and colorful sights of a modern carousel modeled after authentic antique animals will greet shoppers in the Food Court at Moreno Valley Mall at TownGate.

Carousel rides are available for $1.00 per ride, each day the mall is open. The ornate carousel animals are made from molds of the most elegant antique animals designer John Barrango of San Francisco's Barrango, Inc. could locate.

Barrango, Inc., is a 90-year-old family business specializing in the creation of modern carousels and elaborate Christmas displays for malls and commercial buildings.

Other Barrango-designed carousels are featured at Marnott's Great America Amusement Park in Santa Clara, Calif.; Kawasho Siebu-En Amusement Park in Tokyo, Japan; and the Lexington Festival Market in Lexington, Ky.

The Moreno Valley Mall at TownGate carousel is 22-feet high and 38-feet in diameter. Riders choose from 34 animals sitting three abreast: horses, pigs, rabbits, cats, ostriches, pandas, lions and seahorses. The music is recreated from an old carousel band organ.

...the holiday card program ... has generated more than $30,000...

"People often want to get involved in supporting higher education at Black institutions, but feel they do not have the time or opportunity," said Dr. Joyce Payne, executive director, Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund. "The holiday card program is an easy and effective way to support our mission, which is to help students pursue their dreams of a college education."

Students in the program have an average grade point of 3.5 and are among the academic leaders on their campuses. The Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund provides them with full room, board and tuition scholarships.

In addition to raising funds for Thurgood Marshall Scholarships, the holiday cards, which are available in boxes of 16 with four different designs, also benefit hundreds of not-for-profit organizations across the country. Churches, community and civic groups, fraternities, sororities, and other charitable organizations and causes can purchase the cards at a special rate and use them for local fund-raising efforts.

The program is managed by an African-American owned company, the Kydd Group, and the cards are designed by L'Image Graphics, also African-American owned.

Whether made with words, images or music, art resonates through African-American life. Recording our experience, revealing our humanity, depicting our soul. It can soothe or excite, enlighten or entertain, constantly compelling us to look and listen.

At Kraft General Foods, we're proud to help bring the visions and sounds of ethnic culture to the community. Not only helping people to experience the art of others, but inspiring the artists themselves.

Lou's Parade Will Benefit UNCF

Lou Rawls and one of the Parade's grand marshals Robert Guillaume.

Nancy Wilson

Michael Jackson

Whitney Houston

As the all-star cast of the 1992 "Lou Rawls Parade of Stars" prepares for the telethon's national broadcast on Saturday evening, Dec. 26, viewers of the holiday special that benefits the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) can expect even more of the power-packed entertainment that has made the "Parade of Stars" the second most successful television fund-raising program in history.

This year's show, which is expected to top the $100 million mark in cumulative cash and pledges raised since 1979, will, by far, have one of the best celebrity lineups of any television special during the holiday season.

Superstars Michael Jackson, Whitney Houston, Frank Sinatra and Dionne Warwick will headline a show bill that reads like a "who's who" in show business.

Proceeds generated from the "Lou Rawls Parade of Stars" are used to expand educational opportunities at the 41 private, historically Black colleges and universities represented by the College Fund. Enrollment at these schools has increased by a whopping 25 percent in the past six years, compared to overall U.S. college enrollment growth of 13 percent during the same period.

Telethon host and multiple Grammy award winning singer Lou Rawls, who will once again lead "America's longest running parade," says that the increased enrollment at UNCF schools and the fund-raising milestone expected to be reached at this year's telethon provide proof that Americans believe in the tradition of excellence at these historical colleges and universities.

"When we started the 'Parade of Stars' 13 years ago, we wanted to make sure that the doors of opportunity would remain open," Rawls says. "Now, with the tremendous interest in UNCF-member schools by students all over the country, we must provide the teaching resources to meet a growing demand."

Veteran entertainer and former Fifth Dimension singer, Marilyn McCoo, and television's Ed McMahon will co-host the "Parade of Stars" from the Aquarius Theatre in Hollywood, as the legendary song stylist, Nancy Wilson, serves as co-host from the historic Apollo Theatre in New York City.

