Black Community Apprehensive About Using Results Of White Officer's Trial

Why is everything focused on South Central L.A. What about the Blacks who don't live in L.A. Who is going to protect us?" Brown said this reminder of him growing up in the South, when Black KKK members wouldlynch Black people. He actually saw a body hanging as a child, something that never left his memory.

Cheryl Brown, Publisher, The Black Voice News made history last week as she was sworn in as the county's first Black Planning Commissioner. She was appointed to the District Supervisor Jerry Deputy and related to the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, and the Registrar of Voters.

The rioting was reportedly in response to a segment on television that said James Brown was the father of the late Bobbi Brown.

Community Action seeks low-income representative - The Riverside County Department of Community Action (DOCA) is requesting applications to serve as a low-income community. The DOCA is to address the needs of the low-income community and receive a request to submit their nominations to: Bob Hammond, 3600 Lime Street, Suite 714 Riverside, CA 92501 (909) 341-8800.

They requested that I get out of the car and was standing behind the car and one officer told me to sit on the sidewalk. I did, and the officer grabbed my arm and put it behind my back. I was not know what I was.realpathing. At this time several more officers joined in and they slammed me into a chain linked fence, yelling "stop resisting arrest." I yelled back "I'm not resisting arrest." That is when they started kicking me and hitting me around. When I was down on the ground, I was still standing in the car. The only move I made was to try to protect myself from the way that the police treat Black District of racial discrimination.

ing the campaign, candidate Bill Clinton favored allowing Haitians to enter the U.S. through the same boat door that Americans use. Black hole used by thousands who walk this way through our major airports, including known terrorists. Some people argue, that only requirement to live in the U.S. is to be a U.S. citizen. If you can enter from Mexico on a boat, then why can't 20 million have already done so.

If they were honest, Clinton would have told this recognizably liberal and innocent immigration policy the blame. But the temptation to make political gains was just too great. While deporting 500,000 illegal immigrants is not worth the effort, it is too costly to set up to do tax refunds. Some will get money back, others will break even, and most will have to pay to get it back. The taxes are charged in such a manner that the office is not a public service, but a private business.

As the drama winds towards a long awaited conclusion, the emotions possibilities for a better life or the realities of being a "have" or "have not." But for all of this government's obsession with tax, the thing that really were making a difference. Edison Celebrates Earth Day with Special Event

Southern California Edison, a regional energy provider, is celebrating Earth Day by hosting a special event on April 22. The event will feature speakers, workshops, and activities focused on environmental and energy issues.

WalkAmerica '93 marks the 23rd year of the March of Dimes, which has raised millions of dollars to support the prevention of birth defects. The success of WalkAmerica has been due in large part to the strong support from the community.

The new campaign focuses on the need to address low birthweight rates among African-American women. The new campaign is intended to bring attention to the importance of prenatal care and to encourage African-American women to be assertive in getting an early and accurate diagnosis.

The question remains as to whether alcohol can increase the risk of heart disease. There is no compelling evidence to support the view that drinking alcohol can prevent heart disease.

Endometriosis is a chronic condition characterized by the presence of endometrial tissue outside the uterus. This tissue can cause pain, infertility, and other health problems.

African-American women are more likely to get a sexually transmitted disease, such as PID, than white or Asian women. The higher incidence of PID among African-American women is thought to be due to a number of factors, including a higher prevalence of sexually transmitted infections and a lower rate of prenatal care.

LEGAL WORKSHOP
The Fifteenth Annual Citizen Law Day Workshop was presented on Saturday, May 1, 1993 at the San Bernardino Community College, 717 East B Street, Ontario, CA, 91761.

A panel of attorneys and services representatives will discuss issues of concern to senior citizens such as seminars on estate planning we decided to present our first seminar for older adults in our community. The shining star of the day was the group of attorneys and service representatives that we invited to give a talk on estate planning for older adults. These young men are busy making a difference in the work place, and the community. The panelists consisted of Cheryl Smith, Student Outreach Coordinator at California State University at San Bernardino (CSUSB); Tamika Gay, graduated from University of California at Los Angeles; and Jerry Jones, President of IEPOA. The event organizer, C.M. Mathis of Dameron Communications, the event organizer.

