A recent notice from the Chancellor's Office has authorized a 10-12 Pay Plan which allows non-academic College employees in certain classifications to be appointed on a 10-month basis. This means working 10 consecutive monthly pay periods during the fiscal year and taking two months off.

The program, formerly limited to academic departments, was expanded on January 31, 1979 to include all areas of the campus and to increase the number of classifications eligible to participate in the 10-month plan.

Employees who are currently on 12-month appointments can request a change-over to the new plan or may apply for appointment to a vacant 10-12 position. Employees cannot be converted to the new plan without their written approval. All conversions are on a permanent basis.

Certain regulations also apply to timing, such as appointments must be made at the beginning of a pay period and other schedules. Those employees who wish to convert to the 10 month positions will retain their existing probationary or permanent status. Ten months of service will constitute a year of service for permanent status purposes, merit salary adjustments and retirement. Employees moving to the new ranges will retain their salary anniversary dates and will accrue sick leave and vacation credits during the full 12-month period, and retirement benefits will be based on the actual amount of retirement pay.

Interested and eligible employees should submit requests through their supervisors to the appropriate school or department head.

A list of employees eligible for the 10-12 pay plan is given on Page 2.

Two administrative heads from the San Bernardino County Rape Crisis Intervention Service, and a detective from the San Bernardino County Sheriff’s Crime Prevention Unit will conduct part of the program. CSCSB faculty member Dr. Frances Coles, Coordinator of the Criminal Justice Program, will also talk on protection awareness. Following the talks, a film will be shown and following that, a panel discussion. Women attending the seminar are encouraged to ask questions.

A registration form is furnished on the bottom of a memo from the Dean of Students dated February 22. Additional forms are available in the Activities Office, which is sponsoring the event. If time does not permit signing up before the suggested March 9 date for returning the forms, a phone call to the Activities Office, Ext. 7407, will register you. Last-minute attendees will be welcome.

Six emergency telephones have been installed on campus. Painted yellow for easy identification, the phones are placed strategically to cover all directions of the site. No dialing is necessary. When the receiver is picked up the phone automatically reaches the College Police by direct line. The locations are: 1) north end of Bio. Sci. Bldg., 2) east side of Phys. Plant Bldg., 3) northwest end of Main Parking Lot, 4) bus stop, 5) between Student Union and East (new) Parking Lot, 6) cinder block bldg. east of tennis courts.

The production has been called "provocative, absorbing... holds the audience's attention for two hours without an intermission, creating an eerie, unbroken mood of otherworldly, yet immediate tension and despair" in a review by Ray Cooklis in The Sun. Mr. Cooklis credits Director Ronald Barnes' use of artistic styles from various ages and cultures as the glue which holds the drama experiment together. Also singled out for praise by the reviewer were Phil West's score, Pat Hadlock's lighting design and Frederick Chuang's costumes. Acting by Yolanda Castaneda-Hernandez, David Rees, Corrine Schnur and the chorus "sustained the effect of the play," according to Mr. Cooklis.

Tickets are available for the final performances. Call 7452 for ticket information.

Free physical examinations are being offered to all faculty, staff and students next week. The exams, nearly complete, will be given by members of the nursing classes from 8 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., Monday and Wednesday, March 12 and 14, in the Student Health Center.

Please call Ext. 7218 for an appointment and allow approximately 1 hour for the exam.
