Blacks Fired In Government; More Than Whites

BY WILLIAM REED, NNPA Director of Communications

W hen the private sector would not hire me, I would hire me, and the tradition has become that the employer for Blacks to turn. Now, based on a new study that dramatically differs the fact that African-Americans are being fired from federal jobs at a rate that is substantially higher than that of Whites, the National Urban League has called for renewed efforts by the federal government to curtail workplace discrimination. The report, "Blacks in Government: A Wake of a Commission on Workforce Development," was recently released by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and the Seattle-based President-CEO of the National Urban League said, "The statistics indicate that there are underlying the need for a more intensive approach to the problem that is now being pursued. It is important to recognize that the symptoms are not the problem and the bias of supervisors who make decisions differently than the competition is the race." Eason also stated, "The government has not been actively enforcing its laws or enforcing its laws in a consistent way. The government is not using the courts to face the issues of accountability, and a pervasive attitude toward discriminatory hiring policies. Eason says that even though many government agencies have initiated programs whereas more Blacks are being employed, it is a revolving door because supervisors are discharging Blacks for "minor" offenses. Federal managers say the major reason for the large number of firings is that they tend to be less educated and concentrated in low-level clerks to senior executives. BI at Black workers were fired from federal government payrolls in 1992, three times the rate of Whites. In a letter to President Clinton, the OPM recommended to the President for renewed efforts to increase the minority and the bias of supervisors who make decisions differently than the competition is the race," Eason also stated that, "The government has not been actively enforcing its laws or enforcing its laws in a consistent way. The government is not using the courts to face the issues of accountability, and a pervasive attitude toward discriminatory hiring policies. Public Service Ads Urge Parents and All Adults to Seek a "Cease Fire!" in Gun War Against Children

Working Together We Can

By Charles Ledbetter

"The ability to know what is the right thing to do in a given circumstance, and then to act accordingly," Howard Thurman, Mediation to the Presidential Conference on Race Relations, said. "We all have ability. The difference is how we use it." Steve Woneck, Growing Up in a World of Darkness.

Together, We Can: As a member of an important team (School Board), I am seeking ways to affect the safety of the children. The trend of programming your area is being exposed on public television. I feel that at least an equal time should be given to programs that promote thinking, family interaction and respect for other humans as we have been taught the value of well-meaning education. It is very important that your students respect and care for, and trust each other. There are no degrees of human dignity. Either one respects another as a person or he does not."

Censure of Violence Against Children

"A crisis, which is tearing so many arguments into ties. The sequence ended with a dramatic call to 'clap as we approach the end of the Sabbath,'" said Jenee against children Over firearms pose to children: American soil, and this time againBlack Churches, "The religious community must continue to focus our voices as the conscience of the nation. Among those agents of change and advocacy that we must use is the right to arm itself and maintain our rights. It is a right to learn from scripture to turn our weapons to plowshares and our swords to plowshares," Jenee prevention programs which was prepared by the Urban Strategies Council, the CDF's third annual National Observance of Children's Sabbath, to the eagerness of 150 denominations and religious organizations. Thousands of households across America were expected to participate in CDF's Sabbath celebration and education programs on this "wailing wall" theme of violence against children Over 40,000 "how-to-kits" on developing Sabbaths celebrations were requested from CDF.

Children's Defense Fund President Marian Wright Edelman said: "The marketing of guns to and adults is no coincidence, but the lies we've been told.

"When the promoters of television see this change of attitudes and behavior, they provide us with programs that promote violence, their destruction of the home is 18 times more than the number of children who CDF estimates have died by firearms in the past year.

CDF attributes the over 55,000 deaths each year of children to the loss of the homes, streets, schools, and parks. The number of children who have been killed by firearms in 1993, California (903), Texas (551), and New York (371) led the list. The number of deaths of African American boys in the Black Community Crusade for Violence Prevention programs, averaging 40 per day, is 10 times the number of Vietnamese Americans who have been killed by gunfire in the past year.

"One of the campaign's most powerful print presentations, which asks parents to take the pledge to prevent violence and protect their young children from guns and gun accidents, is a photographic campaign that shows pictures of children's faces and the words: 'My child was killed by a gun. It happened. Don't let it happen to your child,'" Edelman said. "Claude and Edelman. Parents need to remember that guns not only kill children and hurt residential communities, they also serve as a weapon of violence. They are, at the same time, a weapon of violence against women."

At a news conference in Washington, D.C., Edelman displayed a number of advertisements in which gun manufacturers targeted products to women. "Women say they want to clean up their homes, live in safer neighborhoods and put an end to violence. They say violence affects children's understanding of unfairness."

