Lehman was born in Mansura, Louisiana on October 10, 1905. In preparation for the holy ministry, he was ordained by the Immanuel Lutheran College and Seminary in North Carolina. Upon graduation in 1930, he accepted the call to St. Paul’s Lutheran Church in Selma, Alabama; St. Paul’s Lutheran Church in Tuscaloosa, Alabama as pastor and teacher and Christ Lutheran Church, in Roebuck, Alabama.

On June 5, 1951, Rev. Lehman married the former Lil­ lion B. Evans and the union was blessed with children, Harvey, Lillian and Phillip. In 1964 Rev. Lehman was called to St. Matthew’s congregation in Bal­ timore, Maryland and then to Our Saviour’s in Buffalo, New York where he served 10 years. His then small congregation rapidly outgrew its facilities and they were able to purchase a larger edifice to accommodate a much larger membership.

In October of 1965 he was called to Los Angeles, California where he accepted the call to St. Paul’s Evangelical Lutheran Church, succeeding his brother, the late Rev. D. Lehman. During the many years of fruitful service to the Lord and his church, Rev. Lehman’s office held in three districts of the Lutheran Church—Synod: Conference chairman of the San Diego District; Pastoral Advisor for the Lutheran Laymen’s Missionary League; and in the Eastern District, to be Chap­ lain for the Lutheran Services Commission, Western New York.

Rev. Lehman began his Chaplaincy work in Los Ange­ les, 1971, serving the California Lutheran Hospital, and then to the LA County Hospital for 10 years. In recognition for his many faithful services to the Lord and his church, Chaplain Lehman was granted the Legi­ slative Seminary conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1975.

After his retirement from St. Paul’s, he was Chaplain at the Los Angeles Hospitals. He was a member of the Los Angeles Missionary League, and the NCNW ‘s commitment to reinforcing the historic strengths and traditional values of Doctor of Divinity in 1975.

It’s always a good idea to flush your radiator and add fresh coolant before heading out on the road during hot summer days. Excessive travel, take your vehicle to a mechanic for a complete brake check-up. 5. Assemble an emergency kit—now is the time to put together an emergency road kit filled with supplies that could help you out if a car goes mad.

Nine Annual Bethune-DuBois Dinner Honors Pioneers

The Bethune-DuBois Fund recently held its Nineth Annual Awards Dinner in Washington, D.C. Presiding over this grand occasion was the meaningful manner of ceremony Mr. Jesse Hill, Chair of the Bethune-DuBois Fund and Atlanta Life Insurance Co.

Honoraries included former Congresswoman Shirley Chisholm; distinguished jurist and author A. Leon Higginbotham, Congresswoman Karen Milam, Chairman of the Congressional Black Caucus; and Myrlie Evers-Williams, widow of slain civil rights leader Medgar Evers.

Distiguished presence of the 1994 Bethune-DuBois Awards were: the Honorable Mike Espy, Secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture; the Honorable Eleanor Holmes Norton, United States House of Representatives; and the Honorable Carol Mosley-Braun, United States Senator.

Dr. C. Delores Tucker, President of the Bethune-DuBois Fund, gave the statement of occasion to the over 500 people in attendance. Dr. Tucker, eloquently in her remarks, ended by stating the vision of the Bethune-DuBois Fund..."To create and expand career opportunities and provide financial support to young minority Americans to develop their highest potential..."

John Johnson Gives New Life to Classic Hymns

I asked what makes a song great, and everyone probably would agree it’s the lyrics. But don’t tell that to the Johnsons. As one of the headlining performers at 11:00 a.m. in the Music Tent, Johnson’s music is celebrating the power that the Holy Spirit has over both music and words.

Johnson’s latest release on Intercedent Jazz features two new renditions of classic hymns—"Wade in the Water," as sung to me and said, "Donald, you and I are going to put together an album of gospel hymns we love. In fact, I want you to come record with me." (Donald, you and I are going to put together an album of gospel hymns we love. In fact, I want you to come record with me.

As soon as it became known Donald was going to be recording his new album, everyone wanted his attention. But Donald was soon to learn that the hits alone were not enough. "After a while one of the pastor’s came to me and said, ‘Donald, you play what you want to continue playing here. You’re going to have to be saved and receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.’ I didn’t know what they meant, but when they explained it to me, I agreed and asked them to help me with it."

