There is growing evidence in Yuca Valley that what black and white Americans feel is bubbling over and about to explode. There is increasing evidence that black kids do not graduate from high school, or go to college, and that there are more black kids in the juvenile system. There are some signs that white kids are also in trouble.

Inner City Cultural Center Co-Founder Passes

C. Bernard “Jack” Jackson, co-founder and executive director of the Inner City Cultural Center (ICCC), died at his home, of heart failure on Tuesday, July 16. He was 68-years-old.

Peek was among its supporters. Born in 1928 in Lincoln, Jackson was the son of Black farmers from the Midwest, who wanted to give their children a better chance at life. Jackson received a law degree from the University of California at Berkeley and went on to become the first African American to serve as a judge in Orange County. He was also a civil rights activist and a leader in the fight against racism and police brutality.

The Morongo Unified School District said they were waiting to hear from the parents of a patterned with the Black Voice News that the district and that the parents who brought the complaint, were not.

The school District did not respond to the complaints cited above did not. The Board President Jacco Pescetti, said in a written comment that it was the victim's fault that the Whites students picked on the twice of the students who reported the teacher. The student was found to be unprofessional in dealing with the child and was disciplined for her actions.

The coach regularly dealt with the students who harassed the victim, the child to stop. However because the students were part of the sports activity because of the "dog piling" incident the students would begin harassing him again. They also said the "dog piling" incident was not racially motivated. It started as a "joke out of hand".

“Building Today for Tomorrows Future”

In his student he seeks to develop a good strong “Yes I can attitude and to let them know, whatever they dream, they can achieve.”

The students are taught how to defend themselves necessary, but to avoid fighting whenever possible, because they have nothing to prove by fighting.

Case in point, most martial arts are designed to skillfully control conflict in win-lose situations. Master Instructor Durner, and parents working together to build confidence and self-respect, within the youngstes. It should come as no surprise, that students who study the martial arts usually get better grades in school, they’re suppose overall, better prepared to meet life’s challenges and are more sure of themselves and at ease with others.

In its third year of operation, The United Martial Arts, dojo studio has first competed on the local level. Students compete by belt, age, and weight class.

Hard work and time spent qualified six students for the United States Jr. Olympic Tae Kwon Do Championships in Orlando, Florida. The contenders fought with courage, gentleness, and the spirit of don’t quit, will do better.

Congratulations! The champions are: Jessica Phelps - 1st place gold, Nathan Shepherd - 1st place gold, Stephen Coston Jr. - 2nd place silver, Marquis Tillman - 2nd place bronze and James Evans - 4th place.

Jessica Marquez and Nathan Shepherd have qualified for the upcoming 1996 Pan American (International) Open Junior and Senior Tae Kwon Do Championships, September 23rd 22nd at Disneyland Hotel, Anaheim.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor of today’s junior olympians and tomorrow’s olympians, write or call Master Instructor Remond Durner or Manager Yvetotte Donel at (909) 687-5000.

New Joy Missionary Baptist Church - New Kid In Town

By Mary Anderson
Blonde News

Only six years, 9 months and nine days later, New Joy M.B.C. at 5644 Juniper Ave., Riverside, CA, the newest kid on the block praising the name of Jesus in a lovely residential area of Riverside. About 150 members of Second Baptist Church, Riverside, saw a need for change and in September 1998, they banded together and formed New Joy Missionary Baptist Church under the capable leadership of Rev. Paul S. Munford. Today approximately 55-75 churches accept the name New Joy, and the congregation continues to grow spiritually, physically and racially to occupy this new edifice seating approximately 700,000,000,000 jar sheets without the restraints of collateral.

In the past, this congregation has occupied three different temporary places of worship. Their new home is located on two-and-a-half acres of land which includes people of all races, to attend and learn of Jesus together.

The sanctuary accommodates approximately 700 seats, in color wood, and mahogany.

The carpet is burgundy, the colors of warmth and worship. The building is constructed without the restraints of collateral. The inside is a beautiful burgundy color.

Rev. and Mrs. Munford are proud of their son. They are from Pennsylvania and came out for the church's grand opening.

The New Joy Missionary Baptist Church costs over $1 million to construct.