C.M. DAMARON
The Inland Empire Peace Officer's Association held their monthly meeting last month on March 15th, at Back-waters Restaurant in Rancho Cucamonga.

The IEPOA invited community leaders to be present, in order to meet the African American mission they have suffered support for the organization, and IEPOA invited community leaders to be present, in order to meet the African American mission they have suffered support for the organization, and the group's two members included Clifton Harris, the chair of the association's Political Action Committee. Harris presented a platform of unity and confrontation to change the prejudice found in local law enforcement offices in their location of the IEPOA. Reid with other organization with common interest. President Jerry Jones encouraged by saying "I urge us all to meet those interested in making a difference, work place, contact Clifton at (619) 951-3335 for more information.

The main star of the IEPOA is the group's SELF (Self-Education Law Enforcement) Family Youth Center "Right of Passage" Youth Program. Jones feels the program reaches into the community and gives young African-Americans the positive role models they desire. Jones asked IEPOA and business leaders to help move the community forward. "Among Black persons it is through the norm it being followed sooner or later, but with the IEPOA's help it is different, we can stop procrastinating and make a change. Remember the Black community is watching us and waiting for positive leadership. If we can exhibit sound leadership, how can we expect them to follow. We need more of us to get involved, in schools, organizations, and the community, let's be different, let's be different, let's be different.

For more information contact Cheryl Harris, 3559 Bonita Street, Devore, CA 91754. Call (909) 324-0812.
The students and attendees of the Second Annual Health Conference were informed by experts in their fields, about various topics of concern to the African-American community.

One workshop, featured three young men from the Youth Authority. The men told of how they got in trouble and gave insight into the mind of a gang member and person who went wrong. Each told their own story. Each has learned from their mistake and is remorseful for the victim's and the victims' families.

An important point made was that all three either have a BA Degree or is working on one. Each never thought they would be a college graduate. "It takes $30,000 to incarcerate an inmate and some are still getting their degree. Wouldn't it be better to save these young people?"

The best college cost only $20,000 a year and the student can graduate in four years," said Dr. Ernest Levisiter, Black Voice Medical advisor and writer, who is in private practice in the Inland Empire.

Dr. Rodney Parker, a physician and partner at Kaiser Permanente, Fontana, gave the keynote address. His topic was, "Our knowledge of the Past Exceeds us into The Future". Parker spoke of how he lacked Black History was when he was in school. He said the sad thing is... "this is still a problem in today's University systems. Students at Stanford and Berkeley are boycotting because they want and need ethnic studies."

Parker, gave examples of famous African-American physicians: Dr. Daniel Hale Williams, who performed the first open heart surgery; Dr. Susan McKinney Steward, the first African-American women to enter the medical profession; Dr. Alexa Canady, first Black woman neurosurgeon and Dr. Charles Drew, the pioneer of blood plasma, died because a White hospital would not give him the blood he needed to save his life.

The students were honored to have Whitney Mayo, "Grady", on the Sanford and Son television program and Dr. Margaret Burroughs, founder of the famous De Sable Museum of African-American History in Chicago.

The students also heard about AIDS in a workshop lead by Ann Terrill, MASE, (Minority AIDS group), and Environmental Racism, headed by Virgil Woolfolk.

Eric Jones loves his family, yet every day, he risks their lives for a pack-a-day habit. He's not a criminal, but he is a killer. He's a smoker. When he smokes, formaldehyde, arsenic, benzene and 40 other known carcinogens are released into the air his family breathes.

Every year as many as 53,000 nonsmokers die from respiratory, heart and lung diseases, all linked to exposure to secondhand smoke. Many thousands more suffer from diseases and illnesses related to secondhand smoke.

In adult nonsmokers, exposure to secondhand smoke increases the risk of developing lung cancer, heart and lung disease, high blood pressure and seriously aggravates allergies and asthma.

Before you light up, remember that secondhand smoke kills. When you smoke, your family smokes.

WARNING: SECONDHAND SMOKE KILLS. California Department of Health Services.
The speaker, Linda Barnes Bolton, Dr. R.N. F.A.A.N., is the National President of the NBNA. Her topic was Strengthening the African American Family. "We believe we can save the families, by empowering them. We can’t manage anyone’s health, they must do that for themselves. We must empower them with information," she said.

