Commencement

TWELFTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT
EXERCISES TO CONVENE ON SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 17

More than 660 bachelor's candidates and 200 master's candidates will be honored when Cal State, San Bernardino convenes its commencement ceremonies Saturday, June 17 at 9:30 a.m. on the South Gymnasium Lawn.

Degrees will be conferred by President John M. Pfau.

Following a tradition established five years ago, in lieu of a Commencement speaker President Pfau will deliver a brief address in recognition of the graduating class.

Tickets for seating are not required. Seats are not reserved, but guests are urged to arrive early to find the best parking and seats.

It is expected that over 440 degree candidates, led by Marshal John Heeren, will march in the academic procession. With the faculty, they will file into the Commencement area to the music of the Wind Ensemble directed by Paul Curnow.

Vice President Gerald M. Scherba will present the candidates for degrees. The invocation and benediction will be given by The Reverend James C. Huffstutler, Associate Pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of San Bernardino.

The faculty will be led by Marshal Eugene Garver and the College Marshal Carol Goss.

Masters degree candidates will be hooded by School Deans H. Arthur Hoverland, Administration; Nathan Kravetz, Education; James D. Crum, Natural Sciences; Ward M. McAfee, Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Kevin Gallagher, student representative on the Board of Trustees, will represent that body and Verne F. Potter will represent the CSCSB Advisory Board.

A reception honoring the candidates and their guests will follow the ceremony immediately. It will be held in the Gymnasium.