The New Joy Missionary Baptist Church will be a place where a 'All Movements Come and Be Refreshed' was said. The world-wide pastor/evangelist was accompanied by three but the spirits of the Lord and the Congregation. There were over thirty visiting preachers, Pastor Munford's former members of Greater Zion Baptist Church, Harrisburg, PA, his family members, two sisters, a sister-in-law, and his happy parents from Philadelphia, PA, Riverside, Mayor Loveridge and many worshipers of diverse faiths including Pentecostal, Evangelical, Latter-Day-Saints and at least six different denominations and people of various races. Seventy-five live approximately 650 people who came.

It was a beautiful experience. The pastor and members extend special thanks, friends, and believers to attend 10:05 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday whenever possible.

The welcome is of Christ. The carpet is burgundy, the colors of warmth and worship. The building is where hearts reach for four more, that Christ each Sunday whenever possible. The welcome is of Christ.

"When you lose one, you reach for four more, that Christ each Sunday whenever possible. The welcome is of Christ."

In the past, this congregation has occupied three different temporary places of worship. Their new home is located on two-and-a-half acres of land which includes people of all races, to attend and learn of Jesus together.

The sanctuary accommodates approximately 700 seats, in color wood, and mahogany.

The carpet is burgundy, the colors of warmth and worship. The building is constructed without the restraints of collateral. The inside is a beautiful burgundy color.

Rev. and Mrs. Munford are proud of their son. They are from Pennsylvania and came out for the church's grand opening.

The New Joy Missionary Baptist Church costs over $1 million to construct.

The New Joy Missionary Baptist Church will be a place where a 'All Movements Come and Be Refreshed' was said. The world-wide pastor/evangelist was accompanied by three but the spirits of the Lord and the Congregation. There were over thirty visiting preachers, Pastor Munford's former members of Greater Zion Baptist Church, Harrisburg, PA, his family members, two sisters, a sister-in-law, and his happy parents from Philadelphia, PA, Riverside, Mayor Loveridge and many worshipers of diverse faiths including Pentecostal, Evangelical, Latter-Day-Saints and at least six different denominations and people of various races. Seventy-five live approximately 650 people who came.

It was a beautiful experience. The pastor and members extend special thanks, friends, and believers to attend 10:05 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Sunday whenever possible.

The welcome is of Christ. The carpet is burgundy, the colors of warmth and worship. The building is where hearts reach for four more, that Christ each Sunday whenever possible. The welcome is of Christ.

"When you lose one, you reach for four more, that Christ each Sunday whenever possible. The welcome is of Christ."

Only six years, 9 months and nine days later, New Joy M.B.C. at 5644 Juniper Ave., Riverside, CA, the newest kid on the block praising the name of Jesus in a lovely residential area of Riverside. About 150 members of Second Baptist Church, Riverside, saw a need for change and in September 1998, they banded together and formed New Joy Missionary Baptist Church under the capable leadership of Rev. Paul S. Munford. Today approximately 55-75 churches accept the name New Joy, and the congregation continues to grow spiritually, physically and racially to occupy this new edifice seating approximately 700,000,000,000 jar sheets without the restraints of collateral.

All Fires Up Centennial Olympics Opening Ceremonies

Global spectacle sets table for celebration of sport

By LELAND STEIN III
BVN Sports Editor

ATLANTA - Few times in our lives an overly anticipated event really meets the hype. Well, before one of the largest viewing audiences in the United States - and world - for that matter - the Opening Ceremonies of the Centennial Olympic Games met all expectations ... and exceeded just as many.

The opening ceremony ... the pageantry ... the sounds awakened the world to the spirit of the Games, Atlanta, and, the symbolism of what sport can become.

After all, the Atlanta Games paraded 197 nations onto the Olympic Stadium floor, and where else can all these warring factions come together in celebration of peace and sport?

For all the 85,000 people that shelled out over $600 dollars to witness this event up close and personal, an unanimous response to the opening night of magic would be: Thrilling! Surely United States President Bill Clinton and his wife, Hillary, were caught up in the spectacle that was the grand opening ceremonies, as was International Olympic Committee President Antonio Samaranch, and formed in the event and the backgroun crew of 1,200 volunteers and 650 field marshals made all in attendance forget about the hot humid Atlanta night air, as they planned beautiful costume after costume out for our viewing pleasure.

In particular the Olympic Rings were a theme of the night air and the colors that represent the nations of the world were prominently displayed throughout the proceedings.

The Stadium floor together and Clinton officially declared the Centennial Olympic Games open. Or when the giant stadium screen projected Martin Luther King Jr.'s face and boomed the slain civil rights leader's "I Have a Dream" speech - giving me even more goose pimples. Why? Because the Olympic Games represent the same values and virtues of human solidarity and freedom that King personifies this life.