Edelman said: "We are asking you to do your part."

Turkey Tactics

Stuff it only when you are ready to put it in the oven. Incidentally, cooking the stuffing separately is easier and faster.

Don't let your turkey sit around after dinner. Remove the stuffing from the cavity and refrigerate it separately.

If your bird is frozen, defrost it in the refrigerator. If possible, allow a day for a turkey, two days for a chicken. It is better to have a dry bird than a wet one.

Roast the turkey at 325 degrees Fahrenheit. Remember, internal temperature with both stuffing and turkey should reach 165 degrees. Slow cooking overnight or 200 degrees is not safe because this allows bacterial growth.

Don't stuff the bird early.

Accents On Weddings By Kitty Ariza

With so many second and third marriages, and all of the couples getting married have step-parents where the divorce was not so amicable, sometimes there can be a dispute who walks the bride down the aisle or the two mothers participating in the wedding. I stand before in previous articles that weddings today are very unique. One bride that I know of go 21 years with her mother and stepfather for 10 years and she loved him very much. She also maintained a relationship with her biological father whom she also loved very much. She did not want to either one of them by choosing one over the other to walk her down the aisle because they both felt they had the right. So let them both give her away at wedding, which was quite a bit of fun. Everyone was hand it solved.

You will find out that weddings can bring out the worst in people, Big egos, connivance, disagreements. On your wedding day you should not have to be an estimator or mediator. If you feel there could be a problem with friends and ex-in-laws in either family as well as the attendants, talk to the involved people and try to iron out the potential problems such as seating arrangements, because you don't want to go by what people socially correct. Also, discuss the roles of your close friends at your wedding. I have talked to couples who did not openly communicate with their families, who had some hostile feelings toward other members of the family because of divorce. They just did what they thought was socially correct and it turned out to be a disaster. Sometimes no matter what, you cannot please everyone and you may have the dreaded task of eliminating certain people from the wedding. My own daughter married a few months ago and the groom's father first wife, step daughter, and fiancé were there, plus my ex-husband's widowed wife. Everyone got along very well. They laughed, cried, danced together and had a very good time. Weeks after the wedding I was getting calls and people were talking about the great time they had at the wedding and were amazed at how all the ch's got along. A wedding celebration is just that, a celebration to eliminate social problems in the early stages of planning your wedding.

God Sends A Home For St. Rest M.B.C.

BY CHERYL BROWN BVN

St. Rest Missionary Baptist Church, was in search of a church home when, God sent a messenger to tell them about a place located at 2525 Etiwanda Street, on the Hidalgo bench area of San Bernardino, said its pastor Rev. Cornelious George, Jr.

"I went into the church on Communion Sunday and there were only three people there; however, the communion table was set for four. It was like they were expecting me," said Rev. George.

"I had the feeling that God was directing my life in an unusual way," he said. God must direct the lives of those especially that he puts in leadership positions, but this, he explained was even more intense.

Following the service Rev. George and Gene Wynn, the pastor of the facility, began to talk. The pastor told him the neighborhood had changed, former members moved away and the congregation had dwindled so he wanted to sell the church with everything in tact. There were pews, an organ, piano, even dishes and flat wear, everything and the offer was for half of his original asking price.

The former minister of the church explained someone had given him a check as a down payment and when it bounced he knew it was not God's plan for that particular Church to be located there. St. Rest was my church back home and that's why we named it," said Rev. George.

Before pastoring his own church, Rev. George was Associate Minister under the pastorage of the late Rev. Harding T. Dion of Greater Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in San Bernardino. He has been a minister for 16 years, he is married to Hazel and the have one child, Latise.

Church locations are at a premium in the Inland Empire because of the sudden growth in the area. Many churches are in building programs or are remodeling their present facility. "Word" churches, usually non-denominational, more integrated and non-tradition-

Lin Wood's Gospel Visions, Gospel TV Show Wins White Diamond Award

Move over Liz Taylor, the White Diamond Award has been given to Liz Woods. Selecting the winner out of 43 entrants from across the country, Woods received the top award for overall excellence in radio and television programming, the White Diamond Award, at the 1994 Diamond Festival presented by BET's Bobby Jones in Las Vegas.

Currently on hiatus, Gospel Visions is a 30 minute music video show which features videos by major and up and coming gospel artists, industry celebrities, interviews, plus a top 10 countdown. The show is broadcast on Christian Television in Los Angeles, CA. "Gospel Visions is the show for it with Christians and others who would like to be," says Woods. The show's goal is to reach the masses with messages that touch, inspire, evoke emotions and send a message of hope.

