The incident began when a uniformed officer was a lone in the neighborhood. The of­ camer had been trying to locate a subject who was wanted for a warrant. As the officer was in the vicinity of the house, he was approached by a man who was later identified as the subject.
Police later found the man had a handgun.

When a meal especially meaningful, dinners will often comprise the chef's favorite dishes. This can be seen in the following recipe, which includes ingredients that are traditional to the chef's cultural background. The dish is a favorite for family gatherings, as it is easy to prepare and has a rich, flavorful taste. It is often enjoyed with a side of vegetables, such as steamed green beans and a salad with a light vinaigrette.

In addition to being a delicious meal, the recipe is also nutritious and healthy. It contains a good balance of protein, vitamins, and minerals, which are essential for maintaining a healthy diet. The dish can be adapted to suit individual dietary preferences, such as vegan or gluten-free options. It is a perfect meal for a special occasion, such as a family dinner or a holiday feast.

In conclusion, this recipe is a testament to the chef's love of good food and the importance of bringing people together through the shared experience of dining. Whether enjoyed in the comfort of one's own home or in a restaurant setting, this meal is sure to be a hit with family and friends. It is a reminder of the significance of good food in our lives and the joy it brings to us and those around us.

"If we get an officer-involved shooting in another agency's jurisdiction, the other agency tells us where the investigation is coming from," Loveridge said. "If it's one of our jurisdictions, we're involved in it and we proceed.

"In any police department, there are officers that do the right things 99.9 percent of the time and one percent of the time you hear a lot of the noise, because we're talking about a cop that has done something.

"But when we have two incidents of officer involved shootings in a 24-hour period, it's kind of troubling," Loveridge said.

AMA's First Award Show held at the Nokia Theatre L.A. Live

LOS ANGELES

By Lea Michelle Cash

Dick Clark cranked the AMAs in the early '70s, when he was the musical arm of the American record industry, publicizing and promoting these events in entertainment.

From Elvis Presley, James Brown, Bono Vox, Michael Jackson to Usher and Justin Timberlake, from Cher to Mariah Carey and Christina Aguilera, from Neil Diamond to Sheryl Crow, Rascal Flatts and Garth Brooks, from Elvis Presley and Sammy Davis Jr, from Elvis Presley, Willy Nelson to Rod Stewart, from Bono Vox, LL Cool J to Barry Manilow and many others, the entertainers to mention, the AMAs have seen the greats of pop music come together to take the stage whether as honorees or to give extraordinary performances.

On Sunday, November 18, 2007, the Nokia Theatre L.A. Live, downtown LA's brand new sushi bar and media center, was the first place to host the 35th Annual American Music Awards (AMAs), the first time the event has been held outside of Los Angeles since 1974.

The broadcast, the celebrity guests strutting down the red carpet and rocketing the house as camera flashed and fans screamed with full blown energy. The atmosphere was one of excitement because the A-list of performers stepped out to show off their talents.

The biggest winners of the evening were American Idol alumni, Chris Daughtry and Carrie Underwood. Both took home three AMAs. Backstage the trio, "The American Idol Show didn't make us who we are, it just gave me a chance to show everybody else who I am." Underwood's performance of theinstantly classic song "Taking Chances" and Queen Latifah brought the house down and received a standing ovation with her hit "Irreplaceable." The duo said, "She's just truly remarkable, beautiful... on the outside and on the inside as well.

Usaand with her mother

Chris Brown presented the International Artist Award to Beyonce, who was a featured performer for the evening. Usain stated, "Beyonce is something rare and very special." Backstage, the country western group, Sugarland, explained how excited they were to perform with Beyonce, a shotgun version of her hit "Hot Chickens." The duo said, "She's just truly wonderful, beautiful... on the outside and on the inside as well.

Celina Dion performed her new song "Falling Chinae" and Queen Latifah brought the house down and received a standing ovation with her fresj and safety performance. Backstage in the pressroom, Celine was on stage talking to the media when Chris Brown was performing on stage. He politely asked the group, "I'd love to watch his performance, everyone's eyes flew to the TV monitor as they watched Chris Brown's performance which included a dance routine while suspend mud up high above the stage. The musicians were wild and so did superfan Celine who shouted her age at the age of 12.

