Principal Calls Out Police

Patricia Ramdhan Released From Jail

The National Newspaper Publishers Association (NNPA) has released the first exhaustive national study on Black newspaper advertising. The study, which was conducted by the Stephenson Research Center at the University of Missouri, shows that Black newspapers are among the oldest and most valuable medium for African-American consumers. The study reveals that Black newspapers are effective at reaching and reaching the target market.

The study also shows that Black newspapers have the ability to provide a unique voice and perspective on the issues facing the African-American community. The study finds that Black newspapers are the primary sources of information for African-Americans. The study also highlights the importance of Black newspapers in shaping public opinion and influencing public policy.

The study was conducted by the Stephenson Research Center at the University of Missouri School of Journalism. The study surveyed a national sample of 1,000 African-American adults and found that Black newspapers are effective at reaching and engaging with the target market.

The study is the first of its kind and is a significant step in understanding the role of Black newspapers in the African-American community.

NNPA Takes Washington by Storm

The NNPA (National Newspaper Publishers Association) took Washington by storm last week as the Association of Community Publishers launched its inaugural conference. The conference, which was held in conjunction with the NNPA’s 50th anniversary, was attended by over 500 community publishers from across the country. The conference featured keynote speakers such as Rep. Charles Brandon, D-Lexington, who called it a “constitutional embarrassment.”

Patricia Ramdhan, a 23-year-old mother of three, was released from jail after spending over a week in prison. She was arrested for violating a parole violation and was scheduled to be released the previous week. Her parole violations were related to a drug charge for which she was sentenced to three years in prison.

Congressman Brown Visits Local Elementary Schools

Congressman George Brown visited La Puente Elementary School and San Bernardino Elementary School in San Bernardino to observe school settings and to demonstrate his support for the School Lunch Program. The program, known as the School Lunch Demonstration Program, is a critical portion of the School Lunch Demonstration Project, which is supported by the Department of Agriculture.

In his statement, Congressman George Brown highlighted the importance of healthy and nutritious meals for children, saying, “I cannot understand how anyone in Washington can say that providing decent meals for children who are in need is wasteful.” Congressman Brown said, “For some children, the reduced-price or free lunches that they eat at school may be the only meal they eat all day.”

The congressman also noted that many students are victims of malnutrition, and that these meals are an essential part of their daily lives.

The Republican welfare bills, which have been proposed in the House of Representatives, are aimed at reducing the federal funding for school lunches. These bills would make it more difficult for schools to provide nutritious meals to students.

Sports Bra

Dr. Ernest Levister, M.D., 818-712-7601

Sports bras were designed for women, and they have been gaining popularity in recent years. They are designed to provide support and comfort while engaging in physical activity. The bra is specifically designed to accommodate the motions of your sport and reduce chafing.

The bra is made of a blend of cotton and polypropylene, which helps “wick” away moisture from your skin. The blend will also help “wick” away perspiration, thereby reducing the risk of skin irritation.

The bra is available in different colors and sizes, and it is designed to fit most women. The band is adjustable, and the straps can be tightened or loosened as needed.

The bra is ideal for women who are looking for a comfortable and supportive bra option during physical activity. It is also ideal for women who are looking for a more comfortable and supportive bra option during everyday wear.

To order, please visit the website of the Black Voice News or call 818-712-7601.

Question: How Often Is Communion?

Answer: Every Sunday. The key is that it not become ceremonial but be an impacting experience that causes us to appreciate the sacrifice of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If you have a question that you'd like answered, write: Rev. Dr. Reginald Woods, Life Ministry Ministries, P.O. Box 9778, San Bernardino, CA 92427-9778.

Dr. Reginald Woods
We need to continually be in communion. Some need to partake in the elements every single day. Jesus never gave a time frame for communion. He simply said, "As often as you..." Some say it once a week, some once a month, others..."

The Black Cowboy that rides the range in Riverside and San Bernardino Counties, changing out local homelessness once again finds his back against a wall. In providing room and board for eight homeless individuals, The Goodman Homeless Inc., in association with the "Lady of Grace," founded by Mrs. Ruth Mickens, is having problems keeping their doors open until approved funding can be received. "The Goodman" is shown in photo passing out snacks during one of his three visits per week to the Armory, located at Fairmount Park in downtown Riverside.

"The recent closing of the Armory prompted another problem for "The Goodman" and the homeless, because the ability to stay in constant communication with some of the homeless clients will be possibly forever interrupted. Over the past few months we have helped families and individuals that live at the Armory better their chances to seek employment or obtain services," said The Lady of Grace, Ruth Mickens. The Lady of Grace operates as a communication base that transmits or receives messages and correspondents for our homeless clients. This pilot program will allow a homeless person to live of the peoples we reach, Riverside. "The Goodman" But the problem of needing immediate help. "The Goodman's" desire to help the homeless, he replies that "I am not driven by the fear that there is that someone else that needs some immediate help."

The staff and hospital employees of Riverside General Hospital feel fortunate to have a physician with whom they can work, combined with outstanding medical skills. Congratulation's to Dr. Bouland on his appointment as Chief of Medicine at Riverside General Hospital.