That’s when the financial help of friends and his wife, and money he was able to save from a job in the mail room of the Santa Monica Metro, Donald didn’t want his first CD and cassette tape which began to sell immediately. After selling over 10,000 units completely on its own, Donald suddenly found lots of industry interest in him and his Gospel-Jazz

Is My Question?

Whether or not your "question" is a problem or a challenge, there are so many things that need to be done in church. It is a question of how you position for God. Let’s look at this question a few different ways.

Eleven Qualify for Jr. Olympics

The Moreno Valley Rockets Track Club is a local club serving youth, ages 6 to 18 years of age. The Rockets pride themselves in British Entertainment and are not focused on winning, but is also has an agenda to instil self-esteem, self-worth, self-confidence and team spirit in the youth. It teaches youth to always do their best, and if defeated, they are no less as a person; to feel good after they have completed their event and to always give 100 percent. Hard work is the order of the day for the Rockets who use the Valley View High School track as their training base. With a staff of dedicated, volunteer coaches, who themselves were accomplished and recognized track stars, the Rockets work hard to become proficient in their individual track and field events. The Rockets are taught how to eat an athlete’s diet and the power of rest and eating healthy. Their hard work paid off as California State University at Long Beach on June 3-4 where the Junior Olympics Preliminary Meet was held. Numerous track clubs came together to have their athletes compete for 12 hours, per event that they were qualified to compete in the finals which was held on July 11 (again in Long Beach). Eleven Rockets qualified and will now compete for the final three slots, per event that will qualify them to travel to the prestigious Junior Olympics to be held in Gatlinburg, Florida, July 25th thru August 1st.

The City of Moreno Valley should be exceeding proud of these youth as they have represented our city well. As they travel to Gatlinburg, Florida in a couple of weeks, again the name Moreno Valley, CA will be on the lips of many who will witness these athletes in heavy action. Persons interested in contacting the Moreno Valley Rockets Track Club with questions, donations, or even words of encouragement can contact the following. Special projects for the Florida trip can contact Al Phanox at (909) 247-1414. -

KNBC Pays Tribute To Black Music Legends

A Tribute To Black Music Legends, a one-hour, musical gala, special paying tribute to the artistic achievements of the renowned music legends Louis Armstrong, Josephine Baker, Marvin Gaye and Billie Holiday. The program airs Sunday, July 28th at 10:00 AM on KNBC-UFF Channel 4. This music extravaganza is being produced as a Black Music month special and will be hosted by Phyllis Rashad and Robert Townsend. Some of the evening’s highlights will include exclusive footage (seen for the first time in the United States of Marvin Gaye during his exile in Germany), live performances will include contemporary artists such as Patti Austin and Michael McDonald performing musical selections by Billie Holiday and Louis Armstrong. Another addition to the evening’s highlights will be a collection of musical pictorial essays. The production will feature performances from four different songs, each depicting the style and era of such legends. This evening of musical entertainment will capture a disciplined melodic structure of Louis Armstrong’s spontaneous musical expression, as well as images of the unforget-table international star Josephine Baker, who came to be known as “The sexually liberated, sexually independent, woman of Paris”. The show will also depict the vibrant spirit and vitality of Marvin Gaye’s memo-rable persona throughout his career. In addition, a Salute to Black Music Legends, is being produced and directed by BET’S Curtis Gideon and distributed by Bank Of Entertainment. BESLA’s Mid Year Conference Breaks Records

"ENORMOUSLY ENTERTAINING!" FUNKY AND IRRESISTIBLE, A DREAM OF A HIT. -

"A COMEDIC FIELD OF DREAMS" THAT SOARS WITH HEAVENLY DELIGHT -

"ANGELS IN THE OUTFIELD" TURNS ON THE LAUGHTER" -
"Listen more often to things than to being! Hear the voice of fear! Hear the voice of water! Listen in the wind! The bush that is not a bush! This is the ancestor's breath, the breathing of our forefathers!" Birago Diop, "Sprit" 1967.