Other performances included Mary J and Alicia Keys. Although both artists were not nominated for an award this year, each still shone as brightly as their peers and presented fabulous performances, as well as created major excitement on the red carpet with fans.

In the favorite Rap/Hip-Hop category, LL Cool J and Akon were huge stars with two AMAs and a very excited Bone Thugs-N-Harmony won favorite Rap/Hip-Hop group. The musical artist Akon was also very excited. We took home the AMA for favorite Male artist, Smooth/Records & Music, along with Rihanna who was the best female. Whitney hosts own Brown and Fantasia Backstage Akon expressed his season happiness that the public had finally voted for him.

This was his first AMA. Lately he is working on the Whitney Houston project and that experience he said, "To going to be very special."

All nominees selected for an AMA are based on national sales and radio play. This year was the first time in history the public was able to vote for their favorite artist on line. According to AMA, about 12 million people voted. "This is America's award show and the public chooses which nominees will," said Terry Ramsar, CEO of Dick Clark Productions.

For over 20 years, Jeff Clanagan, President and CEO of Codeblack Entertainment, dedicated his life to producing, promoting, and distributing quality entertainment for the Black community.

Codeblack Entertainment, based in Los Angeles County, is the first independent African American-owned film studio with a mission in providing a collected work of films and television programs dedicated to delivering the positive representation of African Americans in film. Codeblack has produced such titles as "Steve Harvey: Don't Trip, He Ain't Through With Me Yet!" and "Preaching to the Choir."

Prior to his position at Codeblack Entertainment, Clanagan, 46, had an active background in representing many of the hit entertainers of today. He did promotional marketing for national concert tours with such artists as Run DMC, LL Cool J, NWA, and Will Smith.

The California native grew up in San Jose with his parents and two siblings. Clanagan showed marketing potential at a young age, he said, "My career began as an entrepreneur in high school when I was promoting local parties. I later became involved with running Master P's films and video company, No Limit Films, and from my training with that company I was able to establish Codeblack Entertainment."

Among Clanagan's role models are Bill Gates of Microsoft and his father. "My father supported and believed in me during the early stages of my career when it was really tough out there. He always supported and believed in my vision."

"The most valuable lesson my parents taught me was the importance of perseverance and independence. As a track and football athlete in high school I had to believe in myself and allow my confidence to keep me going, and the workplace is the same way," said Clanagan.

Clanagan is in the midst of working on "Mama, I Want to Sing," a 2008 film project starring Grammy winners Ciara and Patti Labelle, and Emmy award winner Lynn Whitfield. He said the movie gives a 2008 take on the 1980's gospel musical.

Clanagan identifies the privilege of being able to provide opportunities to Black and Latino independent filmmakers as the most rewarding aspect of being President of Codeblack Entertainment. He advises future marketing potentials to gain as much education as possible in order to be successful, he said, "Education is key, you have to learn about the business including how distribution works, and it takes good marketing skills in order to make a film successful.

Gram's BBQ and Seafood

20 Year Business Tickles Taste Buds and Palates

By C.F. Hawthorne

What would summers be without Gram's BBQ, or winter's without Gram's deep fried turkey for Thanksgiving or Christmas Dinner? Gram's BBQ has been around for almost twenty years. Not only feeding Inland Empire families and friends with that down home country BBQ, but many of Riverside, San Bernadino, and San Diego public, events.

Gram's is known for their wonderful smoked BBQ, on a warm summer day, with lemonade and chocolate cake. The location of Gram's BBQ, 3527 Max Street, Riverside, is extremely conducive to great conversation and laughter. Perfect for you to rest your mind and enjoy life's simple pleasures such as Sock-It-To-Me Cake and hot coffee. See Gram's has a flair that goes beyond deep golden on fried-carth and hush puppies with a side of grits, Gram's offers a flavor that is almost fulling fast, from our taste buds, but once you walk through the doors times the number one BBQ spot in the Inland Empire...because it is.

