OPEN HOUSE AND TOURS OF CREATIVE ARTS BUILDING SET FOR NEXT TUESDAY

Tours of the new Creative Arts Building next Tuesday, June 7, will begin at the lobby entrance on the east side of the building (facing the Commons).

In order to give the campus community a preview of the new facility, the tours are scheduled from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. The tours, which take approximately a half hour, will begin at the lobby door every 15 minutes.

Drama and music majors will conduct the mid-day tours. The College tour guides will lead the evening visitors, with music and drama majors stationed throughout the building to explain special features.

The tours are part of an open house planned to acquaint the College with its newest building.

The building will not be officially occupied until this summer, although two music productions will be presented in the recital hall this month. They are "Four Saints in Three Acts," presented by the Chamber Orchestra and Concert Choir at 8 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, June 4 and 5, and the Concert Band program at 4 p.m., Sunday, June 12.

CSCSB CHAMBER ORCHESTRA
RECEIVES NATIONAL AWARD

The College's Chamber Orchestra, directed by Richard Saylor, Prof., Music, is receiving a national award for "adventure-some programming of contemporary music."

The honor, which is accompanied by a plaque and a $100 check, is from the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. Each year the Symphony and Concert Committee of ASCAP recognizes those orchestras and conductors who have done the most in the past year to promote contemporary music in their communities. The CSCSB Chamber Orchestra was one of 20 honored in seven categories, with prizes totalling more than $13,000. The $100 award will be used for music scholarships.

The prizes will be awarded during the 32nd annual national conference of the American Symphony Orchestra League in New Orleans June 24.

DRAMA WORKSHOP
FOR HIGH SCHOOLS
SET FOR TOMORROW

Approximately 150 students from 10 inland empire high schools will take part in an all-day drama workshop on campus tomorrow. Each school will present a 20-minute scene, to be critiqued by a panel including Stuart Campbell, Valley College drama instructor; Collin Cameron, CSCSB graduate in drama; and Bruce Bilson, television and film director. William Slout, Prof., Drama, will be the moderator.

The workshop will begin at 8:30 in the Fine Arts Building. Included in the day's program are luncheon in the Commons and a tour of the new Creative Arts Building.

Amanda Rudisill, Assoc. Prof., Drama, is coordinating the workshop.

 Music

OPERA. FIRST FARE OFFERED IN NEW CA BLDG. RECITAL HALL

The first fare to be presented in the new 250-seat recital hall of the Creative Arts Building is an opera, "Four Saints in Three Acts," music by Virgil Thomson and libretto by Gertrude Stein. The unusual musical production will be performed by the Concert Choir and Chamber Orchestra at 8 p.m. in the recital hall, Saturday and Sunday, June 4 and 5.

The oratorio version of the opera will be directed by Richard Saylor, Professor of Music.

A cast of 24, including students and faculty, are in rehearsal for the opera in the facility designed as a recital hall with acoustics especially suited for musical presentations.

Tickets are still available for all performances. Admission is $1.50. Free tickets will be available to students and children with identification at the box office. Call Music Department, Ext. 7454, FA-102 for ticket information.

SOUSA AND "MUSIC MAN" SELECTIONS TO BE PLAYED BY CAL STATE CONCERT BAND

+
Highlights from Meredith Willson's "The Music Man" and John Philip Sousa's "Semper Fidelis" will be among the selections played by the CSCSB Concert Band Sunday afternoon, June 12.

The College and public are invited to the free concert, which begins at 4 p.m. in the recital hall of the Creative Arts Building.

Guest conductor Larry Roberson, Lecturer in Music, will direct the Sousa and Willson compositions and others by Texidor, Giovannini and Grundman.

The Concert Band director, Arthur Moorefield, Chairman of the Music Department, will conduct "Grand Serenade for an Awful Lot of Winds and Percussion, Tastefully Adapted to the Modern Concert Band by Peter Schickele."
