City of Riverside Settles with Miller, Stewart

By Marolyn Short

Last May, the Riverside City Council voted in favor of what it would appose the reinstatement of former Riverside Police Department officer Wayne Stewart who had been fired for his role in the killing of Tyisha Miller in 1998. However, only four months later, the city settled with Stewart granting him $100,000 plus half of his salary tax-free for the rest of his life and allowing him to return to the police force.

The conclusion of the settlement, which was reached in April, was announced by the city attorney. He said that he was disappointed with the settlement, which was not the city’s position.

“While we are grateful for the settlement, we believe that it does not adequately recognize the harm that the officer’s actions have caused to the community,” he said.

The settlement, which was approved by the city council in a closed session on May 7, will allow Stewart to return to his job.

Rev. Eugene Rivers Addresses IE Cops & Clergy

By Marolyn Short

Rev. Eugene Rivers, founder of the National Ten Point Leadership Foundation, an organization designed to address the needs of inner-city youth brought to work and paid program, in Riverside church and local clergy and law enforcement last week.

Rivers spoke on the topic of “Drug Life” and outlined the problems facing inner-city youth. He shared how he became involved in the spread of “Drug Life,” how he developed his program, and the impact it has made.

In his hometown of Boston, however, things have changed. The program there is now a weekly program called “Dr. Rivers’ Office.”

The program, which is similar to the program in Riverside, has received positive feedback and has been successful in reducing the drug trade and the violence that accompanies it.

The program has been highly successful in Riverside and other cities who are facing similar problems with drug and violence. It has made a significant impact on the city’s residents and has been well-received by the community.

Rev. Eugene Rivers, National Ten Point Leadership Foundation, Sacramento, makes remarks at Riverside Church and local clergy and law enforcement.

History Made-Women Ordained At New Hope Baptist Church

By Cheryl Brown

History was made as New Hope Baptist Church ordained three women ministers on Sunday, March 3.

The event, which was a momentous occasion, said Pastor Robert Rivers, senior pastor of New Hope Baptist Church.

“We are making history today,” he said.

Newly ordained deacons: Henry Gueyse, Robin Gruntes, Taya Taylor, Palma Swonts-Lee and Debra Harglow.

Fighting an armored car, according to her two cousins, Alagna and Preece. Earlier this year it was recognized by State Senator Richard R. Bloom as a "business of the year." Alagna and Preece were former supervisory officers.

Recently, an attorney general's office obtained an arrest warrant for former officer Michael Rodriguez. Shortly after that, Rodriguez told investigators that an alcoholic woman had been shot and killed. The same woman had been shot and killed by her partner.

According to an article in the Los Angeles Times, Mayor Rene Rodriguez said that the council would discuss whether to settle with the remaining two officers, Paul Bybee and Daniel Brandt. Both officers filed discrimination law suits against the city in U.S. District Court. Last year, Judge Robert Timlin stayed a case they said the other three officers had filed against an insurance company, while awaiting a rating for another case filed in Pennsylvania. Bybee and Brandt also filed a common law suit against Miller.

Levengood said he is represented by his attorney.

Some malicious employees have said they plan to attend any closed session involving the names of Bybee and Brandt. All five of the officers have received $50,000 and half of the estate of Officer Miller.

San Bernardino and Riverside Celebrates National 5 A Day Week

A "Get Healthy, California" inspires Local Youth to Take Charge of Their Health by Eating 5 to 9 Servings of Fruits and Vegetables and Being Physically Active Every Day

The Black Voice News

The last three weeks have witnessed not only a significant increase in the number of people consuming more than five servings of fruit and vegetables daily but also an increase in the number of people engaging in physical activity. The combination of these two factors has led to a significant reduction in the incidence of chronic diseases such as diabetes, heart disease, and cancer. However, there is still a long way to go to achieve the national goal of having 50% of the population consuming at least five servings of fruit and vegetables daily and engaging in physical activity.

Glen Helen Regional Recreation and Park District. For the first time in conjunction with National 5 A Day Week, the district and Camporee included a focus on children's health. The Nutrition Olympics were designed to provide children with a fun and educational way to learn about nutrition in a fun and interactive way.

This year, the California 5 A Day Campaign and California Marketing and Media Campaign included a focus on children's health as part of the California Nutrition Network. The California Nutrition Network is a coalition of organizations working to promote healthy eating and physical activity among children and adolescents.

The Nutrition Olympics included a variety of activities, including a "Fruit Race," a "Vegetable Dash," and a "Healthy Eating Relay." The activities were designed to encourage children to eat a variety of fruits and vegetables and to be physically active.

The Nutrition Olympics were a success, with more than 2,000 children participating. The California 5 A Day Campaign and California Marketing and Media Campaign are pleased with the results and hope to continue to promote healthy eating and physical activity among children and adolescents in the future.

The play, written by Kasey S. Latta, was a hit with the audience as it brought together the real-life experiences of the cast members. The story focused on a family dynamic that was both joyful and heart-wrenching, reflecting the struggles and triumphs of family life.

The play was directed by Cheryl Brown, who has been building the church's reputation for producing high-quality productions. "I Am My Brother's Keeper" is a testament to the talent and dedication of the performers, and it has set a new standard for community theater productions in the area.

The cast and crew of "I Am My Brother's Keeper" have been recognized for their hard work and dedication, and they have earned the respect and admiration of the community. The play was a huge success, and it has been praised for its powerful message and its ability to touch the hearts of its audience.

Do you feel down and out, sick and in pain? Do you need someone to talk to who can listen and be there for you? "I Am My Brother's Keeper" is the story of a family that is facing its challenges and learning how to overcome them.

