50 states. 1,500 cities. 150,000 miles. The PPA bus is traveling throughout the country with one clear message: no one who needs medicine should go without. And in just over 2 years, we’ve helped more than 4 million people who are uninsured and struggling. Since the program began, the PPA bus—sponsored by America’s pharmaceutical research companies—has spent more time in California than any other state. We’ve been from Redding to Riverside and Salinas to Santa Ana helping more than 230,000 Californians in need. If you or someone you know needs help paying for medicine, call 1-888-4PPA-NOW or visit www.pparx.org.

Music, music and more music—It'll be a good time for fans coming from all corners of the world for a weekend of golden memories at the 50th anniversary of the Monterey Jazz Festival presented by Vassar. The Monterey Country fairground is set to open the place to be Sept. 21, 22 and 23 for sticks in the mud who can't find the passion, depth, diversity and range of satisfaction available in jazz.

The grounds, halls and stages will all be saturated with stylistically distinctive expressions of the art form formulated in the heads, minds and souls of African-Americans.

PitMarcie players include artist-in-residence Terence Blanchard, Dave Brubeck, Sonny Rollins, Gerald Wilson, Dave Holland, John McLaughlin, John Huston, Isaac Delgado and a 50th anniversary all-star ensemble featuring Blanchard, James Moody, Nancy Freiman, Benny Green, Kendrick Scott and Derrick Hodge. O'Conner Coleman, Lix Lobos, Chris Potter, the Next Generation Jazz Orchestra featuring top teen players, Gonzalo Rubalcaba, Eric Harland, Otis Taylor, the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts Jazz Band and Diana Krall are also headliners.

The main arena's Jonny Lyons Stage, Dizzy's Den, Garden Stage, Bill Berry Nightclub, Coffee House Gallery, West Lawn, Courtyard Stage and the brand-new Lyons Lounge will explode with sound as 500 artists actively engage enthusiastic listeners for five concert sets in three days. Golden goddess giving fans something to talk about for another 50 years will include Gerald Wilson's world premier commission "Monterey Moods," Monterey Jazz Festival Chamber Orchestra's premier of "Requiem for Katrina," Blanchard's heartfelt tribute to his New Orleans' roots; a Hammond B-3 organ blast with now No. 1 organist Joey DeFrancesco and the Atsuko Hashimoto trio with special guest saxophonist Houston Person and drummer Jeff Hamilton; and the new historic-jaden Lyons Lane which serves as a connecting crossroads of past and present Monterey memorabilia.

Gleason. Dan Ouellet, M. Bunch, Yazz Ahmed, Steve Coleman, Valencia and Ron Hudson will be on stage in the Coffee House Gallery. Numerous main stages, festival producers and associated Darlene Chan, Paul Westbrooks, Ashley Kahn, Orrin Keepnews and Bill Minet will discuss the significance and contributions of MJF co-founder Ralph McLaughlin, John Moody, Nnenna Freelon, McLaughlin, James Hunter, Sonny Rollins, Gerald Wilson and soul of African-Americans.

sales to help cover the travel costs. Hopefully we can never forget it," said Supervisor Han. Berger.

Supervisors Gonzales and Hansberger each addressed the audience. They said that they had been circulated with information about the classified advertisement.

Supervisor Hansberger said that a 200-paged document addressed the matter. She added that she had problems with the "injunction for a blowout sale" in East Riverside with provisions that would "benefit the Rod Pacheco Foundation.

"It's not fun marching to bury 12, 13-year-olds," said Supervisor Hansberger. "We have been here for years and the kids may be too young to understand the problems.

Other residents said that steps were necessary to address the problems. The California Task Force and FEMA at the 16th Street 7th Day Adventist Church. The event was very much a part of the program.

Councilman Rikke Van Johnson, who is president of the Riverside chapter of the NAACP, said that she had problems with an "injunction for a blowout sale" in East Riverside with provisions that would "benefit the Rod Pacheco Foundation.

"They will learn how they should not take their freedom, as well as their rights to learn and to lead and write, for granted," she said.

"They will learn about a period in time that was very much a part of the program. They will learn from a person on the List had been fired.