Parade grand marshals for the seven-hour show, which will incorporate local fund-raising segments in about 80 markets nationwide, will include "Queen of Soul" Aretha Franklin, Bill

"You Bet Your Life" Cosby, and the multitalented Robert 'Benson' Guillaume.

The sultry, hip hop sounds of En Vogue — pop music's hottest group in 1992 — will be showcased along with up-and-coming male superstars Tevin Campbell and Al B. Sure!

And, for unmatched variety in a television special, country music stars The Oak Ridge Boys, gospel great Shirley Caesar, singer and Tony award winning actress Melba Moore, and new-age rapper Me Phi Me will blend their distinctive styles, all for the cause of education.

William H. Gray III, president and chief executive officer of the New York-based United Negro College Fund, says contributions to the "Lou Rawls Parade of Stars" telethon will help UNCF schools prepare today's students for tomorrow's challenges.

"On telethon night," Gray said, "we need the support of all Americans to ensure that historically Black colleges can meet the greater-than-ever demand for a college education. An investment in the United Negro College Fund through the 'Parade of Stars' is an investment in real opportunity."

Ho Frat Ho Ho Frat Ho Bust It

What's the first thing that comes outta your mouth when you see your partner at a party? Ho!

Add this to the fraternity style of dance that these five brothers do and you get HO FRAT HO.

Heavy Ho, King Ho and Mighty Ho are from the Bay area and X Ho and Lo Ho are outta Inglewood. Together, these five brothers not only had a chance to tour with Hammer, they also had a chance to choreograph some of Hammer's videos including "You Can't Touch This" as well as work with artists Oaktown's 357, Ace Juice and Joey B. Ellis.

Heavy Ho said that he and King Ho met Hammer when Hammer recorded his "Let's Get It Started" video at a club in Oakland. It's funny because the fellas did not have any money to get into the club that night, but Heavy knew they had to go.

Heavy explained, "We ended up down there at the front door screaming for them to let us in. Then, it just so happened that Hammer and a couple members of his old posse came to the door. They [hammer's posse] was like 'What's Up? Y'all want to get in this?'"

Heavy, King and Mighty got in. They danced. Hammer saw and like them. The rest is history.

After working with Hammer for a few years, the fellas were ready to do their own thing. With the help of old school Hammer deejay Dj Redeem, Ho Frat Ho kicks flava the way Hammer used to. Their first single, Ho Frat Swing is kinda smooth and mellow and sets the fellas up in a class of their own. Their current single, Education is funkier and gives listeners an idea what the guys personalities are like. Heavy Ho explained that all the members both write and rap and in Education they found themselves reflecting on their own school memories. It's no doubt the fellas value education.

Heavy explained "At one point, we've all attended four year Universities... I went to Chico State. King Ho went to Cal State Hayward. Lo Ho went to Humboldt and Long Beach State. X Ho went to school in Arizona."

Though they've takin' some time off to pursue their music careers, Heavy Ho says he plans to go back. "We all plan on going back to finish our education. I got to get my degree. I got to give that to my moma."

For now, the guys are doing alright. Their record has sold at least 70,000 copies. A sure attraction for old Hammer fans. The album kicks a few different styles but the favorite is the old MC-Hammer-Pump-It-Up-hit-me-three-times funk.

On cuts, Greeze It Up and Who's That Lady the fellas take you back a few to the early Hammer days. Probably the production of DJ Redeem, Hammer's old Deejay, has something to do with this.

Since it's their first album, Heavy Ho calls it an 'experimental album.' This time around, they're deciding which styles they like the best. As for now, Heavy Ho feels a strong street vibe will be better for their next album.

Last year, Heavy and King Ho somewhere found the time to coach the Varsity Football team at their high school up north, McClymond High School (the same as Hammer's).

Corporations Sponsor Bayou Classic

Since the first of its consecutive stadium sellout 18 years ago, the Bayou Classic college football game between the Grambling State University Tigers and the Southern University Jaguars has grown in stature and significance.

In 1991, it rose to its greatest prominence when NBC became the first network to telecast the contest live to a national audience.

As 1992 marks the 100th Anniversary of Black-College Football, the network will again present exclusive live coverage of the Bayou Classic, from the Louisiana Superdome in New Orleans on Saturday, November 28 (2:30-6 p.m. NYT).