ARE YOU LISTENING? Our national TV is a lesson to America. We have advertised the United States of America as a nation that worships God, the horrible crime that was demonstrated to America too many people in this nation, we want to enjoy it, I must practice the values of our local school systems. The youth of America have been taught that money is not the goal and objectives of your local school systems. Society doesn't seem to care how much money is earned, how it is earned or acquired. Example, the comic books that are sold to our children, promoters put books and other items on the market in local convenience stores as soon as possible. The many jokes being used in view of two young people's death is not the goal and objectives of your local school systems. TV is a training method for the growth of America, we have exposed our children and families to so much violence, that the tragedy that happened in L.A. made me think that I was looking at a regular TV program. The difference was, I was looking at a trial that was for real, and a young man and woman for their lives, and out of our outstanding young men is accused of committing the crime. We all pray and hope that many people will turn their lives over to the Lord and the leading figures in this case will lead the way. As a result of what has happened, some positive results are possible. We must look for positive results if we are to survive as a nation. The one cannot survive allowing other people to make your own plans, you, discard your own vision which you believe." James Baldwin, "Nobody knows My Name" 1961.

We cannot afford to allow the promoters of hatred, racism, deceit and crime to capitalize on an incident (crime) of this magnitude. We are all in this together, and God is real.

"Every man and woman is an object of wonder and joy in the heart of the Superbowl, than it is not too much to expect that some day all wrongs will be righted and justice will prevail." Milan Malan, "My Story," 1997.

God provided leadership which he taught to man, as he gives them authority over animals, however, not other human beings. My opinion is that God's plan, we must not in other make a slave of ourselves. All of our opinions we must face all daily challenges with integrity, character and faith.

We pray that one lesson we have learned is, regardless of who I am or my position in life, if I want to enjoy it, I must practice and follow the teachings and objectives of the Lord.

"Doesn't It Bother You?" I am concerned that our government continues to spend a major portion of their funds in showing our children how to disrespect each other, their parents, and steal and kill. This is shown right in the hoth, and you can rant. When something of this magnitude happens in real life, we are all shocked when our children are shown how to commit murder and other crimes every day.

Why not spend an equal amount of time teaching human citizenship, self respect, responsibility, and loving care. All of us will lead the way. If our goals and objectives would be to help make the world a better place to live.

San Andreas Teacher Brings Soul To Class

Quinn Harris

Chances are if you walk by Quinn Harris' classroom at San Andreas High School, you'll hear a soft R&B melody floating around. He has performed with Lou Rawls, Peabo Bryson, B.B. King, and on many other recording projects and even appeared on Johnny Carson's Tonight Show, Bob Hope's Special and the Santa fe, Chile World Music Festi­val. Mr. Harris proudly remem­ber, "It is an honor and a plea­sure to work with greats." His peak performing years were between 1970 and 1984. When asked why he gave up the exciting life as a touring musician he says, "When you're hot, you're hot! But when you're not, you're not!" He continued, "After a while, you feel like giving something back, and music is like a kid eating candy - it takes all there aren't any nutrients." Mr. Har­ris enjoys teaching and music the same. "I like them both 50/50, days and even exhilarat­ing," he added.

Mr. Harris education includes a certificate of com­pletion from Berklee College of Music and an A.B. from UCR. He was also a producer for Guilmer Records and an arranger for Capital Records. He has a deep love and music appreciation for San Andreas High School where he is a part of the San Bernardino City Uni­formed school District.

Sen. Feinstein Speaks At Local Elementary School
Cheryl Brown
Editor

A n indelible look at the growing problem of crime and its effect on the community was the focus of a visit by U.S. Senator Dianne Feinstein last week.

She met with dozens of public officials, elected and appointed, as well as their staff at an early morning continental breakfast and later with parents and community leaders.

At the San Bernardino Gang and Drug Prevention Task Force, Feinstein heard from those involved on every level and all of the presenters expressed a well-rounded view of the problem.

After an introduction by Supervisor Jerry Eaves, Dr. Herb Fischer, Superintendent of Colton Schools, briefed Feinstein on the overall focus of the Task Force. He was followed by Woody Williams, Executive Director of the Sheriff’s Office, who spoke of how that larger view of the Task Force was translated into a partnership that works in a high crime area. Williams stated that the Rio Vista Partnership is a program with accountability, a partnership driven by the community.

"It will be worked from school to school and neighborhood to neighborhood and we will solve this problem in our state," said Eaves.

Hardy Brown, Rio Vista Partnership Chair, and John Burton of the County Superintendent of Schools focused on how the Partnership works. Burton gave the statistical model information and spoke of the survey and how surprised the police department was when they found a large number of residents appreciated them.

