WINTER APPLICATIONS
STILL BEING ACCEPTED

There is still time to enroll for the Winter Quarter, according to Cheryl Weese, Admissions Officer. Applications will be accepted for all undergraduate degree programs and all graduate programs except the M.S. in Clinical Psychology.

Prospective students whose application forms are received by 5 p.m. today will be given a regular priority number for registration. However, new students will be accepted through the registration period, January 3 and 4. Applicants submitting applications after December 3 must make an appointment to see Ms. Weese and will register for classes on January 4.

CONCERT BAND
PRESENTS VARIED
PROGRAM SUNDAY

Band music originating from Germany, Mexico, Brazil and Japan and a liturgical selection will be highlighted in a program presented by the College Concert Band 7:30 Sunday evening, December 5, in PS-10.

"Liturgical Music for Band" and "Second Symphony for Band" open the program, followed by C.P.E. Bach's "Four Marches from the Court of Frederick the Great" and "Zacatecas," by G. Codina, one of the most famous Mexican marches. The rhythms characteristic of Brazilian dances will be heard in "Bailada," by Jean Berger. The concluding selection is a Japanese folk song suite, "Warabe-Uta" by Bin Kaneda.

Arthur Moorefield directs the 35-piece band. The concert is open to the College and the public without charge.

RARE BOOK COLLECTION
ACQUIRED BY COLLEGE

A collection of 1,410 books, secured from all corners of the earth, some dating from 1630, has been acquired by the College Library. The collection of Henrietta Heltzel, sold to the library by her sister, is considered an extremely valuable collection, according to Peter Briscoe, Library Bibliographer. It includes books with beautiful illustrations. One volume has delicately handpainted flowers.

There are a number of small handbound books, limited editions of well known