For advertisers and sponsors looking to get their message across to an enthusiastic audience in today's sports marketplace, the Bayou Classic presents an opportunity for national exposure and the fostering of goodwill among the minority community.

The game represents the only network sports coverage of pre-

Last year's contest recorded an impressive 3.5 rating, topping and 25-54, the Bayou Classic delivered an unequaled 8.5 and 9.7 rating, respectively, as compared to many mainstream sports television staples:

"In the annals of Black college sports, the Bayou Classic has become a major sporting event that presents football at its zenith," said Dr. Harold Lundy, President of Grambling State University. "We are delighted that NBC has again demonstrated its leadership in the television industry by presenting an idea whose time has come."

Said Southern University President Dr. Delores R. Spikes: "The national telecast of the most popular gridiron contest among historically Black colleges makes us proud and pleased that NBC has chosen to show extraordinary vision again in bringing this event into the homes of millions coast to coast."

Larry Lundy, Director Client Services for Advantage Marketing Group (AMG) stated, "I believe the Bayou Classic has all the elements for a winning formula... an exciting product, good ratings, capacity crowds. "We are extremely pleased in our efforts in bringing together the Bayou Classic and NBC Sports."

Southwestern Athletic Conference rivals, Grambling and Southern have traditionally played each other on the best weekend of college-football season. In 1974, the game was formally named the Bayou Classic and held in Tulane Stadium. That year, the game drew 76,753 spectators, its largest crowd ever. In 1975, the game was moved to the Louisiana Superdome drawing more than 70,000 fans.

SPORTS (S)

Hogs root-out opponents in CIF playoffs: Rialto Eisenhower's 'Baby Hogs' put on a pretty good imitation of the famous 'Hogs' of the World Champion Washington Redskins, in pouncing Artesia Lakewood 49-8 in the first round of the CIF Division 1 playoffs.

The 'Baby Hogs' consist of tackles Ricky Austin & Pat Freeman, guards Chris Lee & Basam Hasan, and center Andy Rivas.

The 'Baby Hogs' effort prompted coach Tom Hoak to declare, "We totally controlled and moved people in the line tonight. Our offensive line is second to none. It's the best (line) we've ever had."

With the line of scrimmage being dominated by the hogs, QB Aaron Okayama (playing because of an injury to Glenn Thompkins) passed for 167 yards, Marlon Farlow ran for 71 yards, Julius McChristian scored 2 TD's and Damond Wilkins was able to make 5 catches for 133 and 2 TD's.

What impressed me the most about this squad, is the fact that as a team they possess an overall GPA of 3.0 or better. This is a quality and intelligent group of young men and 'Baby Hogs'.....

I want be like Mike.....no-no..... like Magic: Gatorade may have to nix Mike Jordan and insert Magic, based on a poll of the Santa Clara County teen-agers.

A group of nearly 3,000 middle school and high school students picked Magic Johnson as their most respected male role model. The annual Fujitsu

The "Baby Hogs" open up a hole for Eisenhower's Marlon Farlow, as he runs free on an 18 yard T.D. junket. Photo by Mike Wilson America's "Shoot For Success" motivational school program conducted the poll.

"Fathers" were second in the voting, followed by Michael Jordan, Martin Luther King Jr., President George Bush and President-elect Bill Clinton.

"Mothers" were named as the most respect female role models. Then came model Cindy Crawford, Barbara Bush, Mother Teresa and figure skater Kristi Yamaguchi.....

Trivia Question: Where does 'Hammerin' Hank Aaron rank on baseballs all time career hit list?.....

Double, double, toil and trouble: Michael Jordan has recently lived this Shakespearean line, much to his embarrassment.

Jordan acknowledged during the federal drug and money-laundering trial of James Bouler, that he lost $57,000 in golf and poker bets to Bouler. Imagine Michael yelling, double-up and double or nothing during a gambling spree, I can't, but he did.

Michael has said he will not quit gambling, but will drastically lower the stakes.....

Clippers set sail for NBA respectability: During a challenging three game home stand, the L. A. Clippers proved they will be a force in this NBA season.