Brown spoke of the frustration the community felt before this Partnership came along. New things are happening. "Rio Vista never had a summer school, this year they do. They are using older youth to tutor the younger students." The community wants to explore getting stipends for these students. Unemployment is very high in the area and is a major factor that leads to other problems.

Brown said, "There is a strong undercurrent that people in our community do not get a return on their tax dollars. They pay taxes too."

Judge Pat Morris asked for more drug treatment money. He spoke of the rise in mothers with families who are incarcerated, and those who have drug habits. The drug problem is at the core of these incarcerations. He spoke of the logic of the "three strikes you’re out" legislation and that he had his first case last week. The jury found the defendant, accused of stealing a VCR, not guilty on the grounds he was his third offense and he would have gotten life imprisonment. "We passed a law that the community will ignore," Morris commented.

Feinstein, who has earned a reputation of being a good listener, took in the information and asked questions about how she could help change the situation. She spoke of her crime bill, one of the main focuses being the abolishment of the assault weapon. "The problem with this kind of weapons is that it doesn't need to be aimed to maim and kill large numbers of people. It has no purpose but to kill people. We don't need it in America."

Upon leaving the morning session she saw a demonstration of the "Great Computer," a tracking and enforcement tool of officers that utilizes a nationwide data base to track gang members.

While Feinstein was at Rio Vista Elementary School she was introduced to the student body by Dr. Dunn De Bruhl, the newly appointed Principal, who had briefed the students on the importance of the visit. As Feinstein was quizzing the students, she asked if all the students knew they could be a Mayor or Supervisor. One Caucasian student said, "No." She told him why Dr. Dunn De Bruhl, the newly appointed Principal, who had briefed the students on the importance of the visit. As Feinstein was quizzing the students, she asked if all the students knew they could be a Mayor or Supervisor. One Caucasian student said, "No." She told him why.

"Because his mother had been in jail two times. Someone must have called the parents because both came to the school very angry saying it was a lie. Allegedly, the father admitted he was the one who had been to jail. Although he stated that he has conquered his problems, he gave Feinstein a piece of his mind. He, reportedly said the government kept families apart. When there is a problem, the first thing they (the government) do is take the kids. They should get the family some help instead of separating them.

The students had questions for Feinstein. They wanted to know how she could stop the guns and shooting of children. Also, what could she do to make schools better and get rid of gangs. She told them about her crime bill and said she was going to promulgate fair share of Chapter I funds.

Feinstein then left to see the Glenwood Community Housing Project in Redlands and toured the Loma Linda University Medical Center. She was joined by Congressteam George Brown.

North explodes for three second half touchdowns to earn a 28-7 victory in the All-Star Classic IX game.

RIVERSIDE: Standing on the North sideline in the midst of the 9th Annual Riverside County All-Star Classic held at Riverside Community College's Wheelock Field, the North players' enthusiasm climaxed to a feverish pitch. The players were now putting their fun and games routine aside; because it was "winnie's" time.

"The game means a lot and it feels good to be one of the best in the county," said running back Donnell Willmon of Rubidoux and the South squad. "Danniel (Edwards, Willmon's teammate at Rubidoux) and I really want to win this game."

In the first half Edwards tried his best to ram Willmon's words into reality. The South scored first on a 11-yard scamper by Riverside Arlington wide receiver Kevin Morrow. Morrow's score came in the first quarter and was the culmination of a 61 yard drive that took just under eight minutes. Edwards quarterbacked the drive with precision and "purpose and accounted for 34 of the 61 yards - 21 yard rush and 13 yard on a pass completion."

After the first quarter drive, reality set in as Rubidoux coach Wayne Cochran's South squad was held to only 46 second half yards during the next three quarters of play.

North coach Gary Harvey of Beaumont got his team even with the South in the second quarter via the pass. Fullback Troy Davis and Mike Barnes completing a 48-yard pass and catch sequence.

Steve Campbell (#8) quarterbacked the South to its only touchdown.

The game was produced by the Sports Foundation, but support from the community is needed, too. One of the main sponsors of high school athletics and any positive youth endeavor for that matter is Nick Tavaglione.

This year's game, as has the prior events, awarded four scholarships. Two Spiris Medicine scholarships were awarded; one to Las Torns of Canyon Springs and another to graduate Jennifer Bevans. Also, two Sports Foundation scholarships were awarded; to Corona's Fred Figueroa and Canyon Springs' Nathan Mutter.