African American Youth Have Great Minds When Properly Nurtured

Richard O. JONES

African American youth are musical. They are student-athletes and talented performing artists. They are creative, innovative, and entrepreneurial. They have a remarkable ability to express themselves through various forms of art. If given the opportunity, they can achieve significant success in their chosen fields.

African American youth are not just consumers of music; they are creators of it. They are not just fans; they are performers. They are not just consumers of art; they are artists. They have a unique perspective and a unique voice that can bring about positive change.

African American youth are also athletic. They have a natural talent for sports and physical activity. They excel in various sports such as basketball, football, and track and field.

African American youth are not just consumers of food; they are chefs. They can create delicious and healthy meals. They have a natural talent for cooking and can make nutritious and tasty dishes.

African American youth have a strong sense of community and belonging. They are proud of their heritage and want to pass it on to future generations. They are actively involved in their communities and are leaders in their schools and neighborhoods.

It is crucial that we recognize and support the talents and abilities of African American youth. We need to provide them with the resources and opportunities they need to succeed. We need to encourage them to pursue their dreams and to believe in their abilities.

As we celebrate the talents of African American youth, we must also recognize the challenges they face. They face systemic racism, economic inequality, and educational disparities. We must work towards creating a more equitable and just society where all youth have the opportunity to succeed.

Let us honor and support the talents of African American youth. Let us work together to create a world where all youth can thrive.
you buy a pair and a child gets a pair free

Introducing TOMS Shoes for her. A child in need will be happy you got a pair, too.

TOMS isn't short for Thomas. It's short for tomorrow. Because that's where the focus is. When you purchase a pair of TOMS, a child in need will also get a pair—that's TOMS Shoes' promise.

Last year, TOMS founder Blake Mycoskie and a few volunteers handed out 10,000 pairs of TOMS to Argentine children. This fall, 50,000 pairs of TOMS will be distributed to kids in South Africa; 15,000 of those will arrive because of Macy's customers. Thanks for making the world a little more comfortable.
This week I would like to give a tip on something that will be simple and fun to close out the summer.

I have a dear friend who says an event that doesn’t raise money, isn’t a fundraiser, it’s just a party. Well, I think right now that’s exactly what we need...a party with no particular purpose but to have FUN. Fun and laughter are very important to help us get through life. Over time as we reflect over life, it’s the positive memories that help us get through the tough times. Over the summer, many of us have been running crazy trying to fit in graduations, weddings, vacations, and possibly a fundraiser here or there. As we go back to school and get back into the groove of things, think about putting together a simple “block party” and get to know your neighbors all over again. Unfortunately we sometimes wait until a catastrophe hits before we reach out and just be kind to those around us.

Keep things simple. Be a committee of one and just reach out to those on your street and even around the corner. Create a flyer on your computer and have your children put them on the doors. Make it a potluck where everyone brings their favorite dish. Keep cost down and have everyone bring enough paper products to feed their own family. If you plan to hold this block party in the street, check with your Council District to see if you have to get a permit to close down the street. Otherwise, just pull out the lawn chairs, turn on some music and go from yard to yard enjoying the early summer evening!

Oh and by the way, if you must have a party with a purpose, pass around a clipboard and have everyone print their family name, address, emergency number and email. You can then create a neighborhood directory. This way you can all be connected and if an emergency ever does hit your street you will all have a way to contact and help each other!

Let us know if you have a question or want us to discuss something in particular regarding the community and or an event.

Wendy is the founder and president of Personal Services Plus Event Management Company. Go to www.personalservicesplus.com or email her at wendy@personalservicesplus.com.
Music, music and more music; it'll be a good time for fans coming from all corners of the world for a weekend of golden memories at the 50th anniversary of the Monterey Jazz Festival presented by Verizon.

The Monterey County fairgrounds is not the place to see Sept. 22 and 24 for tickets in the rear who can't find the pastor, depth, diversity and range of offerings available in jazz.

The grounds, halls and stages will be saturated with stylistically distinctive expressions at the fair foregrounded in the hearts, minds and souls of African Americans.