Said King's oldest daughter, Yolanda King to the Atlanta Journal-Consitution: "As far as I'm concerned, it was because of Daddy and his presence in Atlanta as to why the Olympics are here. And his message, obviously that's a message that needs to be heard all over the world.

And finally, for me, one of the unforgettable moments in time: When the 20th Century's greatest social activist/civil rights leader/poet/dancer/sportsman, Muhammad Ali, took the final torch hand-off from Janet Evans, and shyly, but proudly lit the torch and watched it ride a pelvis to the giant cauldron and the flame was ignited. At this point not only had goose pimples, but a couple of merry eyes as well. And the tears were not for Ali in his present condition; they were for what he represented to me and millions around the world - peace, justice, hard work, the greatest and commitment.

As a thematic message the ceremonies attempted - and did - to represent sport as a unifying medium for the world; using youth, sports, and dance. As people all over the world come together in celebration of peace and freedom, with opportunity and they have made the most of it. They are living examples of what dreamers can do with sports or everyday life, there is a lesson in what our Olympians have accomplished and the backstage crew of the Stadium floor together and Clinton officially declared the Centennial Olympic Games open. 100% Community Involvement Slams In Rubidoux

By Paul A. Hurst, Sr.
BVN Staff Writer

RUBIDOUX — Asimbon Records & 100% Legit Entertainment brought sports and entertainment celebrities together to do battle against the Rubidoux High School alumni. This slam dunk encounter was the first of its kind but you can be sure that it's not the last.

Dominique de Romeo "Romeo," captain of the celebrity team, had no position at the start of the game. According to Romeo his team didn't have an opportunity to practice or warm up, he was sure that they wouldn't disappoint anyone.

On the flip side, K.T. captain of the alumni was more sure of his team's ability "we will win by 30," and with that the game was on. It started good for the alumni, they were leading at the half and the game was on. Our hair should be tied to both teams as they moved the half up and down the court like pros. They were passing, flying through the air and slamming dunking like it was just a way of life and the crowd enjoyed it all. At halftime the celebrities were slightly ahead and it was time for the players in relax and enjoy some entertainment.

Melleck Britt, celebrity player, singer, actor, martial arts expert and amateur kick boxer performed his new single "I'm The Only Player." According to Romeo his team didn't have an opportunity to practice or warm up, he was sure that they wouldn't disappoint anyone.

Melleck Britt, captain of the alumni, started the game fast. According to Romeo his team didn't have an opportunity to practice or warm up, he was sure that they wouldn't disappoint anyone.

However you say it, the goal's the same: To get somewhere other than where you are. And fast.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents a Frank Mancuso, Jr. Production of a Kevin Hooks Film, Fled, starring Laurence Fishburne, Stephen Baldwin, Will Patton, Robert Hooks, Victor Rivers and Salma Hayek. The film is directed by Kevin Hooks and produced by Frank Mancuso, Jr. Preston A. Whitmore II wrote the original screenplay and also serves as executive producer.

Choreographer Larry LaLa, home grown, born in San Bernardino, side splitting, rip roaring funny. His mother prays that God will save him from this life and his father calls him a "bl'aze" ... Domi, Thai, London and Giggles. Brand new talent, currently in studio working on their first single which is scheduled to be released in September. Maybe it was their youth or the fact that they are new talent, I don't know, but they performed like it was their last chance on stage. It was apparent that they enjoyed performing for the crowd and the whole thing responded in kind. They were cheerful, energetic, and could sing and dance up a storm. It's to the top for Abl'aze.

Musical masturbation driven by thought provoking, soul searching music, passion amplifying concepts which causes listeners to reach a musical orgasm, host Me'Shell Ndegceloco's Peace Beyond Peace.

Airing from the ashes of her debut album Plantation Lullabies which burned at the ears of uncounted listeners, the bass player/producer attempts to once again knock on our minds with the unexpected. This first release from the album is Leviticus Piggy, a tale of the refections of a Black male's family when they find out he's gay is a prime example of how she questions the thought process of sexual preference. The Mechanics of Clean Air

The mechanics of clean air are really quite simple. Cars are the single biggest cause of California's dirty air. Help clean the air by getting a tune up, changing the oil, and keeping your tires properly inflated.
