Cal Poly's Unity Luncheon

RIVERSIDE

In response to 2000 Census data and among his other duties and his passions, Harvey is helping to prepare institutions for the influx of minorities in higher education. In an article written by Ronald Boswell in the June 17, 2001 edition of Blacks in Higher Education, Harvey is quoted as saying that campuses should be ready to accept the growth in numbers of minority students.

"I think everyone's aware of the numbers, whether they are prepared for them is another issue," Boswell said. The article further states that according to the Department of Education 80 percent of all students will be non-white and non-English speakers by 2010.

Jim Norfleet, Associate Vice President of Student Services said that he is looking forward to the luncheon.

"We will recognize Attorney Ingrid Johnson with the Diversity Leadership Award for her work in bridging the gap for high school students to make the goal of college a reality, and reachable," he said.

The luncheon will take place at the Riverside County Sheriff's Department, which is responsible for the safety of the community. The luncheon is open to the public and will feature a keynote speech by Attorney Ingrid Johnson, who is known for her work in diversity and inclusion.

Enforcement of zoning laws is a critical issue in the community, and the luncheon will provide an opportunity to discuss the importance of enforcement and the challenges involved.

For more information, please contact the Riverside County Sheriff's Department at 714-344-7000.

Trojans complete 25 year journey back to the top of the college football universe

USC 28 MICHIGAN 14

By G. Montgomery

Pasadena - Finally, it's over. No more speculation, second guessing and punters making predictions. USC has been awarded the Associated Press share of the National Championship of College football. A sold out Rose Bowl crowd of 93,849 fans saw the USC football team dismantle and thoroughly confuse the Michigan Wolverines on New Year's Day. The Trojan defense sacked Michigan quarterback John Navarette 9 times and forced him to hurry his throws on numerous other times.

"This team would love to keep playing, we're just getting started," said coach Pete Carroll when asked about the possibility of adding another (deciding) round to the Bowl Championship Series.

Carroll's team made a surprisingly easy task of a very good Michigan team.

"I don't think it was any single play that hurt us, It was a little of everything, we just didn't play our best game," said Michigan tailback Chris Perry.

The USC defense held Michigan to a net 49 yards rushing. Navarette passed for 271 yards, only one touchdown and interception.

USC's sophomore quarterback Matt Leinart passed for 327-yards, three touchdowns and caught another 15-yard touchdown pass from star receiver Mike Williams on a trick play that caught Michigan completely off guard.

"We know we are the number one team in the country and we've proven it," said Leinart.

Senior Receiver Keary Colbert took advantage of Michigan doubling Mike Williams all day. Colbert caught 6 passes for 149-yards and 2 touchdowns. Colbert's 6 catches gave him 207 career catches pushing him past Kareem Kelly with 204 making Colbert USC's all-time career leader. Sophomore Mike Williams is 4th with 176 career catches.

Pasadena - USC quarterback Matt Leinart had the kind of day that most player can only dream of. The games Most Valuable Player completed 23 of 34 passes for 327 yards and three touchdown passes. Leinart also caught a 15-yard touchdown pass from receiver Mike Williams on a trick play.

The young quarterback simply turned to senior receiver Keary Colbert who had 6 catches for 149-yards and 2 touchdowns. Colbert's 6 catches gave him 207 career catches pushing him past Kareem Kelly with 204 making Colbert USC's all-time career catch leader. Sophomore Mike Williams is 4th with 176 career catches.

Add Some Sparkle to Your Valentine's Day These Jewelry Gifts Won't Break the Bank

Good things come in small packages. That old adage is never more true than when talking about jewelry. Whether the gift is earrings, a bracelet, or a necklace, jewelry is always a timeless (and popular) choice. Best of all, with today’s manufactured stones such as cubic zirconia near diamond likeness in quality or colored gemstones that rival the real thing, you can give the gift of jewelry for much less than you might expect.