The message of hope and resilience that the play delivers will resonate with anyone who is struggling with their faith or their life. "I Am My Brother's Keeper" is a story of strength and determination, and it is a reminder that with God's help, anything is possible.

"I Am My Brother's Keeper" is a must-see production that will inspire and uplift its audience. It is a reminder of the power of art to bring people together and to inspire change. The cast and crew of "I Am My Brother's Keeper" have given us a gift that will be remembered for years to come.

Ward off High Energy Costs by Replacing Windows and Doors

By Paul Neely

With more and more Black professionals entering today's workforce, we are looking to answer some questions that many of our parents did not have to address.

If I were a dog handler. For questions about December of 2001, Reed attended the Urban Chic Chat.

As a dog handler, Reed attended the Urban Chic Chat. I would like to answer some questions that many of our parents did not have to address.

It's nice to think of a few of these activities right off the top of our heads: golf, tennis, swimming, and so on. It would be great to see one of these activities every day.

There are many activities and events that we can participate in with our dogs, but I'm not aware of it.

For example, when people buy a home, one of the first things they do is get a dog. With the number of homes in Riverside County and the surrounding areas growing, many African American buying those homes, it is conceivable that a lot more African American households will have dogs. Some of the first time questions that have never been answered.

Owning a dog, especially for the first time, can be frustrating. Yes, Reed attended the Urban Chic Chat. Some may argue that it is never.

If you were a parent, what do you think of your own children? It may help with understanding their questions.

It is easy to see why some parents may have any idea how the dogs fit into the family. It is important to understand that parents may be left out of some questions.

In the following months, I would like to answer some tough questions. In particular, the Urban Chic Chat has asked some thought provoking questions that will help all of us become better dog owners.

Paul Reed is a new Urban Chic columnist. He was in college for 1996-2001. He decided to venture out into the area of dog training and make a career doing it everywhere. "I love to see the different sides of dogs," said Reed, "and I want to help the dogs grow in a responsible way.

He attended Triple Crown Dog Academy and is certified as a Canine Behavior and Training Specialist. In December of 2001, Reed attended the Urban Chic Chat. He is interested in using additional training as a police dog handler. For questions about your dog contact Paul at urbanchic@blackvoicenews.com
Dorian Gregory Takes the Controls as New Soul Train Host

By Annalise Arngrim

Los Angeles

Versatile and talented actor Dorian Gregory has been installed as the new, regular host of the Soul Train Weekly Series, replacing Shemar Moore, who behind the show, with considerable, ratings success, for five seasons, ending as of Soul Train's Fall 2003 season, it was announced recently by Executive Producer Don Cornelius.

The hunkish and very charming Gregory received his first major break as one of the stars of "Baywatch Nights," in the role of Diamont's son, "in the role of Diamont's son, it was announced in October 20, 2003.

According to Cornelius, "Dorian Gregory has been on our wish list of possible regular Soul Train Weekly Series Host's since he appeared on Soul Train as a celebrity guest host, for a single episode, back in 1996. Dorian brought his own personal and very refreshing style to the Paramount Pictures soundstage videotaping of the first four Soul Train episodes, which feature Gregory as our regular host and the entire Soul Train team, at every level, was totally thrilled by his genuinely outgoing personality and overall professionalism."

The first Soul Train Weekly Series episode with Dorian Gregory at the helm kicks off Soul Train's Fall 2003 season and will air in first-run, national syndication on Saturday, October 11.

This fall, the Soul Train Weekly Series, overall, enters its thirty-first consecutive season on the air and remains the longest running program, regardless of genre, in the entire history of first-run, national syndication.

Every voter should never have to question that their vote counts," said Shelley. "My goal through October 7th is hammering home a number of key details including to all of California’s diverse voters in multiple languages our ‘my vote counts’ program and right up through Election Day to get voters the information they need about the election so that they can make sure their vote counts," said Shelley. "Ii"

Shelley’s office has sent educational materials to every precinct in the state. Shelley said her office has been working with different government agencies to create a new voter education program called ‘my vote counts’ which will provide information about how to register and vote absentee and how to use different voting machines.

Please note that on the website, voters can find information in Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Spanish, Tagalog and Vietnamese. Voters can also get information from telephone hotlines available in the same languages.

"As Election Day approaches, I will continue to talk about and deliver essential details to all of California’s diverse communities and let them know that we’re providing ‘one stop shopping’ for all their election questions at www.myvotecounts.org," said Shelley.

In Shelley’s office has also provided information on the ballot itself. Please note that on the website, voters can find information in Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Spanish, Tagalog and Vietnamese. Voters can also get information from telephone hotlines available in the same languages.

On October 7th...
Make Your Vote Count

California's historic Statewide Special Election is Tuesday, October 7th. Make sure your vote counts by knowing these key facts:

☑ If you have received an absentee ballot, or if you've requested one, follow through and cast your vote. The election is still scheduled for October 7th.

☑ Requests for absentee ballots must be made by Tuesday, September 30.

☑ Polling place locations may be different than where you voted previously - check the back of your Sample Ballot to find your polling place location.

☑ There are two questions regarding the recall - you may vote on either or both.

☑ The 135 replacement candidates are randomly ordered - you may vote for only one replacement candidate. Your Sample Ballot shows the order of replacement candidates - bring it with you when you vote.

☑ Remember that two statewide ballot measures - Propositions 53 and 54 - appear at the end of the ballot.

For more information, go to www.myvotecounts.org or call toll-free 1-800-345-VOTE (8683).
