Rialto Teacher Suspends Student

Rodney Pearson, Jr.

It was just two months ago that the local playground and music teacher, Dr. Rodney L. Pearson and Karen Pearson lost their eldest son, Rodney, who was 16. Rodney was playing in a band on Monday, May 14, 1996, Rodriguez L. Pearson, Sr., a 16-year-old tenor singer who was a member of the school's choir and drama club, was found dead in his bedroom. Rodney was reportedly playing drums with his band, the Unified Voice, during a rehearsal when he suddenly collapsed and died. He was rushed to the hospital, but efforts to revive him were unsuccessful.

Rodney was described as a dedicated student and musician. He was a member of the school's choir and drama club, and he was passionate about music, especially drums. He was also a member of the Unified Voice band, which he founded in the sixth grade. Rodney was known for his talent and dedication, and he was respected by his peers and teachers.

Rodney's family is devastated by his loss. They are planning a memorial service to honor his memory and to celebrate his life. The family is grateful for the support and prayers of the community during this difficult time.

San Bernardino - Dr. S. Ann Freeman, San Bernardino City Library Program Administrator, has been invited to join a contingent of representatives from the United States in South Africa from July 17-19, 1996. The purpose of the visit is to exchange ideas and experiences related to literacy programs and to establish partnerships for future collaboration. Dr. Freeman will have the opportunity to visit libraries in South Africa, meet with librarians and community leaders, and learn about the challenges and successes of their program.

The trip is being organized by the American Library Association (ALA) and the Joint Session on Literacy, which is a program of the ALA. The conference will focus on the role of libraries in promoting literacy and lifelong learning. Dr. Freeman is a member of the ALA and has been involved in literacy initiatives in the United States.

The trip is being funded by the ALA, and the local library systems are also providing support. The libraries will have the opportunity to learn from the South African experience and to share their own experiences with their counterparts.

Dr. Freeman is a native of South Africa and has a deep understanding of the challenges facing African libraries. She is well-versed in the history of the struggle for literacy in South Africa and has been involved in literacy initiatives in the United States. She is excited to have the opportunity to share her knowledge and experience with her colleagues in South Africa and to learn from their experience.

The trip is expected to be a valuable learning experience for Dr. Freeman and the other members of the contingent. It will provide an opportunity to network with colleagues and to learn from their experiences. It will also provide a chance to learn about the challenges facing libraries in South Africa and to share our own experiences.

The trip is expected to last for three days. Dr. Freeman and her colleagues will visit several libraries in South Africa, meet with local librarians and community leaders, and participate in workshops and discussions. They will also have the opportunity to visit some of the more rural libraries and to learn about the challenges facing libraries in those areas.

Dr. Freeman is looking forward to the trip and to the opportunity to learn from her colleagues in South Africa. She is confident that the trip will be a valuable experience for all involved.

The problem Mrs. Burks found was that the CHF only has an Internal Investigating Affairs Department. She was being worried. Mrs. Burks is equally concerned that the investigating officer who works in Burks has no choice: learn to use technology to enhance the way we live, work, and play are organizational and social in nature, not technical. We needed to learn to communicate and cooperate.

Implications of Success

Struggling to survive through one of the worst economic depressions in California, the county is facing a number of challenges.

How can government assist and nurture the work force capable of meeting the demands of the Los Angeles area.

The county has an average two years ago; today, it is still 3% of the workforce. The only way to overcome the sheer size and complexity of the county is not to have to continue the business of government.

How can business master the continuous evolution of technology to keep our dollars here into communication with local educators.

Develop "real" World Wide Web Internet applications is advance this new medium of communication.

The five strategic initiatives will provide a technical rich environment supported by educational activities for our economy to prosper. They support the EEE's concept of a new public/private relationship created to bring technology to society. They are a joint effort not only in the county and to give our business a competitive edge, to learn how to compete in the global economy.

Direct Long-Lasting

The EEE and its Linkup Regional Network services and have gone this concept to full operation in just eight months. Those partnerships, businesses, government, and education--have put aside their differences and pooled their financial and technological resources to establish this sophisticated digital network and related services, it has already provided direct long lasting benefits.

In its first year, the EEE has made great strides in developing the network. It has already provided direct and measurable success. An initial investment of 600,000 was used to develop and provide services. In the past four years, on line network access will reach all 60,000 of the county's businesses and other agencies; up to 327,000 schools, 22,000 agencies; and small government agencies throughout the region. The Linkup Regional Network is the best and most direct way I've ever tried to get information technology to our future. It is our future.