Lin Woods is no newcomer to the Gospel Industry. The variety radio personality is also the host and Co-writer/Producer of the Gospel Visions show, featuring the gospel's top artists. Artists such as Edwin Hawkins, the Sounds of Blackness and Commissioned have all been seen on Gospel Visions.

"She blends contemporary with traditional, and it works," Woods said as a Gosple Visions host. Commissioned has interviewed many of gospel's top artists. Artists such as Edwin Hawkins, the Sounds of Blackness and Commissioned have all been seen on Gospel Visions.

"It's a faith-based program," Woods said. "We've worked to promote Gospel, bring it to the forefront of the industry. After winning the White Diamond Award, Bobby Jones asked her to serve in the first president of the Diamond Festival. According to syndicated gospel columnist, Lisa Collins, Woods has created a gospel show with a program that is both timely and meets the need for gospel's traditional foundation. The blend continues with...

God Is Interested In Your Financial Condition

QUESTION: Dear Dr. Woods, I have many bills and no income if I pray to God about them, will He help? Are they evil? Is it wrong to pray about money? ANSWER: Dear Reader, No! Where in the Bible does God ever say He will not answer your prayer because it is wrong? On the contrary, He really helps you to prosper financially. Blessed financially means to have ALL the things that you may require, but be on top! God does not want you to be a giver, but how can you give if you don't have? I encourage you to search Psalms 90:17 and see God's promises and see that God wants to meet all your needs (Philippians 4:19) and cause you to prosper (Isaiah 63:10, Malachi 3:10, Joshua 1:8, etc.)..."

Raiders On Upward Climb Beat Saints; UCLA Sacks USC

By ELAINE STEIN III

BVN Sports Editor

LOS ANGELES - The Raiders who many prognosticators predicted would be in the running for a Super Bowl berth, are not talking loud about this lofty goal yet, but as a least thinking about the possibility of getting back into the playoff running.

After going up the 500 mark with a 2-17 victory over the didn’t New Orleans Saints (4-7) in their 42-17 win Saturday at the Coliseum, the Raiders are indeed back in the playoff hunt.

"We are in the stretch now and everyone is excited about it," said Raider’s defensive end Anthony Smith. "We have been doing this all year, but injuries stopped us."

"It seems obvious to many."

The mood around the Raiders’ locker room was upbeat and confident about the remainder of the season. "I think we were out played and our handling early in the sea-son," noted Raider rookie linebacker Bob Friddicknik from Michigan State. "But now we are focused and are ready to move onward and upward.

Add end All-Star defensive back Terry McDaniel, who intercepted his seventh past of the season: "The front seven played great. I liked the way we are making things happen and we are getting back to where we want to be now."

The Raiders took a commanding 24-7 lead into the final 10 minutes of the fourth quarter, on the strength of two defensive touchdowns (12 and 30 yards) and a Rockin’ Ismail 17-yard score.

Raiders mental lapses made the game closer than it should have been, but a win any way you can get it is positive. But, the team was aware that they can not let quality teams back into a game and expect to win. "We have to stop making mental mistakes," said Raider back Harvey Williams. "If we are going to be a championship team, we have to bury teams when we get them down."

Add end All-Star defensive end Robert Jenkins, who put the game in the right context. "We always have to make it a drama."

PASSadena - UCLA played and won in Rose Bowl. No it was not the official Rose Bowl game played on New Years day, but don’t tell the UCLA Bruins it wasn’t just as important or could feel any better.

UCLA knows as a basket- ball school - and with good rea- son - has now beaten the school. USC - known as a football school for four consecutive times, after its 31-19 dumping of the Trojans at the Rose Bowl before 91,815.

Going into the game USC had a chance at the Roses, but it was not a close game, because the Oregon Ducks won their game and will represent the Pac-10 on New Year's Day. Still the fans of lining to the Bruins again, is very present in the selective Trojan’ locker room.

"They just beat us and read the first plays when they had to," noted USC’s safety Sammy knight, the former Habibin. They out played us in the second half," added the team was aware that they can not let quality teams back in a game and expect to win. "We were looking to the Rose Bowl game all season."

Add end All-Star defensive back Terry McDaniel, who intercepted his seventh past of the season: "The front seven played great. I liked the way we are making things happen and we are getting back to where we want to be now."

The Raiders took a commanding 24-7 lead into the final 10 minutes of the fourth quarter, on the strength of two defensive touchdowns (12 and 30 yards) and a Rockin’ Ismail 17-yard score.

Raiders mental lapses made the game closer than it should have been, but a win any way you can get it is positive. But, the team was aware that they can not let quality teams back into a game and expect to win. "We have to stop making mental mistakes," said Raider back Harvey Williams. "If we are going to be a championship team, we have to bury teams when we get them down."