Pinnacle players include artist-in-residence Terence Blanchard, Dave Brubeck, Sunny Rollins, Gerald Wilson, Dave Holland, John McLaughlin, James Hines, Isaac Delgado and a 50th anniversary all-star ensemble featuring Blanchard, James Moody, Nina Simone, Benny Green, Kendell Scott and Deeridge Holiday.

Onstage Colman, Los Lobos, Chris Potter, the Next Generation Jazz Orchestra featuring top ten players, Graceland, Cypress, Earl Harris, Otis Taylor, the Los Angeles County High School for the Arts Jazz Band and Diana Krall are all headliners.

The main arena's Jimmy Lyons Stage, Danny Tiers, Eddie Siegel, Bill Berry Nightclub, Coffee House Gallery, West of the Mountains Stage and the brand-new Lynne's Lounge will explore fine wine, spirits and jazz. A 50-yard square activity engendered enthusiasm for jazz for three days.

Good feeling giving face something to talk about for over 50 years with a mission to reflect a community where people can feel good about themselves.

Re: Branca's Monterey picture, it's a special place some people as passionate about jazz and you to make you feel good about yourselves. So you can't find the pastor, need, depth, diversity and range of offerings available in jazz.

According to Dr. Mickens, the concept of the program is to have as many people as possible to start making better food and exercise choices, good role models for their children, and other friends.

Dr. Mickens said that realizing the importance of health is a big issue.

The program is intended to serve women from the ages of 18-54.

Mickens hopes to get people to join the program and get educated about food, exercise, address community concerns, and get the word out.

Champions for Change offers several services to help educate the public in living healthily lifestyles.

In May of 2007 the Network for a Healthy California American campaign launched "Champions for Change" program for African American residents of the San Bernardino and Riverside counties to create a healthy lifestyle.

Adriel Mickens, Dr. coordinates the American campaign for San Bernardino County. Mickens is a certified Health Education Specialist with a degree in Health Education from Texas A&M University.

She has served as a speaker in programs such as the Health Equity Wellness Conference.

Dr. Mickens said that realizing the importance of health is the most important service.

This program offers a small scale program that serves the people who can get involved in physical activity.

Dr. Mickens said, "It's been an effort to provide access to the community because I say it's as being relevant in the community. There are high proportions of African Americans with chronic health diseases including hypertension.

The network for a Healthy California American campaign and California African Garden Neighborhood Cluster Assembly will host the panel discussion focused on the subject "Music and Movies." Deleffors will moderate.

A weekend's working conversation history and celebrating contemporary creativity. As with "Salute" new films, "Homelessness," will be pre-viewed and Ralph Leman's 7th film celebrating MJF's 50th anniversary will be a special feature.

Gerald Wilson will do Bluegrass sageness as the Monterey Sessions.

The Sunday evening of new film look in progress by Mac's and featuring the Buena Vista String Band, Brazilian rhythms by Soulbird, the Risk Club of San Francisco, Percussion Playshow and, for very children, a Fairy Tale Show.

Ken Calvert to Seek Re-Election to Congress

Ken Calvert (R-Corona) announced his intention to seek re-election to California’s 44th Congressional District to send me to Washington to fight for them for another two years.”

Of the US House, and I humbly ask the people of the 44th Congressional District to re-elect me to Washington to fight for them for another two years.”

Di strict to send me to Washington to fight for them for another two years.”

“Tremendous changes that have raised in Corona, I have seen the quality of life in southern California. As a public servant, I have improved and challenged our quality of life in southern California. As a public servant, I have improved and challenged our quality of life in southern California.

“I am here and abroad our American civilization faces critical challenges that demand that we send proven, principled and proactive leaders to Congress. My record of working on forward-thinking solutions based on sensible, conservative, commonsense principles is my personal platform for re-election.

As a leader in the fight against illegal immigration for over a decade, I stand with the full force of the citizens of the 44th when I say “NO” to amnesty for illegal aliens. We have faced down the danger of the recent Senate Amnesty bill, but we must remain vigilant against every attempt by the Nancy Pelosi liberals in the House to pass an amnesty bill.”

In 1996 Calvert created the Basic Pilot Program – the only employment verification system available nationwide for employers to electronically check the legal status of their employees to work in the US. His current legislation, HR 19, would make employment verification mandatory across the nation. He has consistently voted for building and funding the Border Fence, defending the National Guard to our southern border and for hiring more Border Patrol agents.

