MOVIE COMPANY TO BE ON CAMPUS TUESDAY

Jack Lemmon and Walter Matthau will be on campus next Tuesday to film a scene from their latest movie, "Buddy, Buddy," produced by MGM and directed by Billy Wilder, who also will be here. All filming will occur in the vicinity of the Health Center, which is being used to depict a doctor's office.

The MGM company also filmed scenes for "Buddy, Buddy" in Riverside, where they constructed a movie set on a downtown street.

Mr. Wilder became aware of the campus after Dr. Julius Kaplan (Art) borrowed from him a piece of Gaston Lachaise art for the recent show in the Art Gallery here.

OSCAR JACKSON TO LEAVE PERSONNEL POST

Oscar Jackson, who came to the college as personnel officer in November 1969, has resigned his position effective April 30. He plans to enter the retail clothing business and may also add a computer portrait system.

Jackson, a graduate of the University of Utah, previously held positions as an employment interviewer, vocational counselor, training specialist, employment service manager and community relations specialist. As CSCSB personnel officer, he has been responsible for the recruitment and training of non-academic employees and for compliance with federal and state regulations on nondiscrimination.

OPEN HOUSE SET FOR APRIL 26

Cal State, San Bernardino will host its second spring Open House Sunday, April 26. Buoyed by the success of last year's 15th anniversary celebration, a planning committee is scheduling a full afternoon of activities for students, faculty, staff and townspeople.

College activities will commence with an alumni awards luncheon at 11:30 a.m. in the Upper Commons. The campus community is invited to join with former students for the event. Nominations for the outstanding alumni awards are being sought by the Alumni Assn. and should be submitted to Associate Dean of Students Doyle Stansel by March 15.

Afternoon events will range from musical programs and a major art show to tours, demonstrations in the various schools, outdoor festivities and the children's art fair sponsored by the Cal State Associates (formerly the Faculty Wives Club). A barbecue will be served in the Commons patio from 4 to 6 p.m.

In conjunction with the American Heart Assn., the campus will host a "Hearts on the Run" event featuring 5 and 10 K runs and a 5 K walk. The events will begin about 7:30 a.m.

QUARTER BREAK BRINGS CHANGES IN SCHEDULES

The quarter break will bring a change of schedule to several campus facilities. The Library, Bookstore, Union, Commons and Physical Education and Recreation Department will go on altered schedules starting next week or the following week.

The Library will expand its hours starting Monday to enable students to prepare for final examinations. The building will be open from 8 a.m.-11 p.m., Monday through Thursday. On March 20, the hours will be 8 a.m.-5 p.m. During quarter break, the Library will be open from 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Friday. Regular hours resume March 30.

The Bookstore will close early, at 4:30 p.m., March 23 and 24. From March 30-April 2, the Bookstore will be open from 8:30 a.m.-8:30 p.m. Normal hours resume April 3.

The Student Union will maintain its regular 8 a.m.-midnight schedule through March 20. On March 23 and 24, it will be open from 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m.; on March 25-27, the hours will be 8 a.m.-9 p.m. Normal hours will resume March 30.

The Commons will stop serving with the evening meal March 20 and reopen with the evening meal March 24.

The Physical Education Building will close at 4:30 p.m., March 20, although the large gym will be closed that day for registration preparation. The building will be closed for all activity March 23 and 24 and open for registration only March 25 and 26. On March 27, the locker and equipment rooms will be open from 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., as will all external facilities, including racquetball and tennis courts. Inside facilities, however, will be closed. The building will resume its normal operating hours of 8 a.m.-8:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday and 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Fridays on March 30.

RESEARCHER TO SPEAK ON STATE OF SMOG

A member of the Air Pollution Research Center team at Riverside will speak on "Biological Basis for Air Pollution Toxicity, or How Bad is Smog?" at noon Thursday in PS 10. Dr. Brian Mudd, professor of biochemistry at UCR, will speak to a class taught by Dr. Sarojam K. Mankau (Biology). Everyone is invited.

'MURMUR OF THE HEART' NEXT FOREIGN MOVIE

"Murmur of the Heart," which received worldwide acclaim when it was released in 1972, will be the next offering in the foreign film series. The movie is a sensitive portrayal of the incestuous relationship between a teenage boy and his mother. The French film will be shown at 7 p.m. tomorrow in PS 10. It is free.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, extension 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

FACULTY SELECTED FOR ART CONFERENCE

Three members of the College faculty have been chosen to participate in a Stanford University conference on "Art as Social Criticism in Modern China and Japan" next month at Lake Arrowhead.

They are Joseph Moran (Art), Dr. Brij Khare (Political Science) and Dr. Paul Johnson (Philosophy). They were nominated by the College through an in-house selection process and accepted by Stanford.

WIND ENSEMBLE PERFORMS SUNDAY

Compositions by a CSCSB faculty member and a Rialto man will be premiered by the Wind Ensemble in its concert at 8:15 p.m., Sunday in the Recital Hall.

