Lincoln's Birthday Non-Holiday
3-DAY WEEKEND COMING FOR
WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

Lincoln's Birthday, February 12, an authorized State holiday, falls on a Saturday this year and will not be officially observed by the College.

On Monday, February 21, however, the College will be closed for an academic and administrative holiday in observance of George Washington's Birthday, resulting in a three-day weekend for College personnel and students.

This year marks the fourth year that the College has set aside the actual date or the officially recognized date of Washington's Birthday for observance. In other years, five in fact, it was taken as an in-lieu holiday and in others, either it fell on a Saturday or was not observed.

BOOKSTORE BUILDING,
NEXT CAMPUS ADDITION

The next building to be added to the rapidly growing campus scene is the 5,000-sq. ft. College Bookstore.

Within ten days, final drawings are expected to be completed, making it possible for bids to be advertised in about three or four weeks. If favorable bids are received, somewhere within the architect's estimate of $163,000, a contract for construction could be awarded the first part of March.

The project is financed with non-State funds through the College Foundation and will be located on the east side of the walkway to the Administration Building from the Parking Lot and north of the perimeter road.

The area currently occupied by the Bookstore in the Fine Arts Building will be converted for use by the Art Department which will eventually take over the entire building, following completion of the Creative Arts Building and subsequent moves of the Music and Drama Departments.

CREATIVE ARTS BUILDING
OFF LIMITS 'TIL SPRING

The contractor of the Creative Arts Building, Nick Pokrajac, Inc., reports an excessive amount of foot traffic in the building by members of the College Community. Although understandably interested in the fine, new structure, all spectators and unauthorized personnel are informed by Vice President J.K. Thomas that the building is off-limits and he requests that all such persons keep out of the building during the remaining two or three months of construction.

The building is scheduled for completion in late Spring.

23 ITEMS ON "MOST WANTED" LIST FOR CHILD CARE CENTER

Make a child happy today. Do you spot an item listed below which you have and can donate to the Infant or Child Care Center?

The staff has prepared a wish list of items it badly needs for use at the center: area rugs, play pens, high chairs, cribs, pillows, plants, dress-up clothes, old shirts, pictures, old magazines, material, blankets, dolls, books, bulletin board, rocking chairs, dish pans, measuring cups (plastic or tin), baby food jars, curtains, cardboard boxes, Baskin Robbins cartons and large rugs.

Fifteen infants and toddlers are currently enrolled in the College's new Infant Care Center which opened last Monday. More are expected. To aid the staff in caring for the infants and making the babies content, donations of the above listed items would be gratefully received. Call 887-2095 for information.

RETIREMENT AND SOCIAL SECURITY CLINICS TO START

To assist College employees to plan for future retirement and to obtain the most accurate and up-to-date information, the College has arranged for field representatives from Public Employees Retirement System and Social Security Administration to conduct seminars on campus, on the following dates:

P.E.R.S. - February 10, 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.
Social Security - February 15, 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

All sessions of the clinic will be held in the Lower Commons and will last around one hour. Release time from work assignments, subject to departmental approval, has been authorized by the Administrative Council for employees who wish to attend.

The seminar is aimed at providing employees with a complete picture of what the entire retirement program includes.