White Heads Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Middle School

The Board of Education of the San Bernardino City Unified School District honored Calvin White to the principal position at Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Middle School recently. He took over his new assignment from Stephanie Coceres who has been appointed to Shandin Hills Middle School.

Employed by the district since 1978, White has been serving as vice-principal at Pacific High School at the time of his new appointment. From 1988 to 1991 he was vice-principal at San Bernardino High and had also been vice-principal at Curtis Middle School. His move to Curtis followed eight years as a counselor at Pacific and Cajon High Schools and he was also an industrial arts teacher at Fontana High and Shandin Hills Intermediate Schools.

His move to Curtis followed eight years as a counselor at Pacific and Cajon High Schools and he was also an industrial arts teacher at Fontana High and Shandin Hills Intermediate Schools.

In other assignments, the Board of Education named Dorothy Fenster, vice principal at Cypress Elementary, has been tapped by the Board of Education to take over the top leadership role at that school. She replaces former vice principal Tom Halston.

A ten year veteran, Fenster's education career began with a teaching position at Lyle Creek Elementary and she also taught at Cypress. She went from Cypress to a resource teacher position at Nut Valley Elementary and then became assistant principal at Will Rogers Elementary before being named to the top leadership role at Cypress. She is currently serving as principal at Cypress Elementary.

In other assignments, the Board of Education named Sylvia Torres to succeed Barbara Stewart who retired as principal at Curtis Middle School. Torres came to San Bernardino in 1992 to be vice principal at Ninth Street and before that was a guidance counselor and learning specialist for several elementary schools in Wal- nut Valley Unified.

Urban League Addresses A Multitude Of Issues

The Greater Riverside Urban League has been busy. They have dealt with workshops on Prop. 187 and Brainstorming Sessions on non-violence, desegregations and now on Saturday, March 25, 1995, Affirmative Action. The youth are busy through the Star Shop, a talent show and they appeared on television shows at Crown Cable in Riverside and on Inland Empire Alive KCSB Channel in San Bernardino.

The session for the workshops on non-violence and leadership with the youth were taught by, Rev. James Lawson of the Greater Riverside Urban League. The Brainstorming Breakfasts on non-violence, desegregations and explained the responsibility of a Board of Directors in any organization. One clear message is that Board members do not muddle in the day-to-day operations of the organization.

The talent show was exciting for the youth. When asked how it came about, Monica Damper, Instruction/Coordinator for Project STAR said, "Amos McGlocken came to Yolanda Nava, acting director, with the idea of a talent show so the youth could have something to do." The winner received $100 cash and everyone else received a trophy. First place in singing was awarded to Catalina Nowe, second Love Devine, third Something Dope.

The Brainstorming Sessions dealt with the 30 year practice of busing Black & Hispanic children to neighborhoods outside of their community to create schools which are ethnically balanced. After 30 years newer parents are speaking out. Some parents feel that there is no longer a need to bus their children. At the time of desegregations, schools located in the minority neighborhoods were viewed as inferior. Many parents, however, feel the wrong message is sent to someone who are bussed. Parents also feel they cannot be involved in their student's education. The discussion continues.

Saturday, the subject of Affirmative Action will be discussed at 8:00 - 10:00 a.m. at Park Avenue Baptist Church. The Brainstorming Breakfasts are sponsored by a grant from the Irvine Foundation.

Rethinking Affirmative Action

Part One Of A Two Part Series
By DEE MANNING MARABLE

Several nights ago, I found myself in midtown Manhattan, awaiting a small cocktail party in a little ice skating rink. I arrived late on a cold, freezing Friday evening. I was wearing a business suit and carrying a large over-the-shoulder briefcase. The hostess directed me to a table with my name on it, where I was joined by several other guests who were also late. One by one, we began to arrive and, eventually, everyone was seated around a small dining table, enjoying drinks and conversation. The hostess was a bit occupied, so we began to chat among ourselves.

Especially in managerial, White males earn the median salaries. The median earnings of Black Hispanics and women still are very low compared to White women, who numerically and in percentage represent 36 percent of those of White males. Conversely, Blacks represent 3.7 percent, Whites 86.3 percent, and Hispanics 3.3 percent; among the more under-represented in many white collar professions are apprentices; often refused to train women during the original adoption of affirmative action, and minorities as apprentices, often refused to train women.

We realize the climate of financial opportunities have created for schools. Even in midtown Manhattan, a small cocktail party can be overwhelmed by the wealth and status of the attendees. The hostess was a bit occupied, so we began to chat among ourselves.

About 150 people, heads of organizations and community leaders met at the Orange Show this week to bring together a coalition of community groups to plan the annual affirmative action campaign.

Fred Jordan, Chair of the Statewide Coordinating Committee, formed to fight the Conservative initiative drive and the anti-affirmative action legislation, was one of the organizers. He said the assault is illegal and morally wrong. Frances Grimes, one of the organizers said, “This was the start of the beginning of the door. As we are in our South African, we have become separate in America. We are losing the gains of the 60’s.”

“ariva is our to coordinate our efforts,” said Grimes. She said we must all march and unified as women, minorities, and community-based organizations.