Another example of the success of the EEE is its work to produce technologically literate students.

The EEE works with the education system to train students in the latest technology.

Types Of Feelings

Many people think that whenever they are feeling is an emotion. However, emotions are only one type of feeling. In imagining a feeling tree, emotions can be likened to good and bad "leaves." Back on the "root" level, called the "roots" are anchored in the soil of love where they become the subconscious. "The roots" are the emotions can be likened to good and bad "leaves." Back on the "root" level, called the subconscious, humans can ever experience. These "roots" are anchored in the soul of love where they receive stability and loving nutrition. Between the subconscious and emotion - i.e., between the beginning and the end of feeling - emotions come when we know which feelings to make blossom, which ones to leave alone, and which ones to cycle or replace. Whereas "roots" (i.e., self - preservation) grows in the opposite direction. Self - preservation is designed to help us avoid threats, disturbances, or destructions in GTE's

Rev. Tyler-Guidry To Speak At Riverside's Allen Chapel

RIVERSIDE - The Rev. Carolyn E. Tyler-Guidry will be the guest speaker at Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church, 4009 Locust Street, Riverside, in celebration of their Annual Women's Day Celebration on Sunday, May 26, 1996, 3:30 p.m. It is especially significant for Allen Chapel to have Rev. Tyler-Guidry visit the church because she is a candidate for the office of Bishop in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. She calls herself "The Hillsong Bishop," because she has the distinction of being the first woman in the Fifth District to serve in many areas of the church, namely, having been appointed the first woman presiding elder in the history of the Fifth District by Bishop Vincent R. Anderson. She was also the first woman to serve a congregation of 600 members. Her call to the ministry came at a time when very few women were being encouraged to accept the challenge of entering the immortal life. She has accepted this challenge and has accomplished great things for herself and the church.

The Presiding Elder takes her role seriously and understands the responsibility that comes with being one of the highest ranking clergymen in the Protestant Church. She is certainly a woman of distinction and is an honor to her to come to the Inland Empire, says Rev. Shemelda Garrett-Egson, pastor of Allen Chapel A.M.E., Riverside. The public is invited to attend this celebration. For further information, call (909) 685-9406.

How Can I Get On Fire For God?

QUESTION: Dear Pastor Woods, I have been a Christian for four years. Recently, I have experienced a lag in my zeal for God. I used to read the Bible a lot and pray a lot, and I was really excited about the Lord. Now I have to drum myself up to get excited. How can I get fired up again? - C.L., San Bernardino, CA

ANSWER: In order to experience the zeal and drive that you once experienced in your Christian walk, you must do the same things you used to do. If you prayed and read your Bible a lot before, what makes you think that after you have reduced those aspects of your life, that you can maintain that previous zeal? The book of Revelation describes the future status of the Church of Ephesus experiencing something similar.

North Girls behind Coach Leathers, win team title. Poly boys and North girls win relay titles.

By LELAND STEIN III
BVN Sports Editor

LONG BEACH - As has been the case in recent years, the Island Empire High Schools continue to show their Southern California counterparts they are a force to be dealt with. Starting with the Riverside North girls' team behind Coach Supreme Charles Leathers ... who clipped, pasted, and guided his team to its second consecutive Southern Section California Interscholastic Federation Division 2 Track and Field team title.

At Wooten's Stadium before an estimated 8,000, North, who had never won a girls' team title prior to last year, is doing something right. That something right starts with Coach Leathers, who has had similar success while at Compton Centennial before coming to North four years ago.

"I felt good to see the joy all around us right now," said North assistant coach Robin Trefign. "It's a pleasure to work under Coach Leathers. I had heard a lot about him before I came over here. Since coming I've learned a thing perfect. I've worked much harder in practice. Now it's like, I have to have every- right now," said North assistant coach Robin

Olen Guiab, Aaron Wright and Larry Gooden placed sixth. -

Rubidoux's Orshawante Bryant finished third in the long jump. Rialto Eisenhower's LaTasha Cole

8,000, won CIF titles in the 100- and 300-meter bur-

Procuring the joy of the moment .

Pomona's Tammy Wallace also won both the 100 and 200 to hoist the Division 2 crown.