“Security also means we must have the tools to fight the global terrorists who wish to do harm in our world throughout. Through my career and in my every year on the Armed Services Committee I have worked to give our Armed Forces, Intelligence Agents and Law Enforcement officials the tools and support they need to keep us safe. Only last week did we have to fight and defeat an attempt by the Nancy Pelosi liberals to hinder our intelligence agents in their ability to capture terrorist communications information.

“While our efforts in Iraq should have been more about and focused on the tools to fight the global terrorists who wish to do harm in our world throughout. Through my career and in my every year on the Armed Services Committee I have worked to give our Armed Forces, Intelligence Agents and Law Enforcement officials the tools and support they need to keep us safe. Only last week did we have to fight and defeat an attempt by the Nancy Pelosi liberals to hinder our intelligence agents in their ability to capture terrorist communications information.

“I am eager to hear the Crocker-Petraeus strategy in place to secure our nation. The peace and security for our nation. The peace and security for our nation.

Family Involvement Helps Kids Learn

K ids do best when families, teachers, and students work together as a team.

Students of all ages and grade levels do better when families help them at home. Setting a regular time for study in a quiet place is a big help. Kids focus better on their lessons with fewer distractions from television or loud music.

Open communication between families and teachers is also important. Back-to-school nights and parent-teacher conferences are good opportunities to meet your child’s teachers and learn about your child’s progress. As this new school year begins, let’s work together as a team to help all students succeed.

For more ideas on how to help your child, ask a teacher or visit us at www.cta.org.

Every child deserves a chance to learn and no child succeeds alone.

Assembly member Wilmer Amina Carter (D-Rialto) is determined to change the way California decides on rail and road money. With bipartisan support from Republicans and Democratic lawmakers, AB 445 authored by Carter passed the Assembly late Tuesday, as the legislature prepared to adjourn for the year.

The measure would require the California Transportation Commission and Caltrans to assess statewide transportation needs and funding sources every five years beginning on July 1, 2008. The state has no requirement to make the right decision by approving nearly $20 billion in transportation bonds in a single year. Carter argues, according to the estimated $250,000 cost for every five years for compiling the report to tell them about the state’s transportation woes. Carter disagrees with the estimated $250,000 cost every five years for compiling the needs assessment is a drop in the bucket compared to the billions at stake in transportation decisions.

"Let’s quicken the pace of the project and get the Minneapolis bridge repaired and not wait until it’s too late to improve our transportation system."

AB 445 puts spotlight on state funding needed to fix congestion at notorious “ Cotton staging bottleneck where westbound Union Pacific freight trains roll over Burbank Northern Santa Fe tracks.

As the days of summer grow shorter and the new school year looms closer, parents are often overwhelmed by the idea of what will be needed to make the transition a smooth one. For many children this involves wearing their best clothes and playing their favorite sports, but in reality it is much more than that. Parents should talk about their expectations with regard to homework, summer reading, and where to meet the bus, basic bus safety rules, as well as things they will learn in the year ahead. Parents should begin to make their daily routine of waking up the children, getting them ready for school, making sure the children are going to school and if necessary, being there for them. As the school year begins many children will be excited about seeing their old friends but apprehensive about the new school year. The first day of school should be a fun filled day filled with excitement and joy. It’s important for parents to make sure their children are comfortable with the changes that are about to take place. Here are the top ten things to consider:

1. Be sure the child will be able to play sports if they choose to. There are many different types of sports that children can play at school, including soccer, football, basketball, and baseball. Before school begins, parents should research different sports and make sure their child is comfortable with the sport they choose.

2. If the child will be taking a school bus, arrange for the necessary paperwork to be done. Be sure to have the child’s school supply list on hand, as well as the child’s name and address. Parents should try to get their child ready for school in the morning and make sure they arrive on time for school. Parents should also make sure the child has a healthy breakfast and dinner before school.

3. If the child will be taking a school bus, parents should be sure to have the necessary paperwork done. Parents should make sure their child is comfortable with the changes that are about to take place. Here are the top ten things to consider:
