THE BULLETIN

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE • SAN BERNARDINO

1965

1980

May 23, 1980

IT'S HOLIDAY TIME The college will enjoy its first day off since New Year's Day with the commemoration of Memorial Day, Monday, May 26. Designated as an academic-administrative holiday for the college, no classes will be held and all offices will be closed. The Library and pool will also be closed. The P.E. courts will be open, however, from 4-9 p.m. on Monday. The Library will have normal weekend hours on Saturday and Sunday.

OPERA PRODUCTION COMING TO CAL STATE The flavor of ancient Greece and Rome will be brought to the stage here Saturday and Sunday, June 7-8, in the 17th century baroque opera, "Dido and Aeneas." The program will be presented Saturday at 8:15 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Creative Arts Building. General admission ticket for each show is $1.50; students and children will be admitted free. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Considered one of the finest operas prior to the 20th century, "Dido and Aeneas" has been hailed for its integration of music, text, song and dance into one simple artistic entity.

In three acts, the opera tells the story of the Trojan hero, Aeneas, who on his way back to Rome after the fall of Troy, takes refuge in Carthage. He falls in love with the queen, Dido, who takes her own life after Aeneas leaves to found Rome.

Theatrical director for the production is Dr. Helene Koon, professor of English, and musical director is Dr. Richard Saylor, professor of music.

GOOD SEATS STILL AVAILABLE FOR LAST PLAY OF THE SEASON Good seats are still available for Cal State's presentation of the French comedy "She Loves Me! She Said So!" The performance dates are May 29-31 and June 3-7. The curtain for each show rises promptly at 8:15 p.m. in the Theatre of the Creative Arts Building.

Tickets are $3 for general admission; $1.50 for students and senior citizens. Reservations may be made by calling 887-7452 or 887-7680.

The play is being directed by Dr. Ronald Barnes, chair of theatre arts.

CAL STATE COSTUME DESIGNER
RECEIVES NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Fred Chuang, lecturer in theatre arts, has been recognized by the United States Institute for Theatre Technology for his costume design for Medea, the Greek tragedy presented here during the winter quarter of 1979.

Chuang's entry in the First Biennial Scenography Exposition was selected unanimously by a distinguished adjudicating committee to be a part of the exposition, which was shown March 12-14 in Kansas.

A sample of his entry, which consisted of acrylic costume renderings and color photographs of the finished work, is included in a catalog of the exposition.

In a letter from Dr. Stephen G. Hild, head of the juried exposition, Chuang was told "you are to be congratulated for your entry, MEDEA, selected to be included in the first category. The judges felt yours was a particularly nice presentation, that it was honest and unique. They said it shows understanding of the characters and was one of the few shows that actually illustrated good texture."

Medea was the first Cal State show for which Chuang designed costumes.

AMERICAN THEME DEPICTED IN SENIOR ART SHOW

A collection of paintings and etchings that follow the American theme will be displayed in Gallery 11 May 27-30. An opening reception for the artist, Ken Hazelton, will take place Tuesday, May 27 from 7-9 p.m. The paintings are done with an airbrush and all feature bright, vibrant color. "I guess you could call my style abstract realism," the young artist commented.

Following graduation this year, he plans to further study his craft, "where many of the great masters did their work," in Italy.

DIXIELAND BAND TO PERFORM AT GLEN HELEN JAZZ FESTIVAL

The Cal State Dixieland Band will perform, along with a number of local groups, at the 3rd annual Glen Helen Island Jazz Festival Sunday, May 25 from 12 noon to 5 p.m. Sponsored by the San Bernardino County Parks Department, the program is free except for a $1 parking fee.

CASH FOR BOOKS

Faculty and staff who have books from recent classes that they won't be using anymore should mark June 12 and 13 on their calendar. During those days the bookstore will be buying used books.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, extension 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

AN EXCITING GAME OF WHEELCHAIR BASKETBALL

An evening of wheelchair basketball will take place in the college gym Thursday evening, May 29 at 7 p.m. The Cal State All Stars will be challenged by Rolling Start, a local group of basketball players who are confined to wheelchairs. Members of the faculty, staff, administration and students will play on the All Star team also in wheelchairs. Donation for the game is $1.50. Advance tickets are available in the Student Union, PE-120, SS-117, and the Housing Office. The program is sponsored by Disabled Student Services.

CSEA TO HAVE BAR-B-QUE AND OFFICER INSTALLATION

CSEA will hold its first annual Family Bar-B-Que and Chapter Officer Installation on the lower PE field Saturday, June 7 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. The event is open to non-members also. For tickets call Frank Lootens at 887-7358.

CAREER WEEK IS COMING

The Career Planning and Placement Center will have a special week of events May 27-29 for all interested students. An open house on Tuesday, May 27 in SS-116 will give everyone the chance to meet the staff and see the facilities. Informal discussions and a free film will be shown from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. A careers in education program will take place Wednesday, May 28 from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. in LC-500 for all aspiring teachers. Personnel directors from seven local school districts will be on hand to answer questions.

The big event of the week is the Career Opportunity Fair Thursday, May 29 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Student Union multipurpose room. Representatives from more than 30 government agencies and private industry will be on hand to informally discuss career opportunities within their professions.

FINAL LECTURE FOR SYMBOLISM SHOW

In conjunction with the 19th Century Symbolism Art exhibit on display in the Gallery, the final lecture to aid in understanding the art and literature of the period will be given Wednesday at 12 noon in the Student Union multipurpose room. The free lecture will be delivered by Dr. Renee Hubert, professor of French and comparative literature at the University of California, Irvine. He will discuss "Charles Baudelaire, Arthur Rimbaud and the Prose Poem."
