CARL SANDBURG EXHIBIT ENDS NOVEMBER 28 The sensitive face of Carl Sandburg at various stages in his life may be seen in a series of photographs on exhibit in the Library. First editions, proof sheets and correspondence are also displayed. Exhibit closes Sunday, November 28.

HOW TO HAVE YOUR HOLIDAY
CAKE AND EAT IT, TOO.

An idea that grew into a $3,492 self-perpetuating fund and has resulted in yearly scholarships of over $200 to CSCSB students returns for the 1976 holiday season.

Six years ago the Cal State Faculty Wives Club developed the idea that if College colleagues exchanged greeting during the holiday season via a unique mutual holiday card instead of sending individual greeting cards to each friend, that money saved from stamp and card purchases could be donated to a scholarship fund to assist Cal State students. And donations are tax-deductible.

Through that idea and other projects the Faculty Wives this year will be able to award a $300 scholarship to a continuing upper division student, and others in years to come.

This is how College personnel can participate: Send a check, made payable to the Cal State Faculty Wives Scholarship Fund before December 15 (so that names can be included in the mutual greeting sent to all contributors and so that donations can be added to this year's portion of the fund). Address donations to Phyllis Blackey, 19110 Knollwood Ave., Rialto 92376, or via Robert Blackey, c/o History Dept., AD-140.

A nice way to have your holiday cake and eat it, too.

HARRINGTON IS CHAIRMAN AND DIRECTOR OF CENTER

Dalton Harrington, Chairman and Assoc. Prof., Biology, has been named Chairman of the Board and Director of the Desert Studies Center for the CSUC System. The center, located near Baker, California, will be used by many academic areas for research and field trips.

Dr. Harrington was elected to head the consortium by the board of governors at its first formal meeting, October 29, held at Cal Poly, Pomona. Six sister campuses in the Southland, which with CSCSB form the consortium, and the Bureau of Land Management, were represented at the meeting. CSCSB representatives were Ruth Wilson, Joseph K. Thomas and Leonard Farwell.

The center is now ready to accommodate around 30 overnight visitors at a time on field trips, states Dr. Harrington. Plans are proceeding for developing research facilities.