"This is still fun even though I'm expected to win," said Angela. "I enjoy the competition and I'm looking forward to competing at the State meet."

Added Wallace: "I was kinda goofing off last year, but I put my mind into this year and its paid off ... I'm excited!"
Not One To Be A Prisoner James Co-Stars In New Movie

LOS ANGELES - Veteran actor Hawthorne James has never been a prisoner, nor has he been to heaven. But on May 17th, James stars with actor Alex Baldwin when the eagerly awaited film "Heaven's Prisoners" premieres. Produced by New Line/Savory Pictures, the film also features Mary Stuart Masterson, Kelly Lynch, Teri Hatcher and Eric Roberts.

"Heaven's Prisoners" is a powerful account that was shot on location in the city of New Orleans, and surrounding bayous. Based on the James Lee Burke novel of the same name, the film features Baldwin's portrayal of a retired New Orleans cop, who along with his wife, operates a bait/boat shop. Things change when a plane crashes in the bayou and a little girl comes into their lives. But there are several other shocking suspensions and surprises which surround the crash. James plays the dangerous character, Victor Romero, who is described as the notorious bad guy that "nobody wants to mess with."

Playing a notorious, dangerous, bad guy role...is not entirely new for James, as he gained instant fame for his portrayal as "Big Red" in "Riverside Townsends!" The Five Heartbeats. "People still recognize me all the time and call me "Big Red," stated James, with a huge laugh. "Whenever I go, people always ask me about him. But as bad as Big Red... was... my role as Victor Romero in Heaven's Prisoners makes him look like a choir boy."

James is also known for his role as the bus driver in the Nightbeder film Speed. His extensive list of film and television productions include "I'm Gonna Git You Sucka. The Color Purple, The Party Hearts Story, Charlie's, Choices, Hill Street Blues, Fresh Prince of Bel-Air and Martin." He has appeared in over 250 stage productions. James recently appeared in the workshop production, The Legend, which was directed by actress Debbie Allen. He also just completed shooting the film Riot, which is based on the 1992 Los Angeles unrest. The film is scheduled to air on Showtime in April. "James can be seen in the upcoming Hollywood films AKA All-American Campfire Stories."

Although he is always extremely busy, James is putting hard to get his well-deserving short film Remember Me? made into a full-length feature. Reflecting a powerful storyline, the film is about a child's journey of two sisters who grow up loving each other. They share their hopes, heart's desires and dreams of the future with each other. However, through life's many obstacles, the sister's love for each other turns to mistrust and hatred. The film reflects the struggles of the sister, and how they attempt to reconcile their differences. Negotiations to option Remember Me? are ongoing. Actor/producer Roberts Townsend is attached at this point to serve as executive producer for the film project.

For James the best goes on, and he has been good. Whether he is writing, acting or producing, the Notre Dame, University of Michigan and London Shakespeare Academy alumnus leaves his trademark of perfection on everything he touches.

Starting June 1, your phone number will be given out automatically each time you make a call—unless you block it.

Your phone number will soon be transmitted to the person or business you’re calling every time you make a telephone call. Beginning June 1, your number will automatically be displayed on any calls you make to people or businesses who use a new phone service known as “Caller ID,” even if you don’t have the service yourself. To prevent your number from being given out when you make a call, you must choose a free “Caller ID Blocking” option. Here’s the information you need to choose the right option for you, and to understand how this new service could affect your privacy:

What is Caller ID?
Caller ID is a service that displays your phone number on a Caller ID device when you make a call. It is already available in most of the country and will affect phone customers in California on June 1st.

How will Caller ID change the way I use my phone?
You have the right to prevent your phone number from being displayed on the Caller ID device of the person or business you call. This can be done by “blocking” your number from being transmitted. If you don’t block Caller ID, your number will be given out automatically each time you make a call to someone with Caller ID service—even if you have an unlisted phone number. This will happen whether or not you have the Caller ID service yourself.

Currently, your number is transmitted when you call 800, 888, 900 numbers, “0” (for operator) and 9-1-1. Caller ID Blocking won’t change this.

Why would I choose to block Caller ID?
There are reasons why some callers don’t want their numbers to be given out. For example, you may be paying for an unlisted number that you don’t want everyone to have. Or you may not want sales people saving or selling your number, or putting it on marketing lists. Law enforcement workers, abuse victims and others may want to keep their home numbers private. A Caller ID number could lead to your location ("reverse" directories list addresses by phone numbers). Don’t transmit your personal phone number by accident. Blocking options let you decide who gets your number and who doesn’t.