Gram's gives the Inland Empire what so many other restaurants are missing, the fun of family, friends and bar. Robert and Evelyn have put great eating back on the table with love, laughter and live music on Thursday night. Gram's is a place where you feel at home.

Shriver Joined by 14,000 For The Annual 2007 Women's Conference

By Lea Michelle Cash

If you asked me today, to tell you the most amazing person with an impressive story about their philanthropic spirit, I would tell you the story of Oseola McCary. She was the ninety Black washing woman with a sixth grade education who donated her life's saving of $250,000 from washing White professional's clothing. I learned the day that I met her and I am haunted by the time I spent with her before she died in Sep. 1999.

After that, you'd tell about a man named Dr. Muhammad Yunus. I learned of him in my communication studies class and I learned to meet the Nobel Peace Prize winner. My wish mostly came true. The world class roster of speakers at this year's California Governor and First Lady's Women's Conference in Long Beach at the Long Beach Convention Center "Remarkable Lives, Remarkable Legacies. What's Yours?" is name a few of the 80 extraordinary individuals included: Former Prime Minister Blair, Her Majesty Queen Rania Al Abdullah of Jordan, First Lady of Mexico Margarita Zavala, Diane von Furstenberg, Joaquin Carter, Brenna Sprouse, Cesar Chavez, Laura Bush, Lothar Mathes, Roberta Crawford and Dr. Muhammad Yunus. Sixty of the 80 individuals featured were dynamic world leaders.

This year's conference was designed and shaped to encourage women to think about their own legacies, assisting women to leave the conference with tools, inspiration and motivation to look inside themselves, identify what they want to leave, and commit to creating them. "We have taken this year's theme to heart and want to support that the conference leaves an own positive, lasting legacy on each participant and the community," said Erinn Stull, Executive Producer of the Women's Conference. "The conference has truly grown from an inspirational day for thousands of women into a worldwide community that can unite in such and every day of the year."

My dream of meeting Dr. Muhammad Yunos became a reality and I was inspired tremendously. Dr. Yunus the anti poverty and banking pioneer, in 1983, founded the Grameen Bank, which focused on helping women in his native Bangladesh, escape from poverty through micro-lending. His first loan, to a poor laborer woman consists of $27.00 dollars worth of rice from his own pocket. Then he made 42 more $27.00 loans to women in the village. This act of kindness spear headed the creation of an institution to lend to those women who had nothing. The results of his efforts are revolutionary, translating a vision into practical action towards the empowerment of poor women. Along with being awarded the 2006 Nobel Peace Prize, Dr. Yunus has been awarded 36 honorary doctorates and is a strong advocate for poverty around the world. To date over the last two decades Grameen Bank has loaned out over 8.5 million dollars to the poorer of the poor while maintaining according to news reports a repayment rate consistently above 98%. It has been stated that Dr. Yunus inspired a global micro-credit movement reaching out to millions of poor women from South Africa to inner city Chicago. Dr. Yunus stated that, "The average loan is $150.00 dollars. He continued; "Money goes to poor women brings much more benefi ts to their families. So I focused on women to bring about social and economical change to their villages."

Starting A Non-Profit Tax-Exempt Corporation

By Richard Nevins

A popular misconception among many people who want to create a tax-exempt corporation is that they want to use this type of corporation to get grants and earn money for themselves with- out paying taxes. In reality, the actual owner of a tax-exempt non-profit corporation is the board of directors. The government uses the board of directors as a watch dog over the corporation. As the true legal owners of the corporation, the board of directors hold personally responsible for the correct operation of the corporation, even though the board of directors are all volunteers and may only meet once per year.

The creation of a tax-exempt non-profit organization is based upon an important exchange between the government and the corporation. The trade is that the government will allow a corporation to operate without the payment of income tax in exchange for the corporation donating all of its assets to charity and for using all of the corporation's resources for the benefit of the general public, instead of for the private benefit of a few key individual shareholders.