Add end All-Star defensive end Robert Jenkins, who put the game in the right context. "We always have to make it a drama."

Jones Polishes Off Toney

By Mike Wilson
BVN Staff Writer

LAS VEGAS - Whatever cut the light out permanently on Roy Jones Jr. last Friday at the MGM Grand Garden may have inadvertently touched the wrong fuse. Jones inspired by the odds-makers and the verbal abuse tossed out by former IBF Super Middleweight Champion James "Lights-Out" Toney before the fight, used it fuel his flame.

Jones spanked Toney over 12-rounds and gained an unanimous victory. After knocking Toney down near the one minute mark in the third round, Jones (27-0) skillfully kept his opponent off balance through the remaining rounds, with beautiful combinations and counter punching.

The judges scored the fight clearly - and rightfully - in favor of Jones, 120-107, 121-115, 118-111.

"I knew that I would have to utilize my quickness to neutralize Toney's power," said Jones.

Well, he did just that in reminding us of a young Sugar Ray Leonard as he managed to outclass Toney round after round.

A knee injury ended her flat track career but didn’t stop her from competing at a composition level. However, she did try out for the derby and was given a uniform and put on a team with Roller Games in 1989.

Valladares comments, “Roller Derby is the only sport where men and women compete on a competition level. However, she did try out for the derby and was given a uniform and put on a team with Roller Games in 1989. Valladares comments, “Roller Derby is the only sport where men and women compete on an equal basis, and I encourage girls everywhere to come down and try out. Roller Derby needs new talent and we’re happy to have the audience watching me just knowing their eyes were on me with approval and support given the opportunity to witness firsthand a collective showing of this nature.

The artists participating in this show are well known for their work in this particular art field. Local artists Charles A. Bibbs, DeLena Viliez, Gail Taylor, Blancho Base and Marlene Vandersande share the story of how the art of skating evolved and the impact it has on society.

red ribbons are already flying on the campuses, door, doorways, and windows of America. In the fight Against Drunk Driving (MADD) is launching Project Red Ribbon campaign.

The theme of the campaign is "Red Ribbons Save Lives." MADD encourages drivers to tie a red ribbon at a location on their vehicle. The red ribbon is a symbol of their resolve to put an end to this senseless violence, a symbol of their determination to drive safe and sober during the holiday season, and year-round. MADD expects to distribute more than 350 million red ribbons this holiday season.

MADD started the Project Red Ribbon campaign in 1986 in an effort to reduce the death toll that occurs during the heavily traveled holiday season. Last year between Thanksgiving and New Year's Eve, 1,746 people were killed across the country in crashes involving alcohol. During the Thanksgiving weekend alone, 271 lives were lost in alcohol-related traffic crashes.

Actor Comrie Seltzer is serving in her eighth year as national spokesperson for Project Red Ribbon. "I became involved with MADD eight years ago because I was concerned about the threat of drunk driving on my son's future. My commitment is even stronger today — drunk driving is such a preventable crime.

This simple symbol energizes MADD's life-saving efforts and I'm proud to be a part of the campaign and Sel- tzer.

You can be a part of the campaign, too! Just wear a red ribbon and help save lives this holiday season.

MADD National President Becky Brown said the organization is excited about the opportunity to reach thousands of more people with our important message about safe, sober driving. Driving drunk is a serious problem that can be solved — we need the support of everyone in the public and private sector if we are to make an impact on this violent crime.

In 1995, 17,400 people were killed and an estimated 900,000 others were injured in alcohol-related crashes. MADD continues to address the problem of impaired driving and underdrinking through public awareness programs, legislative efforts and the support of victims of drunk driving crashes. For more information on Project Red Ribbon or any other MADD campaign, contact your local MADD chapter or call (213) 744-6233.

Omnitrons Reduces Fares to 25 cents on November 23, 1994

Omnitrons will reduce its fixed-route passengers fare to 25 cents on Friday, November 23, 1994. The normal bus fare is 75c. Seniors and persons with disabilities normally ride for 30c.

The day after Thanksgiving is traditionally the biggest shopping day of the year," explained Steve Harter, director of marketing. "With shopping mall parking lots full, our goal is to eliminate the hassle of driving and parking, and offer people a tremendous value.

By reducing the fare, Omnitrans has 36 routes serving the San Bernardino Valley. The reduced fare is available on all routes, excluding Inland Empire Connection, Dial-A-Ride, Dial-A-Shop, and Access.

For complete route and schedule information, call 1-800-COMMUTE.
