DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE EASES CSUC BUDGET CUTS

The Department of Finance has eased the amount it had previously required the CSUC system to cut from its budget.

It has announced that necessary budget cuts will be $14.1 million instead of the previously announced reduction of $18.4 million, systemwide.

Cal State, San Bernardino's portion of the $14.1 million cut is approximately $11,000 for operating expense and equipment and $114,000 for added salary savings, for a campus total of $224,000.

CSCSB GRAD HAS ROLE IN "ZOOT SUIT"

Ronald Linares, a 1974 CSCSB graduate, has three featured roles in the production of "Zoot Suit," enjoying a successful box office run and critical acclaim at the Mark Taper Forum.

Mr. Linares, who was a drama major here, had roles in four successive campus productions from May, 1970, including "The Conscious Lovers," "All's Well that Ends Well." He also performed in a number of San Bernardino Civic Light Opera productions. Performing Arts, the Music Center publication, features a photo of the actor and following a brief introduction adds, "Following his graduation from California State University at San Bernardino, he was immediately hired as a singer with the Harlequin Dinner Theatre in Costa Mesa. Later, in Los Angeles, he joined Nosotros and performed in 'Employees' as well as 'Wanted: Experienced Operators' with Carmen Zapata at the Inner-City Cultural Center."

SYMPATHY

The College extends sympathy to Doris Scott (formerly Activities) on the death of her husband, Joseph Scott, Tuesday, August 22. Mr. Scott, a native of Tennessee, had been hospitalized at Veterans' Hospital in Loma Linda following surgery in June.

In addition to his widow, Mr. Scott, who was well known locally as a sheet metal and welding tradesman, leaves two sons, Sam and Richard and one granddaughter and his mother, a brother and three sisters in Tennessee.

Outdoor services will be held Saturday, August 26 at 10:00 a.m. at Montecito Memorial Park, Waterman and Barton Road (east of Interstate 10).

In lieu of flowers, donations for a memorial album by his son Sam will be appreciated.
