FACULTY ARTISTS
To Show Works

Cal State art faculty will show a variety of works in the Art Gallery starting Monday. Faculty members and their work are Leo Doyle, wood; Roger Lintault, sculpture; Mark Mayuga, design; Joe Moran, printmaking; Jan Mrozinski, ceramics; Scott Ward, photography; Bill Warehall, ceramics; and Don Woodford, constructions.

A reception honoring the artists will be held at 7:30 p.m., Monday in the Gallery. Faculty, staff and students are invited. The Gallery will be open regular hours during the show, 9 a.m.-noon and 1-3 p.m. Monday through Friday.

TUESDAY LAST DAY
To Add Classes

Tuesday is the last day to add classes for the winter term. It is also the last day students may change status from audit to credit. The last day for dropping classes without a record, and census date, is Jan. 27.
Devy Buchen will perform in the Recital Hall at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday as part of the Music at Cal State Series. Buchen, the wife of CSCSB School of Humanities Dean Irving Buchen, has performed across the United States and in the Caribbean with such operatic companies as the Metropolitan Opera and the New Jersey Opera Company.

Her program at Cal State will include operatic selections by such composers as Bellini and Schubert, German lieder by Brahms, a concert aria by Mozart and contemporary English madrigals by Gordon Jacob. An unusual feature of the program will be "Parto! Ma tu ben mio" by Mozart and "Der Hirt auf dem Felsen" by Schubert performed with musical accompaniment by piano and clarinet.

Admission is $2 general and $1 for students with identification.

With the return of normal academic schedules this week comes a return to normal schedules for such campus facilities as the Library, Bookstore, Student Union, Physical Education facilities and the Commons. As of this week, all but the Bookstore changed from holiday hours to regular quarter schedules.

The Bookstore will maintain longer hours through Thursday to accommodate students who need textbooks for the winter quarter. The Bookstore will close at 4:30 p.m. today, but will be open from 8:30 a.m.-8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Normal hours of 8:30 a.m.-6 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Friday will resume Jan. 16.

The Library has returned to its seven-day-a-week schedule. Hours are 8 a.m.-10 p.m., Monday-Thursday; 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Friday; 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday and 1-9 p.m., Sunday.

The Student Union's normal schedule of 8 a.m.-midnight weekdays resumed this week.

The Physical Education Building will be open from 8 a.m.-8:30 p.m., Monday-Thursday and from 8 a.m.-6 p.m., Friday through March 20. The equipment room will open at 8:30 a.m. each day and close at 8:30 p.m. weekdays and at 6 p.m. on Friday.

Racquetball and tennis courts will be open 4-9 p.m. daily through March 29. The pool will remain closed for the quarter; plans call for reopening sometime during spring quarter.

The Services to Students with Disabilities Office will sponsor another ice cream social from noon-1:30 p.m., Tuesday in the Student Union SUMP Room. Everyone is invited to drop by to make his or her own sundae. Disabled students and representatives of the Disabled Students Office will provide two kinds of homemade ice cream and plenty of toppings.

Also on the agenda is a kickoff banquet to promote community involvement in the International Year of the Disabled Person. The banquet will start at 6:30 p.m., Jan. 16 in the San Bernardino Convention Center. Tickets are $6.50 per person. More information is available from the Services to Students with Disabilities Office.
Applications for financial aid for the 1981-82 academic year are being taken in the Financial Aid Office. Almost anyone planning to attend school half time or more is eligible to apply for some form of aid.

About 41 percent more money is available this year than last, with about 10 percent more in direct grants. CSCSB will have about $2 million in grants, scholarships, work-study and loans.

Guaranteed student loans are available to students who were formerly excluded from consideration because of income. Due to the passage of the Middle Income Assistance Act in late 1978, students from households with incomes over $25,000—formerly ineligible for such loans—may now apply.

Members of the CSCSB faculty are eligible for two job exchange programs. These programs allow faculty to swap positions with comparable instructors in other colleges and universities for a quarter or longer. The exchange is meant to broaden the experience of the faculty involved and enhance their teaching abilities.

The programs for which faculty are eligible are sponsored by the California State University and Colleges, an intra-system program, and by the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, an inter-state program.

Both organizations act as a clearinghouse of available exchange opportunities. Faculty members may receive lists of available positions, and a college can have lists of available instructors from other schools.

Dr. J.C. Robinson is CSCSB's administrator for exchange programs. He has available information on other colleges' positions and can help faculty members arrange their exchanges.

W-2 forms should arrive on campus late this month. They are expected to be distributed within 24 hours of their arrival. CSCSB employees must have the W-2 before they can file income tax returns for 1980.

A film aimed at people planning to travel to Germany and for students of German culture will be shown at 6 p.m., Friday, Jan. 16 in LC 266. The film, with English dialogue, is free and open to everyone. Kenneth Richter, an American film lecturer, will narrate.
History professor Kenneth D. Barkin will speak at 1 p.m., Jan. 19 on "German National Socialism: Its Origins and Reign of Power" in LC 500. The lecture, which is open to everyone, will examine the conditions which led to the rise of the Nazis and the methods by which they remained in power.

Professor Barkin is on the faculty at UCR, where he teaches German history, specializing in the 19th and 20th centuries. The lecture is part of the German Cultural Studies program in the School of Humanities.

The intramural schedule will resume next week with a "HORSE" basketball contest Thursday. Deadline for entries is 5 p.m., Wednesday. Also coming up are floor hockey practice games at 2 p.m., Jan. 17 in the gym. Clinics for intramural basketball officials will be held at 3 p.m., Wednesday and at 1 p.m., Jan. 16.

Dr. Hal Hoverland (Administration) and Dr. Terrell Manyak (Administration) introduced student Business Club leaders Deborah Crowley, Julie Hoffman and Alan McAllister as guests of honor at the San Bernardino Rotary Club meeting Dec. 30.

Dr. Dianne E. Irwin (Learning Center) has been reappointed to the California State Board of Education's Legal Compliance Committee.

Dr. Robert Stein (Math) has been appointed to the CSUC Mathematics Committee on Systemwide Credit by Examination. The committee will examine existing credit-by-examination practices and recommend alternatives where indicated.

Dr. Robert M. O'Brien (Sociology) co-authored with his father, Robert W. O'Brien, two sections of Urban Patterns: Studies in Human Ecology. The sections are "Notes on Beale Street Forty Years Later" and "Beale Street and Temporal Ecology."

The college extends its deepest sympathy to Virginia McKenzie (Music and Theatre Arts) on the death of her husband, Raymond "Mac" McKenzie, Tuesday. A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m., Saturday in the First United Presbyterian Church, 1900 D Street, San Bernardino. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Memorial Fund of the First United Presbyterian Church.
HOLIDAY DONATIONS
FATTEN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Donations from 48 individuals and couples swelled the Cal State Associates' Scholarship fund by $685 this holiday season. The donations program is the Associates' annual holiday project. In lieu of sending greeting cards to colleagues at the college, faculty and staff donate money to the scholarship fund, then have their names listed on a single greeting card.