Highlights of the program will be "Prelude for Band" by Dr. Richard Saylor, professor of music, and "A Day in the Life of the Sea" by Morton Shafer, instrumental music teacher at Rialto Junior High School. Though Dr. Saylor's music was published in 1957, it will be performed on the campus for the first time Sunday.

Shafer's composition was commissioned by the Cousteau Society for a movie. Jacques Cousteau's son was killed during the filming, however, and the movie was never finished. Shafer will conduct its first public performance Sunday.

Tickets will be available at the door for $2 general admission and free to children and students with identification.

EMPLOYEE FEE WAIVER
DEADLINE THIS MONTH

The deadline for filing fee waiver program requests with immediate supervisors is March 25 for courses starting in the fall quarter. The fee waiver program allows campus employees to take courses directly related to their employment without paying the usual fees. Participation is contingent on approval by the employee's department and the Administrative Council.

The courses may be taken at CSCSB or another CSUC campus. Details on the program may be obtained from the Personnel Department.

HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM
BROCHURES AVAILABLE

Brochures describing the program which enables high school students to get a taste of college before graduation from high school are available in the Office of Academic Planning.

Students interested in enrolling for spring quarter are urged to apply before March 20 to the college's Admissions Office. A regular application, a copy of the student's high school transcript and the principal's recommendation are required. No application fee is needed.

The college has identified 13 classes which would be appropriate for high school seniors. Many of the high school seniors participating in the past have been children of college faculty and staff.

QUARTER ENDS
NEXT WEEK

The winter quarter ends next week. The last day of Saturday classes is tomorrow while the last day of weekday classes is Tuesday. Final examinations start Wednesday and continue through March 21. Grades are due March 23.

Spring registration is scheduled for March 25 and 26 in the Physical Education Building, with spring quarter classes starting March 30.

AS SPONSORING
BOOK CO-OP

The Associated Students is sponsoring a book co-op next week. The co-op will accept used books from any student and attempt to sell the books to other students for next quarter's classes. The sale will run Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in the Student Union. Hours will be 10 a.m.-2 p.m. and 5:30-7:30 p.m. each day.

Students who consign their textbooks to the co-op can set any selling price they wish. However, only books on the Bookstore's master list of texts to be used next quarter may be included.

All proceeds from the sale of the books will be given to the selling students; the AS takes no commission or operating expense.

ARTIST TO SPEAK HERE

Arle Galles, professor of art at Fairleigh Dickinson University, will speak on "Reflective Color Construction" at noon Tuesday in the Visual Arts Building art studio, Room 110. Everyone is invited. Galles' visit is sponsored by the Lecturers and Artists Committee.

SPEAKING OUT

Kerri Acheson (Business Administration) spoke Monday on "Dressing for Success" at Colton High School.

Dr. Ward McAfee (History) spoke March 4 on "Interesting Facts About California History" at Eisenhower High School in Rialto.

Barbara Sovereign (Services to Students with Disabilities) spoke on counseling the disabled in Dr. James Person's cross-cultural counseling class March 4.

Dr. C.E. Tapie Rohm (Business Administration) spoke on "Biofeedback: Myths, Magic and Applications" at the Rialto Women's Club March 4.

NOTEWORTHY

Dr. Marilyn Ambrose (Education) reviewed research by the American Institutes for Research in the Behavioral Sciences Feb. 26 at a Technical Assistance Forum at the Western Center for Vocational Education in Los Alamitos.

Roger Lintault (Art) finished a one-man show of his sculpture March 5 at California State University, Fullerton's University Center. He exhibited nine mixed media constructions under the title "Architectural Dreams and Visions."

Don Woodford (Art) is represented in a show of collages at the Lyon Gallery at A.K. Smiley Library in Redlands.

PUBLICATIONS

M.R. Burgess (Library) has sold five articles to the Dune Encyclopedia, scheduled for publication by Berkley/Putnam this fall or winter. The book is edited by Dr. Willis E. McNelly, English department chair at Cal State, Fullerton. Burgess has also reached agreement with the former king of Sikkim for an interview, with plans for the subsequent publication of the interview as a book.

PERSONALS

The college extends its sympathy to Ruth Moran (Public Affairs) on the death of her brother, William Creel, Jr., March 4 in San Diego.

CSCSB STUDENT DEATHS REPORTED

The deaths of two Cal State students have been reported in the last month. Geraldine Elizabeth Pethoud died Feb. 16 of injuries suffered in an automobile accident and Abdul Mutakabbir Zakariyya was shot Feb. 26 in San Bernardino.

Zakariyya was a senior majoring in criminal justice. Mrs. Pethoud, who lived in Temecula, was a senior in business administration. She was general accounting manager at Borg-Warner Mechanical Seal Division in Temecula and is survived by two adult children.