The Clips outlasted ex-two time champion Detroit Pistons in a trilling overtime game. Wipped the bad New York Knickerbockers (my pick to unseat Chicago in the east). Overcame Charles 'Chaterbox' Barkley's 44 point and 17 rebound outburst to down the Phoenix Suns.

The recent Clipper upswing has temporarily silenced the critics of GM Elgin Baylor. Many people felt Baylor made some hasty moves when he brought in 300 pounders, Stanley Roberts & John Williams, as well as, Mark Jackson from New York.

If things keep as they are, coach Larry Brown will make Baylor look like a genius. Mark CONTINUED ON B-8

Racing School Opened Locally

Southern California, long considered the hottest automotive market in the United States, will once again have a racing school in full time operation.

Richard Boren, president of DRIVETECH RACING SCHOOL, announced the opening of the most advanced high tech racing school in the world. DRIVETECH RACING SCHOOL features tube-framed, V-8 powered race cars based on NASCAR Southwest Tour and SCCA Trans Am rules.

The cars are powered by the Chevy ZZ3 target engine, delivering 360 horsepower and 380 pounds-feet of torque. The total weight of the car is 2300 pounds.

Performance is awesome, with straight-line acceleration in excess of .60 g's, braking performance in above of 1.2 g's and steady state cornering over 1.4 g's. The plastic and fiberglass bodies are 1992 Chevy Lumina's.

In addition to the exceptional performance of the DRIVETECH RACING SCHOOL cars, each car is equipped with a state-of-the-art on-board computer which monitors lateral and longitudinal acceleration, engine RPM, brake on/off, throttle position and time.

Cars are also equipped with in-car video cameras. The data from the computer appears on the video image when replayed in the classroom for evaluation. Students keep the video tapes for further evaluation.

This system allows empirical evaluation previously unavailable to students of auto racing. DRIVETECH RACING SCHOOL began classes on August 15th, 1992 in San Bernardino, California. Classes will be held on the oval and two road courses at the Emergency Vehicle Operations Center (EVOC), which is operated by the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department.

The facility consists of a .89 mile banked tri-oval and 1.1 mile road course, a wet skid pan, a second skid pad large enough for a 3/8 mile oval, and a large street grid area. DRIVETECH has an exclusive contract with the facility for all racing and high performance driving classes.

Because the Sheriff's Department operates only during the week, DRIVETECH RACING SCHOOL will operate on weekends at the track, located just south of the Glen Helen Off-Road Vehicle Park. DRIVETECH RACING SCHOOL will also conduct advanced classes at Willow Springs International Raceway and Las Vegas Speedway.

As Lee depicts Malcolm, and the Nation, will he show that they funded their own education systems and owned planes and trucks to transport to their members tons of meat, eggs, milk and grain supplies that they produced, each week?
Economic power was one of Malcolm's prime tenets in life. Evidently, this type of power is also among Spike's primary concerns. Will Lee's "X" mark the spot where its presentation will lead Blacks toward the type of growth experienced by the man who died as El Hajj Malik Shabbazz? Or will it, and the associated merchandising, be about little or nothing but symbols?

Sweets to the sweet: When UCLA and USC met at the Rose Bowl this past weekend, it was the 5th anniversary of the 1967 UCLA-USC game, in which the Trojans upset No. 1 UCLA, 21-20 to am a Rose Bowl berth and a national title, as O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for the winning TD. No one xpected that this particular encounter would rival or surpass the legendary '67' contest, but it did.

UCLA produced a thrilling 38-37 conquest of the men from Troy before 80,568 spectators, when USC's coach Larry Smith went for the two point try and win with .40 seconds left in the game, and his eam was stopped short by a inspired UCLA fun bunch.

UCLA found unexpected heroes in QB John Barnes and receiver J.J. Stokes, who both had the ames of their lives and were the driving forces in the victory dance.

Stokes snatched a pass from Barnes and took off on a 90 yard adventure through the USC econdary, for the spectacular game winning TD. That touchdown will measure-up to the Simpson run s time goes on and maybe stand side-by-side with it in the annuals of great plays in this heated city valry.....
