Black Republic Examines The AAO Debate

By Oscar J. Coffey, Jr.

Many African Americans, particularly in the political arena, have been forced to do some soul-searching recently. Most of the brothers and sisters have come to a realization that in order to continue to progress, we have to have tough discussions and disagreements in order to move forward. We cannot continue to hold onto the racial and national antagonisms when it accords to every person, regardless of race, color or creed. Certification Verification Publications Service (CVPS). We have over 35,000 members in San Bernardino at (909) 889-0506, 1583 West Bucline, San Bernardino, CA 92411.

Omnitran Wins Top Safety Trophy

Contining a tradition of top safety performance, Omnitrans was honored with the sweepstakes trophy for government fleets at the Los Angeles Metro Council National Safety Council Annual Safety Awards on April 24, 1995.

Omnitrans also earned first place in the regional transit safety competition for its top safety performance in 1993.

This marks the eighth time in the last nine years that the San Bernardino Valley's public transit agency has taken top honors in the transit safety competition. It is the first time mileage increased by six percent and ridership grew more than 12 percent. In 1994, the agency was honored with the sweepstakes award for government transit agencies.

Members of the National Transportation Safety Board's Public Transportation Safety Division recently completed Omnitrans' safety audit. The audit, which focused on critical areas of Omnitrans' operations, was conducted as part of the Omnitrans' efforts to maintain high safety standards in its fleet.

The audit team was composed of five safety experts from the National Transportation Safety Board. The team reviewed Omnitrans' policies and procedures, inspected the fleet, and conducted interviews with drivers, mechanics, and supervisors.

The audit team found that Omnitrans had implemented effective safety programs and policies, and that the agency had a strong commitment to safety.

The audit team also recommended that Omnitrans continue to improve its safety programs and policies, and that it consider implementing additional training programs for drivers and mechanics.

Omnitrans General Manager Durand Rall said, "We are proud to be recognized as a leader in safety performance.

"Omnitrans has been honored with a number of safety awards over the years. We are committed to maintaining the highest safety standards in our fleet and we will continue to work to improve our safety programs.

"We are grateful to our drivers, mechanics, and supervisors for their efforts in ensuring the safety of our passengers.

"Omnitrans is committed to providing safe and reliable service to our customers. We will continue to work to improve our safety programs and policies, and to maintain the highest safety standards in our fleet.

"We appreciate the recognition of the National Transportation Safety Board and we look forward to continuing to work to improve our safety programs and policies.

QUESTION: Dear Pastor Woods, I don't believe in a "real" devil. Some people refer to the devil as a person. There are "negative" forces out there, but why do people insist on believing in a devil? Nonetheless, Blaine, CA

ANSWER: Jesus said, "You are the children of your father the devil." To a group of people in John 8:44. 1 John 3:8 says, "He that cometh of the devil is of the devil for the devil sinneth from the beginning." James 4:7 says "Submit yourselves to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you." For a person to say I don't believe in a devil is to say I don't believe in God nor the Bible because they both speak of the devil. The other names for the devil are: Satan, the Adversary, Beelzebub, He who is in the world, Prince of Darkness, Prince of this world, Prince of Evil, this one, the spirit of the power of the air, the prince of the power of the air, the god of this world, and the spirit that now works in the hearts of unbelievers. The prince of the power of the air, he who is the god of this world, the prince of darkness, the god of evil, the god of this world, and the spirit that now works in the hearts of unbelievers.

Lakers Take Late Season Frustrations Out On The Sonics

STANDING Ovation: The Lakers' Super Rookie, Eddie Jones, has been struggling since the season began, but brought the Forum Crowd to its feet by starting the first period with a vicious one-handed tip jam. (photo by Gary Payton)

Maybe the Los Angeles Lakers had a Plan when They Finished the Season Losing Seven-of-Eight Games

BY JOHN NADEL, AP SPORTS

INGLEWOOD - Maybe Seattle's 25-point victory over the Los Angeles Lakers in their playoff opener came too easy. Whatever the case, the SuperSonics are on the verge of another early "From here on, we've got to go out and play," said Seattle's Sam Perkins, a former Laker. "I'm not going to dwell on what went wrong. You've got to take care of your own business, just leave it out there." "It ain't over. All we've got to do is just play." Thursday, May 4, 1995

IEBNA Holds Tenth Annual Scholarship Awards Banquet

Celebrating Ten Years Of Community Service was the theme at the Inland Empire's Black Nurses' Association's (IEBNA) Tenth Annual Scholarship Awards Banquet. This year the IEBNA welcomed back the keynote speaker from their First Annual Scholarship Banquet, Ophelia Long.