The result of these two appli cations is that any corporation is not exactly the same entity. These two terms signify the two major applications of this process. The first step is the creation of any corporation to state an intention to operate the corporation either as a for profit or non-profit corporation. The Articles of Incorporation is the document used for this purpose and it is filed with the California Secretary of State. Once the Articles of Incorporation are approved, the corporation is officially formed and can begin operations.

The second step is that a non-profit corporation must file an application with the California Franchise Tax Board and with the Internal Revenue Service to request that their newly formed non-profit corporation become exempt from federal and state income taxation.

The result of these two applications is that a corporation is completely owned and controlled by the board of directors. It is a common that a single individual will own and control that corporation. To "become" a for-profit corporation, a single individual can own operate and control everything. However, to become a tax-exempt non-profit corporation, the founder of an organization must agree to relinquish personally the ownership of everything that the organization owns and also agree, via a declaration in the Articles of Incorporation, that none of the assets of the organization will be used for the private personal benefit of any individual, including the founder.

The IRS and the Franchise Tax Board has the power to revoke the tax-exempt status of any organization for violation of this basic requirement. Revocation will also mean that all donations previously received by the organization will not be tax deductible by the individual who made those donations. Revocation may also result in personal liability to the board of directors for failing to properly supervise the actions of their corporation.

Redlands East Valley Outlasts Murrieta 60-53 In CIF Quarterfinal

By Jon D. Gaede

The Bruins Are A Tease

Redlands East Valley's Chris Polk (USC bound) outruns a Murrieta defender, enroute to one of his four touchdowns. Polk had 232 yards of total points. Redlands East Valley will play a tough Norco squad on Friday night in the CIF semifinal.

Chris Polk in the open field.

This CIF Quarterfinal would have ceased to be a contest by halftime. Murrieta Valley scored to pull within two touchdowns at the half, 28-14. The only reason to stay would have been the 50-50 drawing, except for the unexpected.

Murrieta's quarterback, Matt Negron was phenomenal in the loss. He simply matched every Long Short 1 yard line.

Chris Polk had 10-14. UCLA next plays Rose Bowl. Oregon on November 24th at the Rose Bowl on January 1, 2008. Fourth-string quarterback, Craig Sheppard, tried as far as the Bruins' touchdowns. Matt Slater returned a kickoff 89 yards in the 3rd quarter for a score immediately turning back the clock. Craig Sheppard, tried as far as the Bruins.

Asu 1-yard line

The teams combined for 1210 total yards and 13 points. Redlands East Valley will play a tough Norco squad on Friday night in the CIF semifinal.

The Island Empire Christian Women's Unity Gathering (IECWoG) will be held at 7:30 PM on Saturday, November 24th from 7:30 PM to 10:00 PM at the Atlantis Desert Top Tree Hotel located at 222 North Vineyard Avenue. The cost is only $12.00 and breakfast will be served.

The guest speaker for this exciting gathering of women will be Cheryl Salem, Miss America 1980. Ms. Salem will share a dynamic message that details part of her lifetime of conquering numerous obstacles, including a car accident that left her paralyzed and the loss of her six-year-old daughter. Salem credits her success in her presenting field and most of all God and her commitment to win this race called life.

Cheryl Salem has spoken to groups across the world and has a life-changing message for all who hear her. I am convinced that this is the women of your Island Empire and Southern California as a whole will be deeply impacted by hearing from this awe-inspiring speaker, and I hope that women will participate in these ope n speaking events, and I hope that women will participate in these exciting speaking events, and I hope that women will participate in these exciting speaking events.

by Rev. R.W. Dryden. It occurred due to one of the pews being in the way of the altar and causing a near miss. However, the church was saved and the pews were restored and stained by the Sons of Good Hope.

On February 25, 2006, the Rev. James Fulkerson was called to the pulpit at Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church. Under the leadership of the Good Hope Church, the church continues to make small steps in the body of Christ. In August of this year, Good Hope Missouri Baptist Church is 18 years old.

Youth Summit and Gospel Fest Expedients and the love of so many young people were touched by this event. Additionally, the church family was praying that the Lord will allow them to break ground next year to build new sanctuary.

The public is invited to come out and support 49 years in God's ministry. And, from the Lord that the church will be blessed.