“When you’re buying Valentine’s jewelry, it’s all about giving a gift that stands out without breaking the bank,” says Claire Kiecker, a trend buyer of fine jewelry at ShopNBC, an upscale TV and Internet retailer known for its excellence in fine jewelry.

“Color is big this year,” she says. “Our sterling silver multi-gemstone brooch is a good example. It features gemstones including amethyst, blue topaz, citrine, peridot and garnet, making it the perfect complement to any outfit. And at $79.99, it’s a great deal!” If you’re looking for a necklace, ShopNBC offers a variety of choices, including a sterling silver-platinum 4-flower pendant with cord that features blue topaz, citrine, rhodolite and peridot for $39.99.

But perhaps the most breathtaking colored stone deal is a set of 10 sterling silver gemstone studs, each individually boxed, for just $99.99. The set includes peridot, sapphire, peridote, amethyst, heliodor, citrine, cultured pearl, sky blue topaz, smoky quartz and garnet. Valentine’s Day demands sparkle and dazzle, and cubic zirconia delivers. “Top-quality cubic zirconia should be clear and look like very high quality diamonds,” says Kiecker. She notes that the setting is very important in a piece of cubic zirconia jewelry. “You don’t want a cheap, glued-in setting or a clumpy-looking setting,” she says. The setting should be pronged or bezel set so it would be for diamonds.

Two perfect Valentine’s pieces are sterling silver cubic zirconia circle drop earrings with rhodium plating for $79.99 and a matching bracelet for $49.99. At the top of each earring is a circle shape with one square cut cubic zirconia below the top circle. The circle is a string of four circle shapes made up of 77 round cut cubic zirconia stones for drop-dead glamour. The circle design bracelet includes 38 round cut cubic zirconia stones in bezel settings that come to a circle made up of 25 round cut stones in four-prong settings. The clasp is decorated with three round cut stones.

Chandelier earrings are all the rage this season, and you can get a great pair of sterling silver cubic zirconia chandelier earrings for just $39.99. Crafted with polished rhodium plated sterling silver, each earring features a total of 26 round cut cubic zirconia stones in bezel and pave settings. The stones are placed in circles and teardrop shapes and feature graduated edges for a dynamic style.

Watches are a practical gift that never goes out of style. The ShopNBC holiday gift catalog features a Genevex by Corton 7-in-1 watch set that any woman will love. The watch face is set with Austrian crystals and the set includes seven different colors of leather straps, which can be changed to fit any mood. The entire set retails for $300 but ShopNBC’s price is $99.99. To view all the great jewelry selections, visit www.shopnbc.com or call (800) 474-6762 to request a catalog.

In distributing the grant dollars designated for fire relief, the Community Foundation will continue its collaboration with The Press Enterprise, Arrowhead United Way, Mt. Baldy United Way, and United Way of the Inland Valleys in determining which relief agencies are most in need. This grant brings the total amount collected in this effort to almost $250,000. Thousands of dollars have been donated from concerned citizens, companies, and community groups who responded to the request to help their neighbors affected by the fires.

The money allocated by The James Irvine Foundation will enable The Community Foundation to provide funds to agencies to supplement their operational costs, helping them offset their expenses for delivering services to the community,” said Sheryl Alexander, CEO of The Community Foundation. “So many of these organizations have had larger salary expenses, utility bills, and supply costs related to the recent fires, and this money will be extremely helpful in helping them cover some of those costs and avoid their own financial crises.”

A Two-Year Plan to Strengthen the Arts

The $450,000

...and individuals in Riverside and San Bernardino dedicated to strengthening the arts. "We recognize the need for additional funding and will continue to seek out new sources," said Alexander. "Many local arts organizations have small budgets and rely heavily on volunteers. We welcome any proposals that may provide more resources to increase the quality of life through the arts and culture within our community."

We build cars.
But sometimes it's more satisfying to build dreams.

We're always striving to better things, whether it's in our vehicles or in our communities. That's why we're helping young adults get the education they deserve through scholarships, grants and educational programs. So no matter what dream a young child may have, we can help it out of the park.