What are my free blocking choices?
• One option is to order “Complete Blocking.” This prevents transmission of your number on all the calls you make—except to 800, 888, 900, “0” and 9-1-1. You can still show your number on certain calls by pressing •182 (on rotary phones, 1162) before you dial the number.
• Or you can choose “Selective Blocking,” which transmits your number on all the calls you make. You can still block your number on certain calls by pressing #67 (on rotary phones, 1167) before you dial the number.

How do I choose my blocking option?
Look for a special alert in your phone bill and check off your choice, or call the following toll free number: 1-800-884-8739 to make your choice...and to get answers to all your blocking questions.

With free Caller ID Blocking options, it’s your call: 1-800-884-8739

CallerID Blocking is free. Caller ID service will be available for a charge. You’re not required to have Caller ID service in order to use the blocking options. Please reply now to ensure blocking by June 1st. If you have any concerns or complaints that are not resolved by GTE, you may contact the Consumer Affairs Branch of the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC), 505 Van Ness Avenue, Room 2003, San Francisco, CA 94102. The Consumer Affairs Branch public telephone hours are 10am—3pm Monday through Friday. You can reach them by calling 1-800-649-7570. This information is provided by GTE as required by the CPUC.

Black Voice Foundation Holds Annual Luncheon

By Pauline Brown-Hinds

RIVERSIDE - On Friday, May 10, 1996 at the Riverside Convention Center, the Black Voice Foundation held its Tenth Annual Women of Achievement Luncheon honoring women in the community who are dedicated to promoting diversity in the Inland Empire.

The honorees, Ann Griffith-Morsch, Jacqueline Mimms, and Yolanda Nava, were escorted by their husbands and surrounded by friends and family who came from as far away as Utah and New Mexico.

Hosted by Hardy and Cheryl Brown, co-publishers of the Black Voice News and founders of the Foundation, the luncheon focused on the contributions of these three women to the Riverside community, and honored Dr. Addie Brown with the Dr. Rosemary Schraer Memorial Award. Dr. Brown is a retired educator from Southern California who continues to mentor students of all ages. During her acceptance, Dr. Brown pledged to help even more students in need, in particular Black male graduate students who may feel isolated or alone in their campus communities.

Jacqueline Mimms, assistant vice-chancellor for campus relations at UCR, explained the added significance of the award, stating that the theme, "Pause for a Decade of Achievements" has a dual meaning: she was recently honored with a ten year service pin from UC Riverside's Chancellor O'Neill, for her ten years with the university, Mimms received the added treat of hearing her daughter, Keisha, sing "Wind Beneath My Wings," in the luncheon.

Ann Griffith-Morsch, director of public affairs for Pacific Bell, discussed the importance of community service and family involvement. She explained to the crowd that she was never raised to believe that she was different or helpless because she was female. "I will never forget when my parents told me that cute doesn't cut it after six." She always knew that she could achieve anything and not be confined by gender.

The Greater Riverside Urban League interim president and community activist, Yolanda Nava first thanked her family, including her mother who traveled from El Paso to attend the luncheon and her husband, Robert, for their unwavering support. Nava explained that like other immigrant families, there was always the struggle to survive, but that from those struggles she learned the importance of perseverance.

Awards were also presented to three UCR students who received scholarships for their scholastic achievements. Two students, LaFayette Hight and Jason Butler, both on staff at The Highlander (UCR's weekly paper), were presented with Dr. Rosemary Schraer Scholarships worth $1500 each. The award is presented in conjunction with UCR. The third recipient, Mistiasha Smith, was presented with the Future Voices Award of $1000.

The honorees were presented with accolades from the Mayor's office, Civilian Board of Supervisors, State representatives Ray Haynes and Ted Wiggalland, Congressmen Ken Calvert and George Brown, and others.

Event sponsors include: Pacific Bell, Southland Corporation, Southern California Edison, Wells Fargo Bank, Inland Empire National Bank, Southern California Gas Company, Chino Hills Ford, and Toyota USA.

This year's Women of Achievement and Dr. Rosemary Schraer Award winners: Yolanda Nava, Ann Griffith-Morsch, Dr. Jacqueline Mimms, and Dr. Addie Brown.
