"SHERLOCK HOLMES" IN RARE FORM FOR CSCSB PERFORMANCE

The stage is set - five different locations, in fact, ranging from the famous Baker Street digs of Holmes and Watson to the sinister regions of London and Professor Moriarty's hideaway - for the opening of "Sherlock Holmes" next Thursday, July 15, at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

Other performances follow on July 16, 17; 22-24 and 29-31, all at 8:15 p.m.

Tickets are now on sale for all performances of the William Gillette play, especially adapted for the campus production by William Slout, director. Prices are $2, faculty and staff; $1.50 students and senior citizens; $2.50 general admission.

The title role is played by Paul DeMeo; Dr. Watson by Dan Eggleston; Professor Moriarty by William Slout. Others in the exciting drama, which presents Holmes in a more romantic light for the first time, are Keri Grunest, cast as the estimable woman who piques Holmes' admiration; John T. Betcher, Danny Bilson, Ann Boden, Wayne Judson, Beth Nelson, Ron Carroll, Janet Minor, Rick Brown, Jeff Hubbard, Charles Johnson, Cynthia Prater, Linda Plummer and Ted Plummer.

The costumes, designed by Sandi Stiglinski, represent the later period of Holmes' illustrious career, the early 1900s. Stage setting is by O.P. Hadlock and Nina Williamson is Stage Manager.

NEW MANAGER FOR CAFETERIA

Hugh Forkel, a member of the Professional Food-Service Management (PFM) company for over three years, has taken over the management of the CSCSB Cafeteria.

Mr. Forkel most recently managed the Bannockburn Village near the UCR campus for a year for PFM. He also became familiar with the college food service area when his work with PFM took him to the UC, Santa Cruz campus.

Although Mr. Forkel has plans for some decorating and reorganizing, such as the salad bar and serving areas, no major changes in the cafeteria are anticipated at this time. He does plan, however, to introduce some new ideas and try some new things this fall.

Mr. Forkel is married and lives in San Bernardino with his wife.

The Cafeteria will remain open on its current schedule until July 31 when it will close and remain closed until September 12.