Long is currently the Chief Executive Officer/Administrator of Alameda County Medical Center, Oakland, CA. She led the effort to merge three hospitals into the new Alameda County Medical Center. In partnership with the Alameda County Board of Supervisors and community groups, she developed and implemented the Model Neighborhood Program in East Oakland that focused on youth.

Long is a past President of National Black Nurses' Association (1983-1987) and a member of many community organizations.

The evening began with welcoming and introduction of the Mistress of Ceremonies, Dorothy Mason, M.S.N., Associate Professor, San Bernardino Valley College, by Dr. Belinda Davis, B.S.N., R.N.

Rev. Chuck Singleton, Pastor, Loveland Christian Fellowship, provided the invocation. Dinner was served prior to the introduction of the keynote speaker by Sandra Waters, R.N., M.S.N., President, IEBNA.

IEBNA Treasurer, Fayce Culpepper-Caesar, R.N. and Yvonne Smith, R.N. presented the 12 scholarship recipients with their awards. This year's crop of recipients were: Cheryl Anthony, Shirley Daniels, Sheba Franklin, Sheila Finney, Brian Huff, Lisa Love, Cassandra Ochoa, Anzil Rashied, Ima Roberts, Marilyn Shelby (Also recipient of Dr. Small Award), Vanessa Simpson, and Tamala Turrentine.

Special acknowledgments were made by Waters. The evening concluded with closing remarks made by First Vice-President Earlean S. Chambers.

Walker Becomes Three Time Award Winner

Sgt. Walter R. (Duke) Snyder of the San Bernardino City Unified School District Police Department is about to become a three time award winner. He will be named “Office of the Year for the School Police” at the California Law Enforcement Recognition Dinner sponsored by the San Bernardino Chamber of Commerce and the SUN newspaper, an honoree of the Valley School Police Officers Association, a group devoted to making the streets safe for people to walk, shop and visit. Additionally, Sgt. Snyder makes himself available to schools and other groups to make safety presentations. In 1994 he made more than 25 presentations.

A 20 year veteran of the U.S. Air Force, Sgt. Snyder retired in 1975 and joined the School Police Department the same year. He is the father of three grown children: Walter Jr., Pamela, and Paula.

Riverside Holds Orange Blossom Festival

One hundred years of Riverside’s citrus heritage was recently celebrated when the First Sunkist Orange Blossom Festival was held in the city’s historic downtown square. The one-of-a-kind family festival transformed Seventh Street into an orange-flavored, turn-of-the-Century promenade recreating the sights and sounds of Riverside’s first Orange Day celebration of 100 years ago.

Costumed entertainers stroll the streets which were decorated to look as they did 100 years ago, vendors sold citrus-flavored food, bicycles and antique cars replaced modern-day automobiles and even the air was perfumed with the scent of orange blossoms. The celebration officially began as the first Orange Day was created in 1895 by Frank Miller, to make people aware of Riverside. "What the Tournament of Roses is to Pasadena and the Garlic Festival is to Gilroy, the Sunkist Orange Blossom Festival will be to Riverside," said Sponsors of the festival included Sunkist Growers, Inc., The Mission Inn, City of Riverside, PacificCare of California, Castle Amusement Park, Riverside Public Utilities Department, The Press-Enterprise, KCAL 96.7/KOLA 99.9, KCAL-AM "La Mexicana," Berts, Beer and Krieger, the Riverside County Office of Education, the Riverside Holiday Inn and the Riverside Visitors and Convention Center.

Costumed characters on horse drawn carriages brought smiles to parade goers.

Marching bands dressed in colorful 19th Century outfits were among the highlights of the Sunkist Orange Blossom Festival, and attract businesses and investors to the city," said Shadle.

At the Tournament of Roses is to Pasadena, the Garlic Festival is to Gilroy, the Sunkist Orange Blossom Festival will be to Riverside."