One way to help our people, is to mentor them. Bolton spoke of how nurses mentored many doctors: saved them in surgery; now it made them stronger and if it were not for those nurses many doctors would not be successful.

She told the nurses, “Don’t just mentor nursing students. We must take responsibility for our children. Adopt a child! I’m not going to let my community go down hill. Take this message where people live. Become interested in the children!” she urged.

Bolton was adamant about the adults of our community taking more interest in the people of their community. "After the 'insurrection' last year, people became interested in kids and we must think outside of the box," she said.

Bolton, is currently Director, Department of Nursing Research and Development at Cedars Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles, California where she is responsible for nursing and health care research activities, nursing and allied health development.

In introducing the speaker, President Myrtle Krushall, R.N. said, "our National President is very committed to the health care of African-Americans."

The 1993 Scholarship Recipients were: Nevea Bowie, Kim Carter, Sheila Johnson, Norman Jones, Kay Mixon, Elizabeth Okoroji, Trenna Smith, Aster Teklemanan, Angela Themolith and Andrea Wilkins.

The Deeds Of Brotherly Love = Improvement In The Quality Of Life

The kids that stand to benefit from the 'Caring Team of Athletes' are ready to catch the heated medical care and improve their quality of life. It probably is no coincidence that 'Sir' Larkin has come to the plate to bat for health care. His mother, Shirley, is a medical technician.

"Our parents always stressed that you treat people respectfully, and you try to help people. When you can," noted 'Sir' Larkin, an ex-University of Michigan baseball star. "It saboofed." On getting colleagues from the other 27 major league teams to participate, Barry said, "That was the easy part. I got exposure like, "Not only would I like to be a member; I'd be honored to be a member.'"

Being a parent in the 90's makes me more aware that conflicting signals appear to us. What is right is not always popular and what is popular is not always right. Yet it is always good to see a group of men or anyone attempts to 'Do something.'

In the case of 'Sir' Larkin and he is socially relevant group, 'Caring Team of Athletes,' they are definitely at the plate hitting for the 'right thing' and hopefully it will become a 'popular thing.'

An important fact stuck in my mind. Their outdoor play areas defined what it takes to uproot 'Thé Game.' The kids that stand to benefit are definitely at the plate bating and they have attempted to help 'fix it.'

They are asking a lot of youth with conflicting signals that exist in their lives. Since family and society has generated them, there is another hand they have no other choice.

The PRIDE messagezanoil in the hands and clips are necessary helping hand. Who can deny that reaching out for or creating a helping hand is a good thing.

A GIANT STANDS TALL IN MONTOWON: New York Giant's star linebacker Pepper Johnson stands tall and shines in the Giant's mission defense.

Pepper didn't ask me to play, but the following makes will take up the slack. Simmons, Kness, Krall at Bellamy, AB. Sure for Cuba, Salt & Pepper, Naughty By Nature, Kid Capri Flex, Public Enemy, just to name a few.

The Chiclps have jammed all season for the neighborhood Pride stay in school message.

DMC and Positive K, the basketball game and a Comedy Show.

I am a little disappointed Pepper didn't ask me to play, but the following makes will take up the slack. Simmons, Kness, Krall at Bellamy, AB. Sure for Cuba, Salt & Pepper, Naughty By Nature, Kid Capri Flex, Public Enemy, just to name a few.

CNN, BET News, MTV and national media are expected to cover the charity event, after providing coverage in the events first year. My dad was one of Pepper's high school football coaches. I know it enlighten him as much as me to see the athletes give something back and attempt to make a difference.

Johnson, you have risen to the occasion and your dream to help cultivate athletic careers for many more talented youth. Is more than a dream now. The monies generated from this cause will definitely improve the quality of the youths' athletic endeavors.

This is an opening you'd find more in line with male action movies, and Barry Lebowitz, the studio's marketing chief, said the film inevitably has become a Salacious, sexist epic.

The next four films ranked appeared to appeal to females.

In second place, according to Exhibitor Relations Corp., was the new basketball movie, "The Sandlot," on its fifth week, with $4.5 million, in crust and a half of "The Ballad of Swamp Dragon."
