Bernardo Randolph Sims was excited Saturday as he and partner Lewis Thomas bonded the grand opening of the new Nation Time Deli and Bakery in San Bernardino. Located in the new Westside Shopping Plaza, the event was broadcast over the airwaves of the new V103.9 FM and attracted several new and old customers.

Frank Sulworth, Administrative Assistant for Senator Rubin Ayala, was also on hand to present Nation Time with certificates from Ayala and Jerry Raven. Even V103.9 station manager Richard Guzman and Joyce Warren at (909) 884-4007.

Throughout the afternoon's festivities, Nation Time donated sandwiches to the first (V)103 participant. Sims said, "We've been advertising with V103.9 for a while," He chose "The Variety Station" because "Everybody loves it and it's Black owned." Because Sims and Thomas are concerned about their community, they decided to open a deli.

Sims said, "We wanted to cut out the grease and provide nutritional and healthy food to the community." With Nation Time's selection of Famahouse books, salad and video tapers, Sims said he wants to offer "build-your-own meals."

The Black Voice asked Sims to name a few Nation Time specialties. "We do not have enough space to name the entire list, but Sims recommended the pastrami and turkey (my favorite) sandwiches. If you have a sweet tooth, you might want to pick up one of their famous bean pies or cherry pies.

Nation Time takes phone orders by calling 845-2062 and for lunch orders by dialing 845-1935. The business located at 1594 Baseline #10 in San Bernardino.

Food Labels That Make Sense

Deidre Levister: I understand that by mid-1994 packaged foods will carry nutrition labels. What can I look forward to?

Dear Consumer: The Federal government has recently announced this new regulation for food labels. The old labels offer plenty of information, but they are not very easy to compare. Virtually all packaged foods will now have to comply with a format by mid-1994, though home manufacturers may have to wait a bit longer. The labeling rules were aimed at more useful information, fresh food, and nutrition and government foods.

Major nutrients will be listed not just in grams or milligrams, but also as a percent of the total recommended intake for someone consuming 2,000 calories a day. A small chart will show how the required daily intake for major nutrients for a 2,000 calorie diet in addition to the recommended intake for the column as space permits.

Small, But Mighty

If you are like most people, you probably have a small, but functional, guest room. If you have enough space, you can use it as a guest room or perhaps a private room in which to rest. If you decide to convert it into a small room, you can use it to a great advantage or a cozy.

A sofa bed with a full size mattress is the most practical for a small room. Keep the door open so the room can be pulled out, and the room can be used as a living room, a table, and a sofa bed. Consider installing a closet system that will admit the bed.

The "Perfect Choice"

For Upland's Main St.

Market Night

Richard—What name would you choose for six musicians and five vocalists, whose varied backgrounds contributed to produce the perfect musical balance? You're Right! Perfect Choice.

This group creates professionalism and style. The members diverse musical background combine to produce consistently superior quality of musical excellence and showmanship. With a fast tempo at their command, the group is comfortable presenting a variety of music styles from country and rock to their favorite styles, R&B and jazz. Perfect Choice is a complete entertainment package.

Perfect Choice is the first-class act to Upland, Thursday, April 8 to kick off the city's seasonal "Main Street Market Night." Market Nights are held each Thursday evening from 5 - 9 p.m. at the corners of Second Ave. and Ninth St.

The group, a S.L.K Productions feat. act, isn't a case of a free imitation.

They've played everything from private events and political fund raisers to Everybody. The group continues on a rolling mode like showcases have played to expanding "son only" audiences throughout Southern California and Las Vegas.

Perfect Choice began the year in top form, opening for Motown's legendary "Spinners" at the Superstar Concert Series. S.L.K. Productions' President, Charles F. Johnson, feels he is "blessed" being associated with talent of this caliber.

Actually two unique groups make Perfect Choice—the band, Perfect Choice and vocal group. The Showcase Stars. The group's combined talents is reflected in their remarkable stage presence and dancing style. Each group is outstanding on its own, together they're an unstoppable combination.

Perfect Choice band members include: Anderson, horns; and Karen "Didi" Jackson on keyboard. The Showcase Stars are: Robby Broom, bass; Sebastian Cole (the sole male vocalist), Bartek; Nischala Davenport, alto and Joni Ann, violinist and Maria Hertock. Keyboard and Didi Jackson is the group's Director.

Each of these talented professionals adds something unique to a Perfect Choice performance. Whether you're taken by the intensity of Sebastian Cole's vocals is obvious to the momentizing sound of Tim Anderson's saxophone, or brought to the edge of your seat by the switching of Nischala and the styling of Jessica Nachaka and the saxophone, or found out she was really a good punk. that officers indeed do care, and care very much.

The pursuit deaths of parties not involved in the pursuit itself are numerous. But in the course of a year, about 4,000 traffic deaths occur on California's coast and highways. Law officers involved in these 4,000 are miserable ones.

The task of traffic law enforcement is reducing traffic deaths from whatever cause. The pursuit is a necessary tool for that end. You need only ask yourself, how many more traffic deaths would likely occur if we would risk the safety of everyone, by ignoring traffic laws, as we now do. The effect of that upon the law enforcement agencies might be seen.

By eliminating pursuits, society would be useful. Anarchy on our highways Cops stop for the red light and siren.

Dear Mr. Ross: I'm the mother of two children and I'm asking for an unknown amount of money. Six months ago, I decided to stay home to care for our 2-year-old. I'm asking the help of the community to assist me. In my savings account so what comes something up, it will be there. My husband never had a job, so he saves everything he can. I hate asking him for little things, because he know I hate, "jellydum without." We make do, white percyRoss. P.O. Box 39332, Minneapolis, MN 55439.
