PENNARIO CONCERT BEGINS
YEAR-LONG DEDICATION

Tonight the premiere performance opening the year-long dedication of the new Creative Arts Building will feature the world famous pianist Leonard

Pennario in concert in the Recital Hall.

In the years of his adult professional career, Pennario has performed in the world's major recital halls, with the greatest orchestras and in a long list of bestselling records.

A reception following the 8:00 p.m. concert, hosted by the Arrowhead Allied Arts Council, will be held in the music courtyard.

A special concert exclusively for faculty, staff and students will be given at noon today by the renowned artist. Tickets for this special performance are available at the Music Dept. office (CA-175) until noon. Tickets for tonight's concert will be available at the President's Office until 5:00 p.m.

EXHIBIT FEATURES
FRONTIER PHOTOGRAPHS

Photographs of frontier America are being featured in an exhibit displayed on the first and fourth floors of the Library throughout the month of October.

Developed especially for the Bicentennial celebration by the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service, the display includes more than 100 rare images documenting life in the American Southwest and Northwest during the years 1860-1915.

The exhibit may be viewed by the public during Library hours.

William Ackerman (Geography) has been appointed to the Southern Calif. Assn. of Governments' Advisory Committee for Water Quality Management Planning Program by Kenneth C. Topping, Planning Director of San Bernardino County Environmental Improvement Agency. Dr. Ackerman will serve a two year term.
